Anthony Rousch Mills is dead, age ESERVICE PLUS— , at Sundance, Wyoming, and is probably in heaven now, talking with Lahire, that famous French bear fighter of centuries ago. Thirty-eight years ago Mills, turning a sharp corner in the Black Hills, came face to face with a silver tipped grizzly that knocked his gun out of his hand, bit off his nose, seized him by the calf of the leg and dragged him along the trail. Rousch pulled his knife, stopped the bear's flight by holding on to tree, and cutting its jugular veir killed the bear.

It was a good bear fight. Old Lehire's fight is made memorable by this first prayer that Lahire had ever uttered: "Lord r not ask you to help Lahire, I only ask you not to help this bear." The prayer was answered and Lahire
