the Yankees shall pay a price."

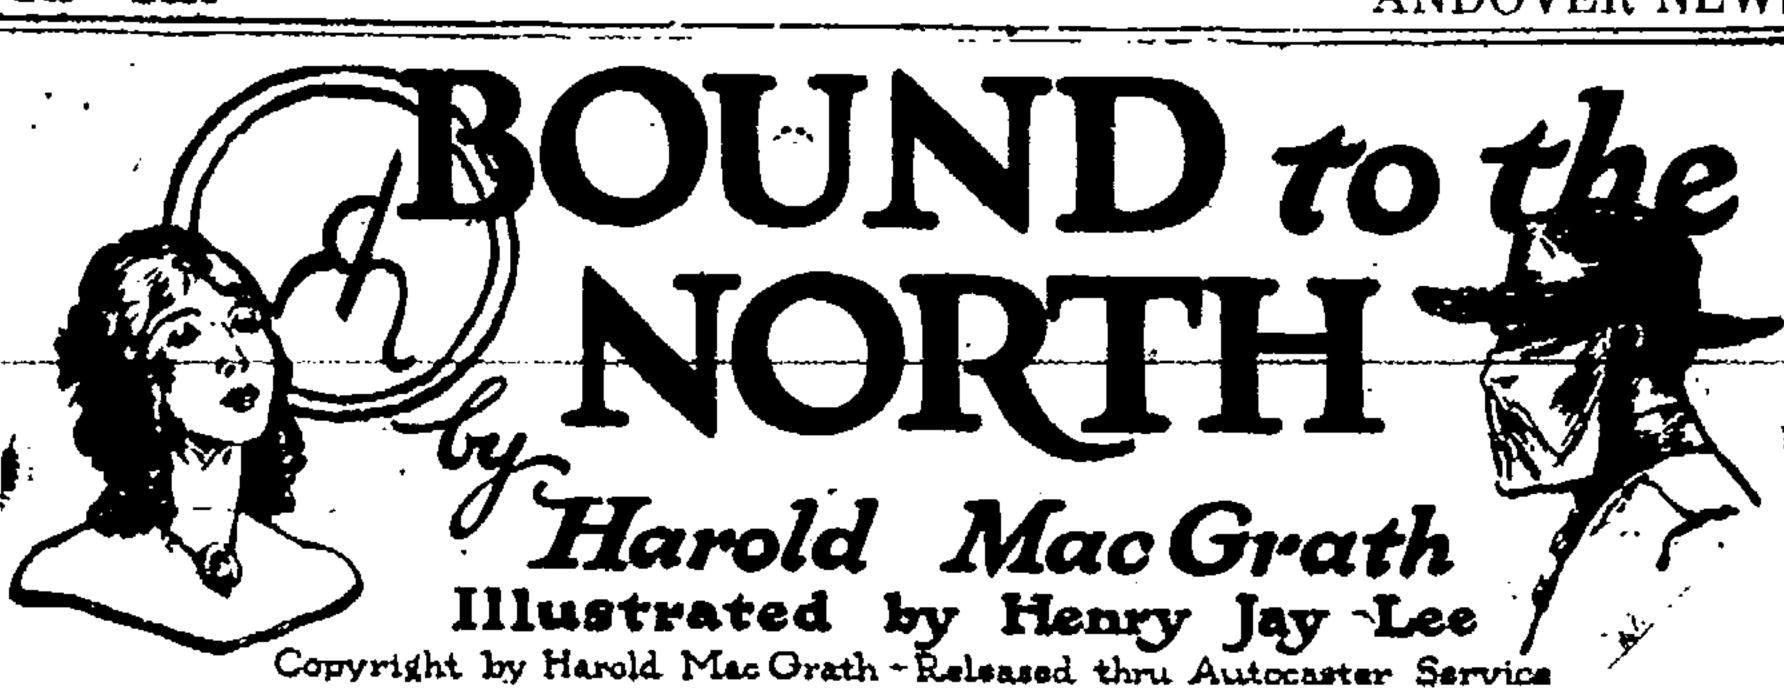

sonality of Jeanne Beaufort.

