"HONESTY IN BUSINESS BRINGS A LASTING SUCCESS"

This store was first opened to the public on April 17th, 1884. Its corner-stone was laid upon the solid foundation of HONES-TY-fair, candid, and upright in our dealings-frank and open in advertising, and honest merchandise.

These principles are as inviolable today as they were in 1884 and as we near the Anniversary date are not unmindful of our success and have planned the 43rd Anniversary Sale along the

An Appreciation of the Patronage and Confidence Shown by Our Many Friends and Patrons During These 43 Years

WE SPECIALIZE IN Women's and Misses' Wear Coats, Dresses, Hats, Corsets, Gloves, Hosiery Knit and Silk Underthings

The Sale opens on Saturday morning, offering tremendous assortments of seasonable and desirable apparel of highest standards—and to distribute the best values of the year.

Every department is radiantly ready with splendid items every piece of goods new, fresh, perfect, fashion-right. It is only fair to tell you that the Sale will last but one week and it is worthwhile to make up your shopping list and come early, as there is a

DISCOUNT of 20 per cent

on everything you buy. The Anniversary Sale is an established event—women wait and watch for it—refraining from buying their Spring and Summer needs until our doors open for them the opportunity for the substantial saving which this attractive

We invite you to share in this week of saving, and to remind you that an early visit to our store is by all means to you, an advantage. When the women of Hornell and the women from the surrounding towns are waiting for this Sale, it stands to reason that the wonderful values offered will appeal to them.

This is Our First Birthday and We Are Going to Celebrate it by Giving You Values Beyond Compare

One year ago this was organized—our policy of "Bigger Values for Less Money" met with the buying public's instant approval and our store was a success from the start. We are celebrating our first birthday by giving you more for your money than ever before. Besides our willingness to curtail profits for your benefit, friendly manufacturers have co-operated in giving us special values to make our first birthday sale a success.
