read it with you—when you came home." He spoke so quietly that

It was nearly midnight when they

ANDOVER NEWS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY By J. HARVEY BACKUS & SON OUR KEYNOTE: "If There Is Not A Way, Cut A Way"

SEPT. 15, 1933 he goes along.

N. R. A. Helps Farmer

THE farmer and the resident of our rural communi- would raise a terrible fuss. ties have a vital stake in the National Recovery for the industrial worker and the city dweller in gen-then it is work.

and industrial paralysis and widespread unemployment, in the world. resulting in a huge loss of purchasing power, has contributed principally to the farmer's distress.

for his products, not what they are worth.

President Roosevelt, whose far-sighted and dynamback on its feet.

That 33-year-old Missourian who has just married real piker.

A Step in the Right Direction | nium has arrived.

TEWS that the government has negotiated agreements I with two of the leading manufacturers of machine get guns to the effect that they will not sell to racketeers is most encouraging and an important step in the right direction toward stamping out crime.

chief weapon of leading gangsters. Their method is to III of all she surveyed on the tennis courts of both attack their victims by surprise and literally mow them this country and those abroad, finally succumbed down with a deadly hail of lead that none can escape her long time rival. Miss Helen Jacobs. The victory Many gangsters are either afraid or poor shots, and of Miss Jacobs was as dramatic as it was surprising to hurt their keeping qualities? How will not run the risk of combat with ordinary fire arms everyone. Previously it had been deemed quite a feat should eggs be washed if they need but feel perfectly safe when backed by such a murder to garner as much as one set, from Mrs. Moody in a to be cleaned?" ous weapon as the machine gun.

The agreement with the two manufacturers most important and will, no doubt, seriously hamper racketeers, but the government should go a step further feat was apparent. The former champion was sufferand enact laws that will absolutely prohibit the sale ing from a back and leg injury which made it impost no particular harm, but is foolish of machine guns to any but military authorities or state sible for her to cover the court efficiently. or federal law enforcement authorities. There is no The sensational default opened the way for much ed, each egg should have clean wat obtain them.

ernment steps in and makes it illegal, and puts the possible when she saw the inevitable defeat at hand. will fear to trespass.

Every now and then someone you haven't missed comes up and tells you he is back from his vacation.

Habits in Buying

In some instances, the reasons are obvious, in others the reasons are obscure. It can be understood. for example, why a much larger proportion of retail sales in Nebraska, Iowa, Montana and Oklahoma are once did, but not at the same time. in automotive goods than in foodstuffs. They are predominantly agricultural regions, and farming populations raise and store for themselves large quantities of foodstuffs. Towns and marketing points are scattered A GREAT many people seem to think that mysteries return before the sun painted t and that leads to more travel than in many other areas A are peculiar to religion and metaphysics—and lat-leastern sky with rosy color. Joyto get to them.

The situation is reversed in the State of New York mistake, for human life is full of them. where urban life abounds. Food sales outrange con- Society is indeed a fertile field for the develop- the bosom of the quiet lake. siderably purchases related to motor vehicles.

A possibility for this may be that westerners have a all are mysteries. greater affection for the great out-of-doors and give There are many more, such as the idea that a ser- sky. less thought to the interior of their residences. Another unexplainable fact is why that many do at the time or not.

in a city of corresponding size in another region with Few things are more puzzling than the election of cer- he blew his breath and shook the no particular influence to make the situation different, tain men to office and the defeat of others. The very surface of the lake into waves. This so prominently into the consumer's budget in the South There probably never was a political platform written that they hurried up the moonbeam there is not a far greater difference than there is.

you don't fun out of business.

What Is Pleasure?

MOST people are always seeking pleasure—seeking diversion from work and the ordinary routine And it is usually true that in seeking they rive more enjoyment than in the actual realization trying to climb up a mountain peak because he thinks many questions as you like, but publican principle of government— PAY YOUR GAS BILLS it is pleasure. But if the elevator was out of commis- make each one a separate communi- that the government receives its on or before the 20th of sion and he had to walk several flights of stairs, he cation.