This time, however, she dabbled

Charles and Norman Tracy.

daughter, Mrs. Flay Pease.

in Andover, Saturday.

"Bound to the North" CHAPTER I.

It was one of those hot Southern midnights, when the stars them selves seem overtaken with drowsi ness and drop from the ranks as weary soldiers do. Street lamps threw a circle

Out of this a slender young man' suddenly emerged and leaned against the lamp post for a moment, breath ing sharp breaths. youth. He straightened, clicked

The dim yellow light held back in view for half a dozen steps. The youth did not reappear in the next circle of light. himself upon the bed, burying his; face deep into the pillows to stifle could no longer repress. Along the road to the north, be-1 yond the grim cordon of sentries, eleven men were racing their horses. They rode like furies. Death was ready, but the sleeping telegraph operator was not. By the time he awoke, sensed the 1 message hammering at his key and gave the alarm, the nightriders had er questioned her neice in regard to this happy little duchy fell the her mysterious absences. graphs. Each rested in a little under Pickett.

grimy hand obliterated the smile to tear this dressiful testimony into bed and studied, not the body of unless the enemy stands in between. Fory in the Andover News next the document, but the hieroglyphics And even then I'll come."

I which cascaded from there to bottom of the sheet. John Kennedy, D. D. M-BE-H names belonging to a free-lance or- maneuvered until at last she sto ganization known only to the War in the presence of the one man Office and the Secret Service in sought. She had heard of this little band, tested—"scarcely twenty." but never, until last night, had her! "I am very, very old," she path and theirs crossed. This or-blied, with a dry little smile. ganization was composed, with one I am all alone, besides." for- exception, of young men, educated, "There are terrible risks—death realized $6.50 to $7.25 per cloth year ago. Today choice sold at 13-

Only one face she had seen.

One by one would she track them mine."

but lay in ambush before them. dust, mocked her; so would she your revenge. Come: I will take Presently the girl on the

They divided at the first it trample upon their honor and mock you to the President himself. need women, need their arts and Not for nothing had she been guile. Tomorrow you shall given beauty and a facile tongue, for Washington. You shall become breakfast, smiling. She had the ways in Washington be known by And find a man by the name of Parison Kennedy. Bring him into your' Jeanne Beaufort was the daugh-[! for the figure was boyish; but in ter of Lawrence Beaufort, a weal- cause to a far greater extent than tours or the sating smoothness of his spinster sister, his two boys and structions, codes and so forth." An officer came into the room. The mother had been dead since He looked like a Creole, Spanish color and French in gracefulness.! and daring as any woman in the her mind, and the brothers saw to He paused, undecidedly, "Ah, Morgan," said the secretary, knew her neither by name nor by also. She sang and played delight- "this is Miss Beaufort. Just a mofeature; but it had often sensed the fully; her wit was nimble, in argu- ment, until I see if the President i

Henry Morgan fell in love with side, saw a handsome young officer in butternut. She forgot all about! nim the moment he was gone, Later she learned something defi-Inite regarding Henry Morgan. He gave to the world the impression! really was; but underneath this vanity was a matchless valor. This discovery rather interested her; for no woman is left untouched in the presence of a brave man. Soon she reconstructed her opinion of him as a whole. His grace counters in Richmond he fascinated' rently. He disappeared again, her duties compelled her to return!

HIGHLIGHTS ON

on Baldwin apples of ordinary quality and condition but held steady on I fancy, says the New York office of "God knows. But win or lose, ], the State Department of Agriculture and Markets. Western New York calves is dull. Prices remain at the offerings of grade A 2½ inch whole-same level as for the past several, Jeanne knew but little of Rich-Isaled at $2.75-3.50 per barrel on weeks, due to light receipts. Latest Potatoes Weaker The undertone of the potato marlket was weaker. Arrivals of new l crop were rather heavy while old demand and prices are well sustainshe were moderate. Most of the Maine ed and are also nearly one cent per Green Mountain potatoes in bulk pound higher than last year. Heavy) "But you are so young," he pro- peddled out around $6.50 per 180 fat sold at 7-7½c; medium at 6¼pounds. On the other hand Florida's 6% c. Cows are also slightly highre- best No. 1 Spaulding Rose sold at er, heavy state fat selling at 51/2-1 nd $7-7.50 per double headed barrel. 64c, reactor cows at 34-6c. Veal South Carolina's No. 1 Cobblers calves are slightly lower than one

