

ander Pierce, a detective, tells of blood wasn't in his hands, as it table. his projected trip to Southley Downs. should have been. Evidently it had the silken bag on the table. Pierce advises him to keep his eyes all gone up to his brain, playing wide open while there. On the way strange tricks with it. in a train Dr. Long is attracted by 3" a girl, who later faints. Dr. Long treats her, and looking into her bag "I wasn't looking for that wretch." I could reach him. He tore the pis-

CHAPTER III. were away at school-but my father " says that beyond all chance of doubt "What way?" some living creature bounded thru gan to vary. It was after my father's old friend, Mr. Hayward, and his son came to visit us. But tell me this, too, Long—and tell me this, first. Would von say the changed—dropped tone by tone un- it don't know how long it had continued when Hayward and Southrain is done. I won't send out my tell me this, too, Long—and tell me ley came. Their forms suddenly cars on a night like this."

The girl whirled to me. Appeal lightly, but I'm feeling rather ser- the middle of the storm. They say on such nights as the storm.

They say on such nights as the storm. troubled with faulty nerves?" "I saw him jump tonight when the ◆wl hooted." "Remember, he has spent nearly!" month in this house. After a about it." month in it, you'll jump, too. way from this atmosphere.' I would certainly say that Vilas :. Hayward had no nerves to trouble

"Just a few nights after his ar-! rival, Vilas Hayward came in to din- for a last look over the marsh. der-madness was on him yet. mer with a curious look of question There was a ring around the moon "He struck me," he cried. something." intent upon mine, and the sentence banjo infinitely remote, above the dog." died away. The silence of the vast drear, gray wastes. Then Hayward

m remote deserts, or in the moun-j tain aights. "Yes?" I urged her. "It isn't very pleasant," she warn-' "A doctor has a right to know all i the symptoms." long hall that leads from the draw-|" could not see it plain. He saked us!

membering with what astounding question. that direction. Yet seemingly pow- storms.

seemed dark and not very tall. We smouldering. The little silken week-end bag I had seen on the nothing else to do.

Then all at once the creature's form seemed to change. I can't describe it except to say that upon one instant it appealed to me as being low and rather long, and on the next at land narrow. The change was abrupt that the creature seemed fairly to leap. Yet it easily could have been the seemed and been the seemed to the county of a leap. Yet it easily could have been the seemed to change was fairly to leap. Yet it easily could have been the seemed and before me.

The little silken of the large was smouldering. The little silken to applosize. The other is to applosize the passed by both branches of the legislation. After any such bill, has been the seed by both branches of the legislation and the creature is on the clerk of the clerk o thad been fancy and wrong perspec- and I met him with a blow. Ahmad bowed to us as he passed. of the storm. I leaped for him, but And if you will have my bag brought while ago. He's quite an old beast, plainly. And he saw—just what i "Good Lord!" Hayward breathed. he whirled about the table before to me, I will go at once."

creeping up on us this way!" "Creeping up on us?" I echoed candle.

"That isn't it. That isn't quite lable of laughter, ironical. .c, Long. Oh, the devil. It's non-We walked up to the veranda and eggs. He won't kill me." halted for an instant on the steps insect world, like the strum of a and he struck me as if "Why, Mr. Hayward?" "Because he was crawling up that back. hill-on hands and feet!" Then his face grew into a scowl, and again. "What are you going to land he entered the house.

if we kept a great yellow and black make particularly good sense. It answered with utter weariness. on some errand. Josephine was with ed it too many times to be mistaken. it's done over there. Vilas of the veranda, and his chair Orders he gave were always in the struck the other pays." was drawn close to hers. At first most insulting tone. It seemed to "Your son is sufficiently able to wasn't thinking about Hay- me just an unjustified aversion, and take care of himself, I hope," I sugward or Ahmad either. I was re- the taste of the thing was open to gested.

ness, in the air. It was obviously -with your blood spoiling a good It was a baffling thing. I couldn't the calm before one of those blind- Oriental rug," the older Hayward think of any conscious effort in ing, crashing Floridian thunder- answered with startling malice. "I'm ers in the sky were always throwing I thought I had better warn the done it. I believe it's up to you, ty-six of article three of the constitution them together. In one instant, all occupants of the house. There Long, to give a satisfactory explanation be amended to das follows: the occupants of Southley Downs might be windows to close, or other tion." would be on the veranda together; preparations. The library was emp- "I have nothing to explain." Then city, a board of supervisors, to be comin the next a group of us would ty; but I heard voices in the den I turned my back upon him, and such manner have wandered off, and Vilas and that opened from it. And maybe it faced the broken old figure that was may be provided by law. The legislature was a sign that already the atmos- my host. "Sir, if there is any ex- may provide I wondered how much of this cur- phere of Southley Downs has in- planation to be made it will have to and Nassau, or either, subject to adopious development was engineered by stilled its poison into my nerves that come from your daughter."