50. would investigate his case.

Pleasure seems to be anything we don't have to Program. Success of the program means a better, do. Baseball is the greatest sport in the world until brighter day for them and proportionately more than you get good enough to draw a salary for playing, and for combating blight." Driving an automobile is pleasure and some spend best results on potatoes, the appli-While there has been overproduction of certain a nice pile of money each year for the privilege, but cations should be made from the farm products, underconsumption caused by business any taxi driver will tell you his job is one of the worst time the potato vines show above Some men find pleasure in a quiet game of check- ing about 100 gallons of spray to ers and others in reading the newest book on science.

Farm prices have been low largely because the Other men cannot enjoy themselves unless they have venting blight, but tends to delay drop in the income of the people has sharply curtailed money on a game of chance, while still others think it ripening. Applications to the plants demand and the farmer must take what he can get is pleasure to watch two big huskies beat each other's as they are growing in the cold faces into pulp. Some men get their enjoyment in frame and one or two early applica-The farmer has rightly been called the backbone batting an innocent looking rabber ball covered with tions are especially helpful. All o of the Nation. At no time in our history has his whole-cloth back and forth over a net, and others are con-vines should be plowed under, behearted help been needed more than now. He can tent to limit their physical efforts to a game of pool. work the more earnestly in contributing to the success Men's tastes in pleasure have largely determined blight can live over winter in the of the recovery drive because he knows that when the the progress of the world. War was once a leading " big turn comes he will share in the prosperity that amusement and watching Christian martyrs devoured by wild beasts was regarded as a noble pastime.

ic leadership has already initiated comprehensive meas- amusements, but high salaried movie actors still amuse What sort of paper is used in ripenures designed to aid the farmer directly in solving his us with stories that never happened and probably never ing them?" own problems, is depending upon the rural dweller to will, and when a youth speeds his way thru the streets put a shoulder to the wheel and help get the country of the town at a reckless speed, we confine our reaction Work replies: "The ripening o to a few criticisms because we consider it his way of green tomatoes is governed mostly

We are a bit more particular now about

When we can get pleasure out of driving rascals ing. The rate of ripening declines his tenth wife has shown up Peggy Hopkins Joyce as a out of public office, swatting the law breakers and in-with lower temperature and is deflicting awful surprises on the suffering in the shape cidedly slow at 40 degrees. of good fellowship, you may be assured that the millen- toes are satisfactorily stored at tem-

B chance to think?

New Tennis Champion

For quite a while the machine gun has been the RERS. HELEN WILLS MOODY, for many years queen tennis match and this was accomplished only two is three times by her rivals while she was champion. The match was defaulted by Mrs. Moody when de-need for any others owning or using machine guns. argument both pro and con concerning the affair. er, and the egg should be cleanly Such a law would include all manufacturers of machine Friends and admirers of Miss Jacobs declared it guns and make it absolutely impossible for criminals to most unsportsmanlike thing for Mrs. Moody to default, remedy is to have the hen-house pointing out that she could have stayed on the court larly the nesting material. Bare There has been no excuse in the past for any con- another five minutes or so and finished the match even nest boxes greatly increase the likecern selling machine guns to those who have no busi- tho she would have been compelled to let each difficult lihood of dirty eggs. Tests at Corness with them, but evidently the sale of machine guns shot go by without trying to return it. This would nell show that shavings furnish to hoodlums has been so profitable and voluminous that have given Miss Jacobs her full share of honor in win-better nesting material than does it was an attractive sales field. When manufacturers ning the event. These fans and friends say that rela- straw. Oat hulls are also good. or dealers of such weapons have no higher scruples than tions between the two were not cordial and that Mrs. is best to have plenty of light to cater to such customers, it is high time that the gov- Moody wanted to make the victory seem as hollow as clean, fluffy absorbent material right thing by not risking further injury to health and * TELL ME AN INDIAN * Whatever may have been the condition of Mrs. 7 Moody, only she can accurately say. No one else can * Dr. E. A. Bates, Cornell justly state conclusions in the matter. Regardless of ship, Miss Jacobs now wears the crown that she fought SCHOOL CHILDREN OFTHE SKY THE MIGHT be supposed on first thought that the buy-for so determinedly and valiantly. If there is still Ing habits of people the country over are much the doubt in the minds of many as to which woman is the All this happened in those olden same. But a study of an analysis by the department the issue for there is no reason why it can't be settled lived an equal distance from its in the fashion that it should be—on the tennis courts patted each one on the head as she

