By J. HARVEY BACKUS & SON

OUR KEYNOTE: "If There Is Not A Way. Cut A Wey" in every part of the county, there is mounting evidence that the nation will be enlisted 100 per cent. behind this new American bird. Reports reaching Andover from Washington today gave a stirring picture of a campaign for re-employment that is unique in the tional Recovery Administrator Johnson which is five feiters and other major federal offenses, it can soon tree. Calcium cyanide may be used million more men and women on the payrolls of the bring the racketeers to time.

American horizon: Less than 30 days ago, General submission. Johnson sent out a message to the heads of commercial organizations in all parts of the country asking them the gangsters and the law enforcement officials. There color of the blooms has changed have been many instances in which no headway could slightly each year until now they bombardment of enlistment. Thru all the thousands of messages that have been pouring into Washington, country to break the power of the racketeer. this has been the theme of all: "We're ready to go. Tell us what to do!"

days have been literally swamped with correspondence, of those concerned. thus showing the tremendous public reaction. It has not been possible even for the great facilities of the U. S. Government to deliver consumer's cards, stickers, Civil Service for Postmasters Blue Eagle insignia and other supplies and paraphermands will be met and that if organizations will exer-

of effort which will begin next Monday.

be ready to march.

To those few communities where an organization long years must go ahead with the important work She freshened about June 1st; has not yet been formed, the word is, form one, and that must be done. The ayerage postmaster is nothing have a good cold cellar, and tions, N. R. A., Washington, D. C.

The London economic conference turned out be one of those subtle English jokes.

Learning to Play

work and utilizing time profitably. Now the entire He is pioneering the present move in the face of aldue to the feed, or because there chief problem of the day.

what to do with all the spare time that will supposedly their schedule of work greatly shortened.

There may be some merit to all the discussion that of this great public institution. is being waged, but the majority are not inclined to believe that knowing how to play will engender any ... It takes all sorts of people to make up a comcountry wide social problem. The man who has at munity, but we can get along very well without the scalding utensils. Sometimes when least one sport which he likes and follows, and who scandal mongers. enjoys reading and the association of his family, will not find much difficulty in occupying his spare time, Huey Long's Forces Losing Out rate of one tablespoon of salt to especially with taking care of his part of the household Huey Long's Forces Losing Out rate of one tablespoon of salt to duties such as they may be.

It seems that those who are worrying about mark the beginning of the downfall of the political Allegany County whether or not the average man will learn how to play reign of Huey Long in that state. should engage their brain efforts along more serious and important lines of thought.

The Corner is Turned

time to sum up with unprejudiced mind, it seems that dismissed the grand jury and appointed a new body street, Hornell; Michael Dougherty we have really turned the corner, and are in pursuit which he believes will carry on the investigation im- left life use of two residences is of the real thing, prosperity.

to get sick, and likewise with the present economic its wake charges and counter charges of the most ser-$2,000 personal. estate of: John condition. It will take much longer to straighten out ions nature toward honesty, justice and common decen- Ahern, Wellsville farmer, who: was things and get back to prosperous times than it took to ey. The citizens of all other states of the nation will so foully murdered August 4th by bring things to such a disastrous state of affairs. | certainly rejoice with those of Louisiana that Long has persons yet unknown, were granted was experienced last winter and all changes now are the story in which he has played the leading part. No sided with him. Other heirs lase effort should be spared in fighting to a finish to rid the Ellen O'Connor. Wellsville, sister; desirables. But when the gangster invades the sanc- make each one a separate communi-WITH the Blue Eagle drive daily gaining momentum tity of the home to extort money thru kidnaping means cation. it is a time for drastic action upon the part of law A Hornet's Nest can, and will be, stopped once and for all inasmuch as the pests?"

Another source of real stigma to the laws of the the powder in the holes and then | thousands of recruits are being added daily as new country is the sabotage acts that are being practiced stopping the holes as with the gaso-One of the marvels of the campaign, so it is pointbusinesses are forced to pay large sums for protection should kill the hornets within a few ed out, is the sheer speed with which these mighty against racketeers. If they do not pay, their head-minutes. A common form of the strides have been attained. It is literally a matter of quarters are bombed and other acts of sabotage are poison is known as cyanogas." days since the Blue Eagle, first, was thrust across, the carried out to force the company or individual into organizations in their respective communities. This be made toward apprehending the offenders because are blue. What causes the change was the heginning of the campaign. In less than 24 their activities were in accordance with pre-arranged and what can I put on the soil to hours thereafter wires, phone calls and letters began deals with those who were supposedly champions of the m

