MY IDEA OF AN IDEAL GIRL

If you can dress to make yourself attractive, yet not make puffs and curls your chief delight. If you can swim and row, be strong and active, yet of the gentle graces, lose not sight. If you can dance without a craze for dancing, play without giving play too strong a hold, enjoy the love of friends without romancing, care for the weak, the friendless and the old. If you can master French. Greek and Latin, and not acquire as well a prigish mean. If you can feel the touch of silk and satin without despising colors and If you can play a saw and use - a hammer, can do a man's work

Items From English III. Class Talking about politeness, Margaret Folsing (a Junior) bumped into a pole while walking thru the corridor and, turning around, said with an humble expression: "Of I'm SO sorry." We wonder why Guy Nye has been spending so much of his time in Hornell lately?

Virgil E. Slaght, English II.

Some people wonder how those who live out-of-town know so much about the affairs of the young people in town. For the last few days a certain person has greeted Missi Holmes with the remark: "What did I hear about you last night," "Who did I hear you talking to last night?" We wonder if Miss Rose!