"I am ready. I want revenge.", Butter prices in response to a and roughs at 9-9 1/2 c. "To play at love, to suffer the touch of men you despise, in order firmer tone and more active demand The quality of the street was in Richmond, stealing its heart's a pleasant task for a well-bred wo-cent, per pound on the New York No. 1 United States timothy is sellto gain their secrets-that is not on the market advanced one-half good. The flanking rows of white blood drop by drop! They had had man. War is not always won by market. Today's prices: Creamery ing at $27; No. 2 at $25-26; No. 3) marble steps presented a dignified the daring to permit her to carry bullets; duplicity plays its part." salted, higher score 441/2-45c, 92 at $23-24; Sample at $16-20. "You are trying to discourage score 44c; one year ago, higher score sold at 41½-42c; 92 score at > life both old and fresh makes. New York in a large kettle or pan, preferably flats, fresh, fancy are quoted up to enamel, that will not be injured by she answered 23c and some average run is selling washing soda. Boil for about hal The egg market has changed only pound washing soda to each gallon thers, whom I loved, have given very slightly since the first of March of water. Rinse and brush the their lives freely. I wish to add since which time receipts have been burners, wipe with cotton waste or abnormally large. Today's prices: paper, fit them into the stove and So young and so terribly serious! Nearby hennery whites, closely se- dry thoroly by lighting the gas.

nearby hennery

low. Today, fowls, leghorn sold a. 26-27c, colored at 25-26c. are also in heavy receipts and prices | Leghorns are selling at

Country Dressed Calves The market for country dressed common at 9-10c. Hogs are lower to 150 pounds selling at 11%-12%cl Hav Irregular

To clean clogged gas burners, take them out of their sockets, and brush

Are you working

at a tread-mil

tor 3 cents an hour?

COME women still ooze their lives

bing board, when electricity will do the work for 3 cents an hour.

to do manual labor.

lowest possible cost.

Use it freely.

NIAGAR

-Laway on the tread-mill of a scrub

For less than the cost of a package of chewing gum, electricity will dothe biggest family washing. Electric serv-

The inter-connected power plants of the Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern

Power Systemhelp to make it possible for electricity to come to you at the

And so, your electricity is cheap.

It is the biggest bargain you buy.

THE NIAGARA, LOCKPORT AND ONTARIO POWER

BUFFALO, NIAGARA & EASIERN SYSTEM

SERVICE

ice is so cheap, no woman can afford

Interested In This Most Extraordinary

Insurance

Absolutely sound auto-Insurance at a saving of 25 per cent. on Liability and 30 per — that's what we now have to " owners in this, part of New York State.

sound Insurance. Why not obtain your policies from these Mutual Organizations that are returning 25 per cent. to 30 per cent. of premiums to their automobile holders each

Two large Mutuals, one a Fire, the other a Casualty Company, are offering you sound Insurance at a lower net cost. A glance at the combined financial statement of these two Mutual Companies will convince you of their, combined strength.

> Combined Financial Statement of the two above mentioned Mutual companies as of December 31,

Premiums received 1926 - $7,701,661.42 Loses Paid - $3,514,947.34

Dividends Paid 1926 - $1,609,775.87

Admitted Assets $8,720,573.89 Liabilities and Reserves - $6,356,464.73 Total Net Surplus $2,364,109.1

Sadler Insurance

20 MADISON ST. WELLSVILLE, N. Y. Phone 449.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Caffery and and Mrs. Ordo Williamson were in Greenwood. in Hornell Friday. Clifford and Albert Caffery of Gordon were visitors at the home Canisteo called on their parents, Mr. of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace at aughter, Doris Eloise. Mrs. John Osmin, Sunday afternoon pendence.

