WHAT HAS BEEN DONE WITH MONEY

Report Shows How the Recent Bond Issues of State is Being Expended for Public Benefit.

Albany, Oct. 19.—A report of interest to all residents of New York State, regardless of political affiliations, and outlining the work that is being done these days in the expenditure of the bond issue moneys authorized by the people in 1923 and 1925, has just been issued by Governor Alfred E. Smith. The report was compiled by the committee on nor's cabinet. It is a book of about 140 pages, profusely illustrated and I telling the story of the work being Mrs. Edward Stark of Camden J., elected National President
