But to be hard at work when you are old, and EFFICIENTLY at / work, is something. Young ladies that "don't seem to get any proposals" will marvel on hearing that our Peggy Joyce is about to be married again.

Brown, is now divorcing him. "How does she do it?" young ladies ask. How did Helen of Troy do it, or Cleopatra? Miss Joyce, it is said, has a certain dash and swing in a night club 7 that electrify the atmosphere. There are many "live ones" in night clubs. Day and Night

Within one self two lives I keep, I' the waking life, the life of sleep. When I am up and fully dressed I like my waking life the best, and when night comes I hate to go toddling off to bed you know. To rise and work I do not choose; I'm going to !" take another snooze. Thus for my n two homes are given, the one on earth, the one in heaven. The life on earth still seems the best, alike for labor, and for rest. I fear I'll wish to loiter some when kindly Death shall bid me come, as children calls at close of day. Yet-I am sure ment that you receive here and our prompt delivery calls at close of day. Yet-I am sure the other land for love and joy is service. You don't have to shop in person, just use better planned. No other place will seem more fair whan I am once established there. The land of work, the land of rest in its own time is the best.