Greenwood

with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Trowbridge, den.

helping Mrs. John Osmin care for he three small children with whoop Mike Hyland of Greenwood Hilli

Mrs. Clair Updyke remains about pital at Hornell. Hickory spent Friday with Mrs. Friday. Ordo Williamson. of Rough and Ready called on their rad

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Spencer and on business. daughters were in Hornell, Mrs. Wm. Pease was a Thursday Creek, was in this place, Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster and family, attended church and Sunday, William Whalen from near And-

Linoleum and Rugs

COMMENCING THURSDAY, MAY 19th

Gold Seal Congoleum 50c Sq. Yd.

Inlaid Linoleum handsome design $1.35 Sq. Yd.

Congoleum (9x12 - $8.95) Fine Printed Grass Rugs size 6 x 9

y afternoon.

noon of next week, May 26. Stephen Clarke drove to Ovid, Mrs. Rena Trowbridge and child-day in honor of his 80th birthday. Ily of Hornell is careing for her.

Shovel Hollow Fred Brown was dragging for James Mitchell was a caller in of Whitesville, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. daughter, Ruth, were callers at Mr. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Greene and Mrs. Francis Ray's, Tuesday. Bert Comfort was a caller

John Swarts of Greenwood

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Erskin, ers in the corn borer control area N. Y. no compulsory work will have to be 300 and farm tools. Harry Kemp son, it may be combined with apple done by state or federal authorities. Phone 19A, Andover, N. Y. 14tf. juice to make ielly.

carpet sweeper and cleaner cheap. Mr. and Mrs. A. Bliss spent the Inquire at News office.

week-end with Whitesville relatives. Mrs. Ida Simms is spending some Harry and Willie Pease of West corporation of Andover village. Five Greenwood spent Sunday with acres of land, house, barn and hentient at Bethesda hospital is improv-Baker, Andover, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace spent

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Updyke shop-Mrs. Fred Short and daughter of Greenwood, N. Y., 8812 acres, good we found. Wellsville is spending some time buildings, two gas wells, 80 acres

FOR RENI RENT-Six good living and a suit of furnished rooms also two garages. WANTED WANTED-Lady roomers or fur-

CONDITION OF THE house. Nice front. Spring water tion no one can tell anything about Mrs. Sherd Austin who is a pa-Gas. Price reasonable. Irene A the eyes merely by looking at them. ments that detect the slightest divia-FOR SALE or RENT--The late tion from normal. So there is very a couple of days last week with their Thomas Riley residence on North little use asking anyone if his eyes Main street, with half acre of land. are normal. He doesn't know. But FOR SALE-Cunningham farm, Then we could correct the defects

ARCHIE O. SMITH OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN ----value of buildings. Terms. --- Cal- 103 N. MAIN ST. WELLSVILLE The voluntary clean-up by farm- houn Real Estate Agency, Andover.

Dresses

EW. OIOI

Paris Inspired But American Made

$10.00

$15.95

$19.50

They've just arrived—and you'll adore them. So smart and yet so inexpensive that one can afford to buy two or three. Beautiful floral Silks of Georgette and Crepes, made up in smarter styles than dresses that cost $10 more last season. A wonderful range of Wash Silks in all the newest shades. The new Fleuray Wash Silks, flower embroidered is one of the outstanding values.

Another new dress is the Scarf Dress-splendidly tailored of heavy crepes with hand painted scarfs. We would like to show you these new dresses at $10.00, $15.95 and $19.50.

$1.00 Saturday

One lot Silk Dresses which had been reduced to $5.00 from much higher prices-only about twen ty left-will go very quickly Saturday for $1.00 each. One

$5.00 Beginning Saturday

Constantly making way for new Dresses forces any slow moving numbers to receive quick marching orders out of this store. In this lot are Dresses formerly several times this price. quick disposal—$5.00.

$10.00 Beginning Saturday

Dresses in this lot, some of which were formerly up to $39.50 -the quantity is limited, so advise coming early. If your size is here, you can make a wonderfully profitable purchase. Reduced to $10.00.

