dicated by the enactment of a town ordinance which went into effect a few days ago, making it unlawful to operate any electrical device that interferes with radireception between noon and midnight. The ordinance fixes a maximum sentence of days in jail for a violation of the new law. Several other places in the United States have under consideration similar plans, in order to accomplish the same purpose. Those who knowingly disrupt the ether waves in arises, can such things be regulated by an ordinance? Many necessary appliances such as heating pads, massage machines, hair clippers, vacuum cleaners and numerous other articles have a tendency to disrupt the | air and cause static in radio se's. Whether an ordinance could be drafted that would regulate the air and use of electric appliances within certain hours, might Le too discriminatory, and not stand the test of the higher courts.

League Celebrates Birthday

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, very much like a grow-I ing boy, is nearing the stage of discarding the short trousers for a pair of long ones.

The League celebrated its eighth birthday anni versary this month, and as a sort of birthday present for itself and in recognition of achievements, League has decided to present itself with a new $4,- | vice. 000,000 assembly hall.

In the past year the League witnessed three of the most important developments and achievements in its history. All of these are expected to have a most marked effect on the future growth and importance! of the League.

Briefly, the three outstanding League events of the past year were its International Economic Conference of last May, the virtual attainment of its ideal! kept in contract hospitals. of universality by drawing within its orbit of co-operation nearly all of the principal non-leaguers, and finally the definite preparation of a disarmament program! that is expected to permit of the convocation of a first! general world-wide disarmament conference before the close of the present year.

Of these three events, Leaguers declare that it by no means certain but what the first, despite its lack of spectacular details, is by far the most important of the three, at least as far as the future growth and development of the League is concerned.