In the NRA offices in Washington, executives for is that too much goes into the pockets of only a few *

cently a fleet of 24 airplanes sailed from New York that he favors and will recommend, the appoint the soil reaction and get a rarer to the north, west and south loaded to capacity with ment of postmasters thru civil service examination to color." campaign supplies but still the demand was unsatisfied. replace the present system of political appointments However, officials in Washington promise that all de-has been hailed as a fine step in the right direction. While there is no criticism to be directed against | cise just a little patience all the required literature and those who are now holding office as postmasters under insignia will reach them before the culminating week the present system, or any in particular who have held the tree. What would you advise?" office in such manner, it has long been regarded as a Professor W. D. Mills says that The task so far has been to shape up the local or- farce to put a man at the head of such an important he cannot determine the disease ganizations. By next Monday it is expected that all unit as the average postoffice who has had no previous from the description. The diseases this will have been completed and then the army will experience. A man who holds such a position should of fruits can be better determined be thoroly trained, preferably thru actual experience, from a sample. Such samples may And the army, according to Washington advices before he could accept such a responsible position. Under the set-up as it is, assistants must neces- state college of agriculture at Ithayields to the Blue Eagle. Which is just another way sarily assume the responsibility for the actual manageof saying—until the back of the depression has been ment and execution of the office. The men, headed by R. E. D. of Prattsburg, w the assistant postmaster, who have been on the job for We have a cow about half Jersey.

wire this information to the Bureau of Public Rela- more than a figure-head who actually does very little milk pans. The cream is soft and of the real management of the office. It would be just as sensible to take a man from We had the same + the streets with no previous experience and place him three years ago, to at the head of any important business as it is to ap-last summer.

point postmasters on their political standing only, as is butter is soft and nice." now being done. It is to be remembered that President Roosevelt department of dairy industry says. does not have the power to make such a change him- Most inquiries ANLY a short time back our parents, and successive self and it must be done by Congress, but Mr. Roose-U generations from that time back as far as time velt has established a reputation for getting things done uality of the animal is responsible goes, were teaching their offspring the value of hard and whatever he recommends is usually inaugurated. for the trouble. Possibly it may scheme of affairs has changed and the value of know- ready brewing opposition. Many hungry party men a small amount ing how to play is being brought to the front as the have been clamoring for political plums of which the whey under the cream indicates the The short work day as brought about by the new sure to have much opposition to removing this fine bloc ture that was a little too high. Us. industrial code brings up the question of knowing of political plums into the category of civil service. However, it is earnestly hoped that he will be suc-lit be that the temperature e hang heavy on the hands of all those who have had cessful in making the change, by members of both par-cream was nearly 80 degrees? If

THE recent grand jury episode in Louisiana seems to

It was evident that there were glaring discrepancies in the election returns as reported by the commis- Michael Dougherty, R. A. and A sioners and figures as shown by actual count by the Lynch, Andover were named execucitizens committee. The grand jury which was investors in the will of Ella A. Doughertigating the irregularities was unmistakably composed ty, Andover, disposing of a $2,000 HE HAVE heard for so long that prosperity is just of Long sympathizers, and wished to smooth the matter estate. The Franciscan Monastery around the corner, but that corner has always over in the best possible manner to avoid further prob- Order, Paterson, N. J., was left a seemed vague and far distant. Now, when we take ing and publicity. The judge of the court summarily mortgage on property on Charles

It is true, that the return to normal conditions is The Long machine has ruled with a high and nephew, ordered to pay Mary M. It is true, that the return to normal conditions is mighty hand for a long time in Louisians, leaving in Lynch, $1,000; residue to executors. All indications are that the low ebb of business been defeated at every turn in this latest chapter of to a sister, Julia Maroney, who re-

Mrs. K. M. H. asks: 'I was given ! Too often there is collusion between the leaders of that had deep pink blooms. The ties alike who are primarily interested in the welfare it may not be difficult for you change the temperature. It may be too, that certain types of organisms] bring the fat globules together."

Professor E. S. Guthrie of the!

Aornell, to go to Robert A. Lynch, the last two (weeks when they get | Sheer material like chinon will about $1.03. Mounting prices for not pucker when it is stitched by the A. C. O. asks: "Some hornets necessities of life complicate the machine if strips of paper are plac-

DEWIN IN THE NEW TALL MAN

QUAKER MAID REICHUPI

COLD STREAM

MEDIUM SIZE LVORY

DE BERTAL TEOMBINATION OFFER THE TE

FANCY PRODUCE FANCY ELBERTA SOT

herself, as Erills, the wife of Neil "You go along!" exclaimed Joyce, her and smiled silently. learning what she could of her life stormy scene, "I can't have you turned to her comfortable armchair up in surprise when she saw her said goodnight, hoping that Neil accord when you're ready?" in the interval. From the conversa- around all day. I'm going to be in front of one of the windows, daughter-in-law reappear. tion of her friends and letters in her busy." woman. One letter that troubled afternoon it's all right, you know, ard.

caring for. Could it be her baby, it'll be your doing." cisco, where she went while her hus- are you going?" band was away on business, she met "Why, Mr; Packard asked me to Robert Ainsworth, a poet whose take some papers up to Jake Anson. work she had always admired. When It's up beyond Elk Flat in the hills, Joyce returned home, she decided to a good long way from the road, so be pleasanter to Neil than Frills had he told me. I'd better ride Barney," been. But this line was dangerous, explained Sam.