Two Splendid Wool Specials

WOOL TWO-TONE, a sprightly light weight wool fabric for general wear; very durable and dainty at the same time. Pastel colors. Reg. $1.18.

WOOL JERSEY, one of the finest grades made;

Two Linen Specials A thousand yards of Stevens' All-Linen BLEACH-ED CRASH; short lengths of one to four yards.

good weight, 60-in. width; regularly $1.37, o @ 7

and her two brothers.

and smiled. But the sight of that two brothers at Cemetery Hill left She jumped up and stood in the ster-aunt mildly remonstrated with he never did; and yet for weeks he middle of the room, palsied with this conduct, which she said was would disappear completely. When felt into the inner pocket of the girl whirled upon her: "I'm a wocoat she wore, and drew out a man. I can't shoulder a musket; I effervescent. crumpled sheet of paper. It was can't go forth and demand of the When he began to make love to true then! This thing, this abom- North an eye for an eye, a tooth for when she realized that he was is

She made a wild gesture as paper on the dresser, discarded her well-born, daring and reckless be- always to face, and perhaps dishon- top slat barrel. yond belief-in other words, spies orable death." who individually performed as many wonders for their cause as she performed for hers.

And for weeks they had been here front in the daytime. Into one of away these code names! Was it bethese houses the young man had cause their work here was really me. You are wasting time." gone. Silently, he mounted the done and that they would now scat---stairs to his room, entered and flung ter and keep scattered until the He eyed her exquisite bear war was at an end? the wild and passionate sobs he she would remember that—ah, she I would remember that until she died. Eleven men against one woman-

o be it! She took up the gauntlet;! and woe to them! Death was not only behind them They had trampled her pride

As dawn kindled the tree-top they drew down to a walk. There' was no chatter, no jesting, no expression of thankfulness over their was a matter of directions, for now each man had to go his own way, as fork in the good, divided at t next, and so on until each man rode; I positive that his comrades were well on their way, wheeled about h horse and in leisurely stages wended his way back to Richmond, thru blue lines and butternut, magically When the brilliant morning sungilded a grimy, tear-stained face, small, grimy hands flung out upon The tenant of this room might crealy have passed as a boy at night, the daylight the male attire could thy Virginia tobacco planter. There your father or brothers. not wholly disguise the delicate con- were five in the family: Beautort, row I shall give you all your the skin. The tear-stained face did not speak of a higher order of courage; Jeanne's youth. yet Jeanne Beaufort was as brave. Father and sister took care South. At that time the North it that she should be sane in body! do ger of her; it had often, thru her ment she was wise; and her brothers wit and resource, seen a carefully mught her how to walk thru a forbuilt campaign tumble like a house est without crackling a twig, to Jeanne on the spot. Jeanne, on her of cards in the wind. break and tame fiery thorobreds, to So it began to grope for her as shoot, swim, run. the dark. So the tears had no bear- of its kind; enormous veranda pillars The room she occupied was in was a clean little gathering of ca- that he was a rattlepate; vain the house of her aunt, her mother's bins for the plantation slaves. sister, a widow. Mrs. Wetmore nev-

I thunderbolt of war. Beaufort ac-Upon a lowboy, which served as cepted a colonelcy in a local regia ressing-table, stood three photo- ment, and the boys sought glory frame of mourning: Jeanne's father When the news came to Jeanne was due to muscles as strong and that her father had fallen at Man- highly tempered as watch-springs; assas and that his beloved body had and his rattle-patedness cloaked been buried there, her grief had mind as sinister and flexible been terrible. The death of her Machiavelli's. In their frequent enher outwardly unmoved. She did and repelled her at the same time. not close the piano; she did not He was always about to join hi

Upon the peace and plenty of'

wear mourning; and when the spin- regiment at the front, but somehow have that eye, I'll have that tooth!" . co Washington. "I'll be home from time to time,

Agriculture and Markets

inferior and $4-4.25 on the very prices: Choice 17-18c; fair to good test. foe knew anything about the per- hest.