The scene in the candle-light was so government the same time at the same time at the same time at the same time at the same time and time and the same time and the same time and time so abrupt that the creature seemed fairly to leap. Yet it easily could have been the effect of the moon-light or the shadows. It might have been simply a matter of perspective. At once we saw the advancing form that before had seemingly had the dimensions of a huge dog was just the form of a man. But I had been enough in the mountains to know that the moon and the darkness and the jungles play strange tricks of fancy and vision.

I looked at the girl, and no man so the foor of the public notice and opportunity for a public outcaring any such bill before that was in her eyes. But she didn't can measure or describe the anguish that was in her eyes. But she didn't look straight at me. First she glanctone that was in her eyes. But she didn't look straight at me. First she glanctone the side of the room where the two death of the elective body shall can measure or describe the anguish that was in her eyes. But she didn't look straight at me. First she glanctone of the side of the room where the two deaths at the strong, bull-dog figure of the elective body shall can measure or describe the anguish that was in her eyes. But she didn't look straight at me. First she glanctone of the sounty she of such bill, provided that was in her eyes. But she didn't look straight at me. First she glanctone of such bill, provided the strong bull-dog figure of the elective body shall can measure or describe the anguish that was in her eyes. But she didn't look straight at me. First she glanctone of such bill strong of the county she were and lifted the girl into my arms, I the side of the room where the two dimensions of a huge dog was just the form of a man. But I had been devidently been sitting; then the side of the room where the two deaths at the strong, bull-dog figure of the elective body shall can measure or describe the anguish that was in her eyes. But she didn't under such form of s that the moon and the darkness and not six feet was between us.

"I think, Dr. Long," V: It was Ahmad Das. He was com- You'd better keep out of this."

"He was just coming in from one tol from the bag. It glittered in A world of appeal was in her dark "Those walks of his! Why don't I had no delusions about what he "He can't go, in this storm," she "Isn't it? We have an old gar- clear across the road. He wanted vants went out—both Ernest and I him walking thru those jungles and plainly. He was too far for me to till the storm is over."

The dark fell over us. The sound changed—dropped tone by tone un-! I don't know how long it had

"Did-did you see anything curi- Vilas still held the pistol; and it ous about-about Ahmad's posture gleamed in the candlelight. as he came up the hill? Of course, "Vilas!" his father called. "Put it was probably just the moonlight down that thing." -yet there was something puzzling He hastened about the table, and

"I'll confess, I didn't recognize I tried to push him away; and his omitted answer was a laugh—one grim syl-! "He won't kill me," he said. "Im the goose—that lays the golden! Vilas screamed at us. The murthat promised rain. We listened to devil struck me. He's got to apole the night birds and the noise of the gize. He found me with Josephine,

His father took the pistol from [his hands, and put it in his pocket.] "If you'd go in, Long, and look Southley sighed a little, and placed At Ahmad's hands," he told me, his candle on the table. The girl , "you'd find 'em with mud on 'em." rose up behind us, and I was amazed at her self-control. It had all come "He struck me," Vilas said again do about it, Southley? You've got ing-room something walked before had gone. At first I thought about this house—or else I'll go instead." "Let's forget it-" the old man was true that Hayward didn't like "Forget nothing, Southley!" dog, a hound as large, or larger, the Indian, yet this would have exclaimed. "We've got to get to the eral election," scarcely led to an accusation so bottom of this. If my son The elder Hayward and I were bizarre. The glare with which Hay-struck, he's got to have satisfaction.

atrolling on the course, and a few ward's eyes followed him when the I lived long enough on the continuities, occupation or business require which, so far as practicable, by examinations of said District at its last regular than the lived long enough on the continuities, occupation or business require which, so far as practicable, shall be with us. He had gone into the house little short of deadly—I had observ- And so have you. It isn't the way canvass of their votes in the election dis-