Girls may wear as many or more clothes as they the red children they saw playing

Mysteries terly to the new science. This is of course a great ously the little stars slipped down ment of the unexplicable and unaccountable. The beneath the lily pads, and noted the A more peculiar aspect of commodity distribution amusements of people and their recreation, their ideas shimmering reflections from is seen in furniture. Western states buy less furniture of what is, or is not important, their cold assumption shores, until morning. Remember than eastern states. The farther west that a state is that anything in the way of clothes which is fashionable ing the promise, most of them haslocated, the less its expenditure for furniture shows. is becoming; even, sometimes, their moral standards—[tened up the moonbeam ladder vant must always be busy whether there is anything to in earth affairs that they forgot more people eat in restaurants in one city than those _____ What is true of society is quite true of politics. called on the Great Sky Bear and Food, automobiles and clothing do not enter quite word availability as set over fitness, reeks with mystery. so frightened the forgetful stars fixed rule applies. Perhaps it is rather unusual that that others take them for mysteries since they are so to her in the sky.

out of place with the individual. seem simple, and almost commonplace

Bordeaux for Blight and tomatoes with Bordeaux mixture Professor M. F. Barrus says: For .

the ground until growth ceases, usthe acre. The application of Bor-Mrs. C. J. W. Walden, writes:

"Please tell me how to wrap green temperature. A temperature degrees results in a rapid ripenperatures much below 50 degrees. "Moisture has little to do with ripening, except that if the air is decidedly dry the fruits tend It makes little difference whether the storage place is dark or light. Wrapping with paper ot necessary. Wraps are taken off the South, as soon as they enter a About Washing Eggs N. O. U. asks: "Does washing eggs

Professor H. E. Botsford answers this query by saying that eggs and unnecessary. If they are wash-

(Copyright 1933)

moved on the sky trails each night. The star children asked her about down on the earth, and begged for a chance to go down and visit them. So, in response to their constant pleadings, the Star Mother said they could go if they would promise the moonbeam ladder and rested or take their accustomed places in the power to govern from the people and that a public official must rep- month and save discount R. V. K., Olean, writes: "Please resent all classes and be respon- Bring your gas card to he 3. I believe we face a grave danger in the proposal to consoli-

receipted. EMPIRE GAS &

Dairy Farmers Need Help To Sell Their Surplus Butter

So A & P Offers You Butter At This Low Price DELICIOUSLY FINE TASTING

THURS - FRI - SAT. SPECIAL U. S. Government Inspected PURE WHITE LARD lb. / C

Fine Tasting Convenient t Cut for Tasty Sandwiches BLOCK SWISS CHESE

PLAIN OR SLICED -BREAD LOAF OC PLAIN OR SLICED Luncheon Loaf 9c NOTE-This loaf waighs 11b 6 oz

FOR THE KIDDIES SCHOOL LUNCHES OATMEAL COOKIES 2 lbs. 25c

Quick or Regular MOTHER'S OATS

Harris Oxygen SOAP

BREAKFAST

SUPER SUDS

RED CIRCLE

LB. TOC

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables FANCY EATING

as in the eastern and western section of the country. that was not a mystery—intended so to be. It is impossible to assign any rational explanation for the perpetuation of the childish features that are so outstandof the country is so large geographically and the enline in our every day life in many wave—so shillish.

| Concord-Home Grown 4 be. 10c lg.bas. 33c 4 ts. 29c

Chicago. One morning two years self lacking in chivalry and courage, you and worrying about his mother, been—" later she woke, after a fall from her that perhaps he did not love her. who really was sicker than he'd let Roxie beamed and flushed with L. & C., COAT, SUIT & DRESS CO. herself, as Frills, the wife of Neil To Joyce this was too bitter for you know-" tears, too bitter for complaint. She "Oh, Sam!" Joyce's misery shot said confusedly. "but, my, it's good Packard, rich California fruit pack-er. She determined to tell nobody the shame of it.