Butter and Cheese Firmer, Eggs than last year. Todays prices: 100'

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Burdick Saturday with a party from Alfred. ren of the Vandermark, spent Sat-C. S. Rennells and family of And-Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crandall en- urday with her daughter, Mrs. Gretover spent Sunday afternoon and tertained company Sunday, in hon- ta Page.

evening at W. E. Baker's. or of their son, Edward's, birthday. Mrs. Eugene Hand returned from Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lanphear About 30 relatives of H. M. the St. James Mercy hospital in time at the home of her sister, Mrs. yearling bull. Lynch Bros. spent Tuesday afternoon at W. E. Clarke gathered at his home, Sun-Hornell, Saturday. Miss Anna Kel-Sherd Austin. Gerald Green and family were Those present from out of town week-end guests of his parents, Mr. were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clarke and Mrs. M. H. Green. and Hazel of Little Genesee; Mrs. Miss Ruth Baker of Hornell spent Ola Clarke and Jessie of Friendship; Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Howard Clarke of Rochester; Mr. John Mitchell with his tractor, one ing very slowly. and Mrs. P. H. Butler and Elva Crit- day this week. and Mrs. E. V. Green and tenden of Hornell, Mrs. A. G. Crit-Miss Lucile Ells spent Monday even- tenden and Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. town, Tuesday. Merl Matteson and two daughters and daughter of Andover. babe spent Sunday afternoon with Lane School District Fred Brewster was a Wednesday Creek. Lane School District caller in town. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. John Will and famand two daughters called on Mrs. daughter, Louise, were Sunday ily were shopping in town, Wed-Betsy Dennison in Rexville, Sunday guests at the home of Mate Rogers. nesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wittie and William Whalen was a caller at Bell Bennett of Young Hickory son, Richard were Sunday visitors James Mitchell's, Wednesday even-Mr. and Mrs. Flay Pease and son, and Mrs. George Caffery, Saturday Greenwood, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jackson to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford West Union were callers at the Caffery of Canisteo, May 7th, a home of Mr. and Mrs. John Briggs Saturday afternoon. . A. L. Trowbridge Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pease and and two grand children, Agnes and son, Cleon, were Sunday guests of Thomas Caffery called on Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Potter at Inde-Mrs. Alex Kelly and daughter. and Mrs. Andrew McFarlan Verl, were Sunday callers at the Canistee spent Thursday evening home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Wal-

Perfect spellers for last week: Shinglehouse, Pa., called on their Jessamine Briggs, Raymond Briggs parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Caf-land Louise Rogers. West Greenwood Irs. Edith Milligan of Andover Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and Mildred Dennison and babe day guests of her parents. Mr. and last week with Mrs. John Mrs. Frank Lewis at Young Hickory. two children of Canisteo called on nell, was thru this place. Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Jr., Mike Hyland and son, Lawrence, were Thursday callers in Andover.

and Mrs. A. L. Trowbridge | Several of the young people from were in Canisteo, Tuesday after this place attended the dance Wilyville Grange Hall, Friday night. Wednesday, from the Bethesda hos-Mr. and Mrs. Herman Woodworth

Mrs. Martha Bennett of Young of Almond, was thru this place or Kenneth Brown of Buffalo spent visitor in Andover. the week-end with relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mullen Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jeffers of daughter, Margaret, spent Thursday anisted and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Blair evening at the home of Fred Conparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rollins, Howard Briggs from near Purdy

Born, Saturday, May 14th, to Mr. school at the Grange Hall, Sunday. Main street, a daughter, born at the over, was a caller at James Mit-Bethtesda hospital in Hornell. chell's. Friday evening. Tom Birmingham of Jasper was W. J. Redmond called on Fred business caller in town, Monday. Conrad, Sunday.

Sale Of

VELVET or AXMINSTER RUGS, 9 x 12 Finest Velvet Rugs, reg. to $69 ..... Velvets and Axminsters, reg to $50. Seamless Axminsters, reg. $37.50 .....

Linoleum reg. $1.00

HIGGINS BROS. Welsville, N. Y.