Fraternal Christmas

Tree And Program

A Christmas program was enjoyed by a company of over sixty at the close of Andover Rebekah Lodge meeting Wednesday evening. Christmas poems were read by Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. F. S. Porter. A soliloquy, "Mrs. Prindle," by Mrs. W. N. Rice, a recitation, "The Magic Mistletoe," by Mrs. E. P. Rogers and a one-act play, "A Christmas Disappointment," by Mrs. Florence Slocum and Mrs. Edward Mullen. All were finely given and greeted with hearty applause. The program was interspersed with splendid musical numbers. Three selections were played by a trio, Miss Alice Rogers, violin; Claire Backus, cornet and Mrs. Hayden Rogers, piano. Two vocal duets, Christmas numbers were sung by Mrs. E. P. Rogers and Mrs. Will Bines and by Misses Inez and Edna Youmans with violin obligato played by Miss Alice Rogers. Miss Rogers also rendered a violin solo. The musical numbers were marked for skill and splendid rendition.

At the close of the program, the gifts including the proverbial Christmas bags of popcorn and candy for all were distributed from the tree.

—Don't let your gift list trouble you. Send that absent friend a years subscription to the home paper. Nothing pleases better.

Independence Community Christmas

There will be a novel Christmas entertainment at the church on Christmas Eve. The program will consist of a play, "The Spirit of the Christ," by A. L. Powell, which includes tableaux and music furnished by a community chorus. The spirit of Christmas will be further carried out by giving everyone an opportunity to bring any gift, properly labeled, to any cause or object which he cares to help at this season.