"If he'd taken care of himself. fortune Josephine and Vilas always There was a tenseness, a heavi- you'd be laying under this table now Proposing AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION not sure but that he'd ought to have Josephine herself. It wasn't a par- I did not remember to stop and It was a curious expression that odd-numbered year. Any such form of ticularly pleasant thing to think knock. With the memory of that came to the old man's face. Its about. Of course, girls in this age mysterious calm behind me, I hur- lines seemed to grow slack. There functions now exercised by towns or town have a right to play all their cards ried across the soft rug. The door was hopelessness in it, and the weakto win the love of a desirable man. opened softly beneath my hand. ness of long years, and above all the manner in which the county affected It was all legitimate—all fair. But The scene in the candle-light was things else, hopeless, utter impoten- may subsequently abandon it. and revert to its former form of government. The scene is the candle-light was the aged father, the elder Hayd, or both.

Hayward and I were having a good night cigar together. My with the table between them, watch indicated a few minutes after as if for a shield, Josephine faced him.

With the table between them, and my son?" he asked, querulousduring his term of office, abolishes, transduring his term of off ten. And then Hayward saw a shadow waver in the moonlight of the golf green.

"Don't come a step nearer," she remains. They can't go on living here, guests in the same house with this between them Tall him South be passed by the leaislature except in the leaislature except in the same at the rate to be determined by the said P

I looked at the girl, and no man ing elective body of the county before ac-

At was Ahmad Das. He was comag in from one of his long walks.
Hayward gasped behind me, and as I am not just sure what I answer touched.

"It seems the odds are against county if within said sixty days there and with the county clerk of the county of t "that you're altogether too officious. me," I told them simply.

"Hasn't old Hayward told you? trolled his horse; then looked down I knew that the girl was scream- hold what these other men say—and He and my father have been out at the moonlit road. It was covered ing. The sound rose above the noise your daughter upholds them, too. talking to the servants, just a little with dust, and he could see yer you know. Well, the colored people told you." The girl clasped her father's hand. say he is walking again tonight." "Nice little thing to think about Southley forbid 'em? I will if he would do with it. The drawn face, told him. "The road along the le-dener that we call Mose. Mose was to take father and the Haywards." don't. I'll be damned if I'll have the smouldering eyes, told all too vee isn't safe. Tell him he can't go in town today, and he came back and I down to see them. I riding a horse about eleven o'clock. all of us except father, who is rath. leap at him. So I struck out the The elder Hayward chortled from Rather it was somewhat before ele- er old for such excursions, were go ven, because you and the older Hay- ing-but something has evidently "A good wetting might teach him ward were out on the golf green for diverted them. They were to meet "Besides, what would a man want of the storm obliterated his breathmanners, me suggested.

The toward of them. It was the truce of darkness—about it, Southley?"

The tone was insistent, and perhans it had a scornful quality, too.

The tone was insistent, and perhans it had a scornful quality, too.

The tone was insistent, and perhans it had a scornful quality, too.

"I suppose the rain has spoiled them now."

"Weakened them, anyway. Of haps it had a scornful quality, too. ghost-tiger floating thru the air, or beyond the table.

STATE OF NEW YORK DEPARTMENT OF STATE

1 CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY ONE-A OF ARTICLE TWO OF THE CON-STITUTION, IN RELATION TO ABSENT

Section 1. Resolved, That section one-a If a man's trict in which they respectively reside.

> AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE

It was hard to see at first. Some living creature was advancing along the slope toward us—something that the slope toward us—something the slope toward us—slope toward torial election. Whenever during the sesand it shall then be subject as are other out where the rain beat upon us my aged host leaped in front of me. | matter in brackets [] is old law to be adopted and approved by the electors of the county. In every such law which has been accepted by the county to which it Notice of School relates, the title shall be followed by the words "accepted by the county." In every such law which is passed without such duties of the board of supervisors, as town of Andover, New York, qualiute if not provided for by such form of fied to vote at school meetings

> sembly, common council, board of alder-AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

> > APPOINTMENTS AND PROMOTIONS ably discharged soldiers, sailors, marines corps of the United States disabled in the ment or promotion may be made. Laws of Education of said District on i'

AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR CRRENT RESOLUTION OF THE AN AMENDMENT TO *SECTION

ONE-A OF ARTICLE TWO OF THE CON-POWERS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE IN CRIMINAL MATTERS

AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE said bonds so to be issued in pur-CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE Suance of this authority as such in PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION due and payable. And the transaction of such other business as may power to Control to THE negating. The vote will be taken by ballot and the polls will remain 7:80 e'clock POWER TO CONTRACT DEBTS FOR THE Properly come before the meeting.