of her predicament but set about When the hundred dollars was so four days afterward. Everyone felt now do come into dinner if you and nearly gone that Joyce was seized terrible sorry for Mr. Neil. That Mr. Neil are ready." in the interval. From the conversa- with a feeling of sudden panic, she Miss Abbott seemed to come around "Where's Dickie? She asked with a feeling of sudden panic, she Miss Abbott seemed to come around "Where's Dickie? She asked with a feeling of sudden panic, she with a feeling of sudden panic, she will be a feeling of sudden tion of her friends and letters in her shook off her lethargic mood, and, an awful lot. No one knew anything Neil, when they were seated, "I They are taking advantage of the still ustriking out wildly for employment, about you, but I guess a lot of gos-haven't seen him since I got back!" a heartless, pleasure-loving young seized upon a position as file clerk sip went the rounds. Then just two "Oh, that's right—I must send her was from a woman signing her- in a large paper concern. The work days ago Roxie told me how she'd for him. He's been living with Sam could not have been less interesting heard Miss Abbott telling Mr. Neil since you left. Moped about the self Sophie, blaming Frills for not or less profitable, but in her disor- that she had seen you in San Fran- house so dismally that we thought giving a home to a baby Sophie was ganized state its very dullness was caring for. Could it be her baby, beneficial to her. She kept to her-Frills wondered! She also found self, finding that the other girls but that you'd said you were sorry kept looking at me reproachfully, herself involved in an affair with a were suspicious of her finer clothes. but you couldn't come back to him." as if asking what I'd done with you. man named Maitland. In San Fran- It amused her to wonder what they "Oh, Sam! Did he believe her? It gave me the creeps." cisco, where she went while her hus- would think if they knew how she You don't suppose he really believed "Funny little Dickie." said Joyce.

work she had always admired. When One day, less than a week after "I dunno. It's hard for men to not want to ask any questions covbeen. But this line was dangerous, company with two of the other grils, 'Sam,' she said, 'I don't trust that toward his mother, and cause him). ious to win back Frills' love. At sultory remarks, when a familiar words from Mrs. Packard herself be- tell him anything about her life in "Oh, Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Pack-changed and got so nice lately, and now was resuming the unreality of Later she met the poet, Robert Ains- ard!" It was Sam, calling to her all—" Sam paused in confusion. a bad dream, and she had no wish for lunch at his cabin when she was horseback riding. One day he started to make love to her. Later, Joyce and Neil out riding, are come upon; Ainsworth. Cornered, Joyce makes full confession—her loss o memory and its restoration. When Neil accuses Joyce and Ainsworth of being in love, Ainsworth makes "graceless" exit, leaving Joyce to Neil is hurt but upon arriving at home is called to his mother's home. Joyce decides she must Now go on with the story-Writing to Neil was difficult: "Dear Neil," she finally wrote: "I'm going away—forgive me, but seems the only thing to do. know how you feel about facing me after all we've been thru today. When you wrote me that you would 'camp' out somewhere else tonight quite understood. Please don't think I blame you-all the fault i mine from beginning to end-but couldn't bear to be the cause making your home repellent to you. wanted me here when you chivalrous and pretending that you You can see there's nothing else for steered quickly to the curb and stop-fall right." go to San Francisco, and perhaps ment of the office girls, or even to didn't find you the second day!" my life. I'm taking about $100 I climbed in.

davenport and stifled her sobs in a bed afresh. want to leave at all!"

and she preferred to remain in hid er had died?"

she thought, "but it'll be better if you saying? What do you mean? the old friendliness and then slipped than she had supposed. After in- I haven't seen a soul from Manzan-the luxury of living as Mrs. Neil happened since you left. When Mr. not once lose his self-control,

She had tried to banish him but could not quite. me to do. I'm not going to Robert ped. "Gee, I'm glad I found you!" Well, so Roxie she said to me Ainsworth of course-don't think He was out in a moment and hold-that I was to go to San Fransisco that. I am now enjoying the bitter-ling the door for her. and Joyce, too and not come back until I found ness of my mistake about him. I'll befuddled to think of the amaze- you! So I came, and doggone

"Well, anyway, Mrs. Packard died we've certainly missed you!

fore I'd believe them, her having San Francisco during that time: it bout it. So she ate silently.