too, for Neil was pathetically anx- "Well, couldn't I got with you?" demanded Joyce. She was still a little nervous about going out alone, ing off steam which had accumulated when all the trails were so unfamil-When Joyce got back at noon af-

"I'm not trying to put anything care if it's the Prince of Wales." for not believing me now. but I fully and then waited for Neil to swear I'm telling the truth about appear. She was pleased when she this. I know I've been pretty-rot-heard him arriving at ten minutes ! ten, but now-" she paused. It was before five, an evidence that he inso difficult to say what she-wanted tended to take no chances of missing to. A mixture of shyness and fear, their appointment. her desire to make Neil realize that a positive beam of pleasure and reshe wanted to be friends with him, lief. that in the future he would not have - Hullo, Frills, all ready to go!

she had been since she woke up in and needles for fear Neil Mrs. Neil Packard's bed. Gently top to talk to any of them After she tried to free herself. Poor Neil, half an Hour during which she grew worry, about her actions, drove Fine!" and as Joyce got up he apon the head knocked a little-rense kissing her." But she stepped aside and said. "Please, let's start over he incorred as they went out toangel, but I'll try not to morry you lindifferently. She went up to Neil's chances of pappiness "anynow, I prefer to have you drive ory in a skidding taxical accident in "You het I won't! Gee, but—you both!" exclaimed his mother, accident and getting a lot of sleep." soon discovered that Neil's idea of questions and going thru this sort Chicago. One morning two years whoopee! I—I wish I didn't have holding out her hand to Joyce and When they were outside the house enjoying the radio was to spend all of thing every night?" later she woke, after a fall from her to go down to the office. I feel like keeping Neil's in her clasp at the Joyce, seized by a sudden impulse, his time and effort trying to get dis- Her manner evidently made an same time. Joyce shook hands with said to Nefl, "Wait a minute. I'll be tant stations. right out again," and turning, she, Joyce, bored finally at the super- her immediately, saying, "I'm sorry. Packand rich California fruit pack alaymed at the threatened loss of her "Do sit down, children, it's so went back into the house. Mrs. latives of the unseen speaker who dear. It's just that I love you so." er. She determined to tell nobody day of freedom and feeling the need good to see you," went on Mrs. Packard who had been sitting quiet- was boosting enthusiastically for He paused and added hesitatingly: of her predicament but set about of a rest after the strain of this Packard, beaming happily as she re- ly gazing out of the window, looked the glories of California, got up and But-will you come of your own

When he came in and saw Jeyce

Joyce ran across the room and Packard immediately shut off the tily, suddenly extremely embarrassdesk she gathered that she had been "All right! And say, if anything "Last night, mother, and you bet kneeling beside the chair, she said radio and announced his intention ed by the conversation after her a heartless, pleasure loying young does come up you'd rather do this I'm glad to be back," replied Pack- hastily, before her courage should of accompanying her. By the air momentary self-confidence. She said go back on her: "Do you—do you of happy expectation on his face, goodnight again and went off to her her was from a woman signing her- We can go to mother's some other Neil's mother was a woman in her suppose we could be friends, after Joyce realized that she was about room and shut the door. late sixties, with soft gray hair, and all? Or has Frills, have I been too to reap the inevitable results of her The next night when they were giving a home to a baby Sophie was "The date is made. If it's broken a face pleasantly fresh and clear- awful?" skinned. Only in her dark eyes To her dismay she saw Mrs. Pack- She decided this time to take no sweet, I hate like the devil to have rills wondered! She also found When she got out to the stable could one read the shadow of past ard's eyes fill with quick tears and chance of repeating the soap inci- you sleeping indoors. You ought to herself involved in an affair with a Jovce found Sam about to mount sorrows, mingled with present lone- a flush mount to her forehead. "My dent and when they reached the be getting all this wonderful fresh man named Maitland. In San Fran- the black horse, "Oh, Sam, where liness and pain, Joyce thought, and dear, my dear, nothing would make bedroom she turned to him and said (Please Turn to Page Six) friendliness toward him that day. going upstairs, Neil said, "Look here would remain downstairs.

PAGE THREE

TODAY, Mr. Roosevelt, we signed your Reemployment Agreement.

We are pledged to PUT MORE MONEY IN MORE PAY ENVELOPES

by not working any man or woman more than 35 hours a week by taking on additional men to keep our business going by paying every single employee at least the minimum wage you recommend. We believe, as you believe, that every employer who signs this agreement is helping to bring back prosperity. And we are proud to place in our window and in our advertising the NRA symbol or Let 10 Let 23 Let 10 Let 10

J. P. CANNON CO. ANDOVER STATE BANK BURROWS.NATIONAL BANK W. S. CALHOUN BAKER BROS, W. M. WOODRUFF E. A. RICHARDSON A. & P. STORE LARKIN STORE

RED & WHITE STORE H. HARDY and the state of CHILDS BAKERY BLOSS GROCERY R. A. GEER HENRY STEPHENS AGENCY JOHN HORTON ED. HORAN JOHN KARCANES WM. LAUTERBORN C. H. WATSON H. H. WILLIAMS