The vote will be taken by bellet and Section 1. Resolved.
of article seven of the ourselves many times. So he con

I spoke very quietly. "Yes-as big as his two hands ious, Long. If our tiger had done They say on such nights as thesehe likes to come back into the warm, - dry house, and play in the curtains" In a few minutes more we were (Continued on Page 7.)

or two or more entire counties, the pow- is authorized by the Education ers and duties of a board of supervisors | Law of 1910 and the acts amendatory thereof, and for the purpose and desirabilities of purchasing new equipment for the new school build ing now being erected on the school CURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE house site and the alterations ar Proposing an Amendment to Section now existing on said site in order SIX OF ARTICLE FIVE OF THE CONSTI-TUTION, IN RELATION TO CIVIL SERVICE | Conform to the requirements and vested in them by voters of said

District and make such alterations ing now standing on said site as will conform to the ordinary needs and and make such alterations and reof said District sufficient moneys to pay the interest and principle on terest and principle shall become trict No. 1,

Board of Education of

Union Free School Dis-

FLOYE LEVER,

Andover, New York.

Town

and repairs on the old school build-

. Hardenburg of Greenwood Mary Laverty and Jerry Donelson were Sunday visitors at Shall the Board of Education home of Dan Mullen. Mrs. Youngs of Greenwood visiting John Swarts and family for a few days. Gladys, Ella and Bernice Conrad and Mrs. Clarence Brutsman

Clärence Brutsman has purchased

Wilmer Cronk was a Thursday.

Wars, John Wallace and family.

Veta and Leah Coombs are visitor in Wellsville.

Saturday, selling meat.

place, Friday evening.

Fern, Ruby and Reva Swarts.

Conley with his haying.

with relatives at Young Hickory.

Fred Howard is assisting George []

Monday visitors in Hornell.

Prescription He Wrote in 1892 is the World's Most Popular Laxative great as they are today. that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of co stipation which Dr. Caldwell (not believe were good for human beings to put into their system. 1 29 B. Caldwill mi

" you will also always have a bottle !

handy for emergencies.

We would be gied to have you

"Better Cleaners and Launderers" Wellsville, N. Y.

22-24-26 W. Fassett St.

Albert Caffery is very ill at his from an attack of measles. Mrs.

Mrs. Howard Scribner and two sons of Doris Burdick is at home, after work."

ightened and ran away,

Mrs. Nellie Mead is recovering

Incadea, spent Sunday at Charley

Mrs. Northrup of Corning

.W. O. Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. R. virited relatives in Kane, Pa., re- days or two weeks."

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Caffery and

Stephens and Miss Sabria Stephens | cently

Mrs. Martha Bennett of Young ole's.

is Hickory was buried. Sunday.

visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Cran- Hill were callers in town, Tuesday.

A. L. Trowbridge, Tuesday.

George Caffery and son of West i

Barney Mills

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevenson of John Swarts and daughters were Patrick Dixon were in Campbell, spending a week with Agnes Caf- Charley Cole's Sunday afternoon.

Veta and Leah Coombs spent Ed. Plaisted of Greenwood, was ferv. Tuesday at the home of Mr. and in this place, Tuesday, on business. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brutsman home, 'Dr. Hardenburg is attending Leona Davis of Andover is caring The Evening Tribune-Times truck and family were callers at Fred him. Hornell was thru this place, Brewster's, Tuesday evening. Virl Kelly has been engaged to daughter of Canisteo; Mr. and Mrs. spending some time at the home Fred Conrad made a business trip teach the Mead District No. 7, the Grant Fuller of Andover; Mr. and her daughter, Mrs. Esther Mead. John Swarts and daughter were of Wellsville called on their parents, spending several weeks with rela-children spent the day last Sunday callers at George Caffery's, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Caffery, Sun- ives in Hilton. Independence ' Mr. and Mrs. George Shaddock are visiting relatives at Cherry!

