THE HI HERALD (Continued from Page 2.) HORNELL TAKES VICTORY FROM ANDOVER TEAM

Turning Back the Pages Of Andover History TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE ANDOVER NEWS

Bath Seeking Homes Is Now Overflowing

South Hill

(Mrs. Margaret Deas, Reporter)

Feb. 1.—January surely gave us some beautiful weather in departing. Tomorrow the proverbial ground-hog has the stage.

Mrs. Leo Horan won third prize of $200, being a close second, in the Elmira Advertiser campaign for subscriptions. Congratulations are extended by her many friends, on her fine showing, under adverse conditions.

While working in his wood lot last week Louis Dean tapped a few trees and made a fine sample of January syrup.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schoonover attended the old-time party given by Andover Grange one evening last week and took part in the program.

The recent farm deal on the hill is most gratifying to our residents, all of whom feel that they now have a real bargain in the acquisition of John Wahl as a neighbor. Success is predicted for him, for with the optimism he has shown, John will not be "downed."

Tony Dougherty may scoff at any food depression, having hung up a fine beef Saturday.

Doris Dean has been the guest of Hornell friends the past week.

John Wahl has a number of men employed in making necessary improvements on his farm buildings.

Mrs. James Dean and son Edward spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. M. Dean and Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Horan and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dean attended the show in Wellsville, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dean were Hornell visitors Monday, Miss Doris returning home with them.

Whitesville

(Mrs. Ella Millsbaugh, Reporter)

Jan. 31.—Thursday is ground-hog day.

The Hornell High School girls won a hard fought contest from the Andover misses on the home court last Friday evening, Jan. 27th.

Gertrude McHale of Hornell started the scoring when she made a successful toss for the basket. Anna Dean started Andover's scoring in making two foul shots. The game looked like a run-away for Hornell at first, since the score was 11-3 in Hornell's favor at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter Andover tightened up its defense and collected two baskets and a foul to Hornell's one basket. This made the score 13-8 at the half in favor of Hornell.

Andover displayed her best playing during a very fast third quarter. Andover held Hornell scoreless during this period, while collecting six points. This was the only time during the game that the Andover girls had the lead, the score at the end of the third quarter being 14-13 in Andover's favor.

The outcome was in doubt until the final whistle. Andover struggled to keep the lead, but Hornell scored the winning basket in the last few minutes of the game. The game ended with the score standing 16-15.

Anna Dean starred for Andover with eleven points, Burns, Oakes and Mulholland were good in the guarding section. Gertrude McHale featured for Hornell with eight points. Powers was Hornell's outstanding guard.

Last year Andover defeated the Grattan Barber of the Bath Post of the American Legion wars against veterans anywhere in the state seeking domiciliary care or hospitalization at the Bath Veterans' Home until they have first written to the Veterans' Relief office at Buffalo in care of Maj. Kingsbury and ascertained if admission awaits them. Mr. Barber states that recently several veterans have come to Bath seeking admission to the home which is at present filled to capacity. He states that many such veterans without funds become a charge upon local patriotic or philanthropic organizations and that funds necessary to return such veterans to their homes are at present lacking on part of Bath organizations.—Belmont Dispatch.