and three children of South Caro- Creek and Erie, Pa., and Buffalo, Kenneth Waters from the And-lina were guests of W. E. Densmore Y., for a few days. over road spent last Saturday night the past week: Mr. Pliske of Orchard Park and Sunday with his sister, Mr. and spending a few days with Miss Fran- Mrs. A. L. Lewis called on Mrs. Miss Rose Green of Tip Top

Kenneth Loomis of Hornell call- dall. d on his father, Bert Loomis, A Mrs. Charles Dreher and daughters. Helen and Marianne of Grants Thomas Coleman, Sr., of Mt. town, W. Va., are guests of her Pleasant, was in this place, Satur- sister, Mrs. John Illig. Miss Marion Chaiffee returned to Mrs. Alvin Edwards one day last Mr. and Mrs. Herman Woodworth her home at Greenwood, Saturday. week. Andover are staying on the hill for tor made a business trip to Wayne, last! for the week. Carrie Rogers and Kenneth Watfew weeks to help in haying. of the Andover road were thru The Home Bureau held a business meeting with Mrs. Tassel, Tues- tained relatives from Newark,

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and day evening. Mrs. Maude Clarke has been Crandall, Mrs. Carrie Slade, Mrs. League at Alfred, Wednesday. Eugene Crandall was in Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turck

f Miss Anna Laura and Samuel [Fern, and Mrs. Gertrude Burgess] family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gay-lat W. E. Green's. Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Clarke were Letchworth Park, Saturday.

🕝 🌈 from Kidney and Bladder Trouble. Don't let these organs
make a martyr and take Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles COLDMEDA HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES At all druggists. In three sizes. Look for the name on the blue and gold box.

Groups of Dresses at est point in our history.

fore offered.

Now Reduced to great house was dark behind us.

'good farm near town of 190 acres. ling to divert his mind, as well as FOR SALE-Organ in first class condition. Mrs. Wallace Boyd. Dorothy Ludwig of Buffalo is daughters of Hornell were callers at "I'm sorry, Ernest," I told him. FOR SALE-House and lot on Barney street, large lot, nine room He stopped in his tracks, and I thouse with electricity, barn, poultry houses, three acres of land adjoin-'I thought you'd stay to see us thru. ing containing pasture with a spring of water. Phone 341. Mrs. R. How-Of course, I can't blame you-"

"I'm going home tomorrow."

"Did she tell you that?"

1-ughter, Dorothy and son Oren, of Sha danced a highland fling."

"I've got to make a living,' I told, him lightly. "It's time I went FOR SALE-A nine room house and sleeping porch. All modern im-"But you were going to stay a provements. On Dyke street. In-Mr. and Mrs. C. Lee Richardson night that you would make it ten FOR SALE-Mowing machine.

hay rake, hay rack. All in good "Tell me. I should say she did. condition. Harry Kemp. MORELLO CHERRIES-we wih It didn't make the scene of the letart picking August 4th, and they hour before any more pleasant to A farewell party was held at the remember. She had seemed glad will last about three weeks. You one of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hop-when I had told her that I had nost bound or buy them for 16 cents per ira, Friday evening. Mr. Hopkins poned my departure. And even now been transferred to the Borden Ernest's words filled me with a quart. Wettlin Floral Gardens, Can-vening for his new duties. Mrs. to fight off. She had proved the FOR SALE—Twenty-five acres of Tookins and son will move there hour before how much she really productive farm land, one mile from cared. She belonged to Vilas, not corporation line. All tillable. Very Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Fair- me, in spite of the fact that she had desirable. Fine location. Whitesville, were guests of Mr. and banks and children and Mr. and been ready to kill him when I open Mira Diffin's office. Wes Reed Cooper spent Sunday with led the door of the den. I rememintends on Bennett's Creek. Virgin-bered every smile-each had been Carl Tracy and John Edwards in and Edna Fairbanks remained an epoch—every softness in her dark

Elm street. Inquire of Mrs. Ellen Miss Kathryn Guinn is home again | We tramped thru the downpour. 'nd rapidly recovering from her re- and soon we came to the point that Walsh.

the negro had described. Then we little som of Wellsville are spending terns. It must have made a strange the general house work.—Mrs. Charles

Four Great Final Clearance Prices In preparation for the Fall Season, we are reducing our Summer stock of Dresses to the low-

These final prices represent values never be-