All at once she was aware that

"Anything wrong Neil?" she ask-

"No, dear, I was just thinking

"Oh, Neil, you mustn't say things!

like that to me! I know it's only vour kindness, vour natural sweetiness''--Joyce's voice choked up and la

how wonderful it was to have you

Neil was regarding her thoughtfully with a brooding stare unlike the matter-of-factness she remembered

there I can make some plan about remember to bid them goodbye, "So Roxie believed in me!" spoke further, and Joyce, suddenly felt Roxie could be depended on!" Suddenly she realized that they were more than half way to Man-"There, there," Sam was saying, zanita.

it purr outside the long French win- weak-minded as you think! If you was full of gratitude. She slipped don't mind driving me around for a quietly up to her bedroom, Joyce flung herself down on the little, until I get control-" she sob-stretched out on the bed, in tense

"What do you mean, weak-mind- What next? What next? She had soft little nose insinuated itself into ed? Excuse me, Mrs. Packard, but never felt less mistress of the situaher clenched palm, "why should I I think there's a lot of explaining tion since she had found herself I've been in this house? I don't ed at her with a mixture of appre- | heard sounds downstairs, and, along want to go, Dicky, I really don't hension and determination. "Maybe with pangs of hunger, she relaxed Joyce had Sam take her to the Y.] -but-gee, I like you and Mr. facing Neil Packard. She took ing that if Neil pressed Sam very you want to come home when Miss to notice how worn and haggard she hard he might tell her whereabouts, Abbott told you Mr. Packard's moth- looked; the life she had led in San Joyce stared at him in such hon- Sam was standing by the door as "I know Neil will feel that he est bewilderment that he was im- Joyce came down the wide stairs; should make every effort to find me," pressed. "Why, what on earth are he smiled at her with a return of

. Has Mrs. Packard died since-since out. Joyce found it harder to get a job I left? Of course, I didn't know! She was left facing her husband. stalling herself in a cheap rooming- ita! Tell me-please!" Neil's moth- meet this situation vanished when house under the name of "Florence er-she knew how fond he was of she saw Neil. Such an intensity o. for Neil to get his divorce) she set course she must go to him at once. | that Joyce was instantly stabbed, "Gee, that's funny," Sam answer- and without a moment's hesitation She took to reading the want-ads ed, "Miss Abbott said-well, you she ran toward him. Here was some in the daily papers, but she could see, it was this way," he paused to one of whom she was genuinely get up no interest in the kind of collect his thoughts, "guess I'd bet fond, in the greatest trouble-no work they offered. She found that ter go back and tell you all that's thought but to comfort him! He did Packard had sapped her courage and Neil came the next morning and got the tragic look in his eyes lightened left her less able to face hard work your note he was about sick. He when he saw her, and his whole pleasure. "I didn't do nothing!" she 102 Main St., - - Hornell, N. Y.

to have you back, Mrs. Packard, we've certainly missed you! And WHY WAIT, Just to Pay More The thrifty customers are buying now.

> prevailing low prices. NEW FALL DRESSES

All Dresses in these groups are bound to be $3 to $5 more before long. Later You'll Pay $35-$38

FUR TRIMMED COATS Richly trimmed with Fine Furs

All sizes, including stouts - $25

Don't hesitate—You will pay considerable more later for these very same Coats. Buy Now And Save!

—Annex— -Millinery Dept.-Chldrn's Dresses

Newest Styles $1.79 - $2.79 Hundreds to Choose From

FULL FASHIONED SILK HOSE

Silk Hosiery at Old Prices All New Shades

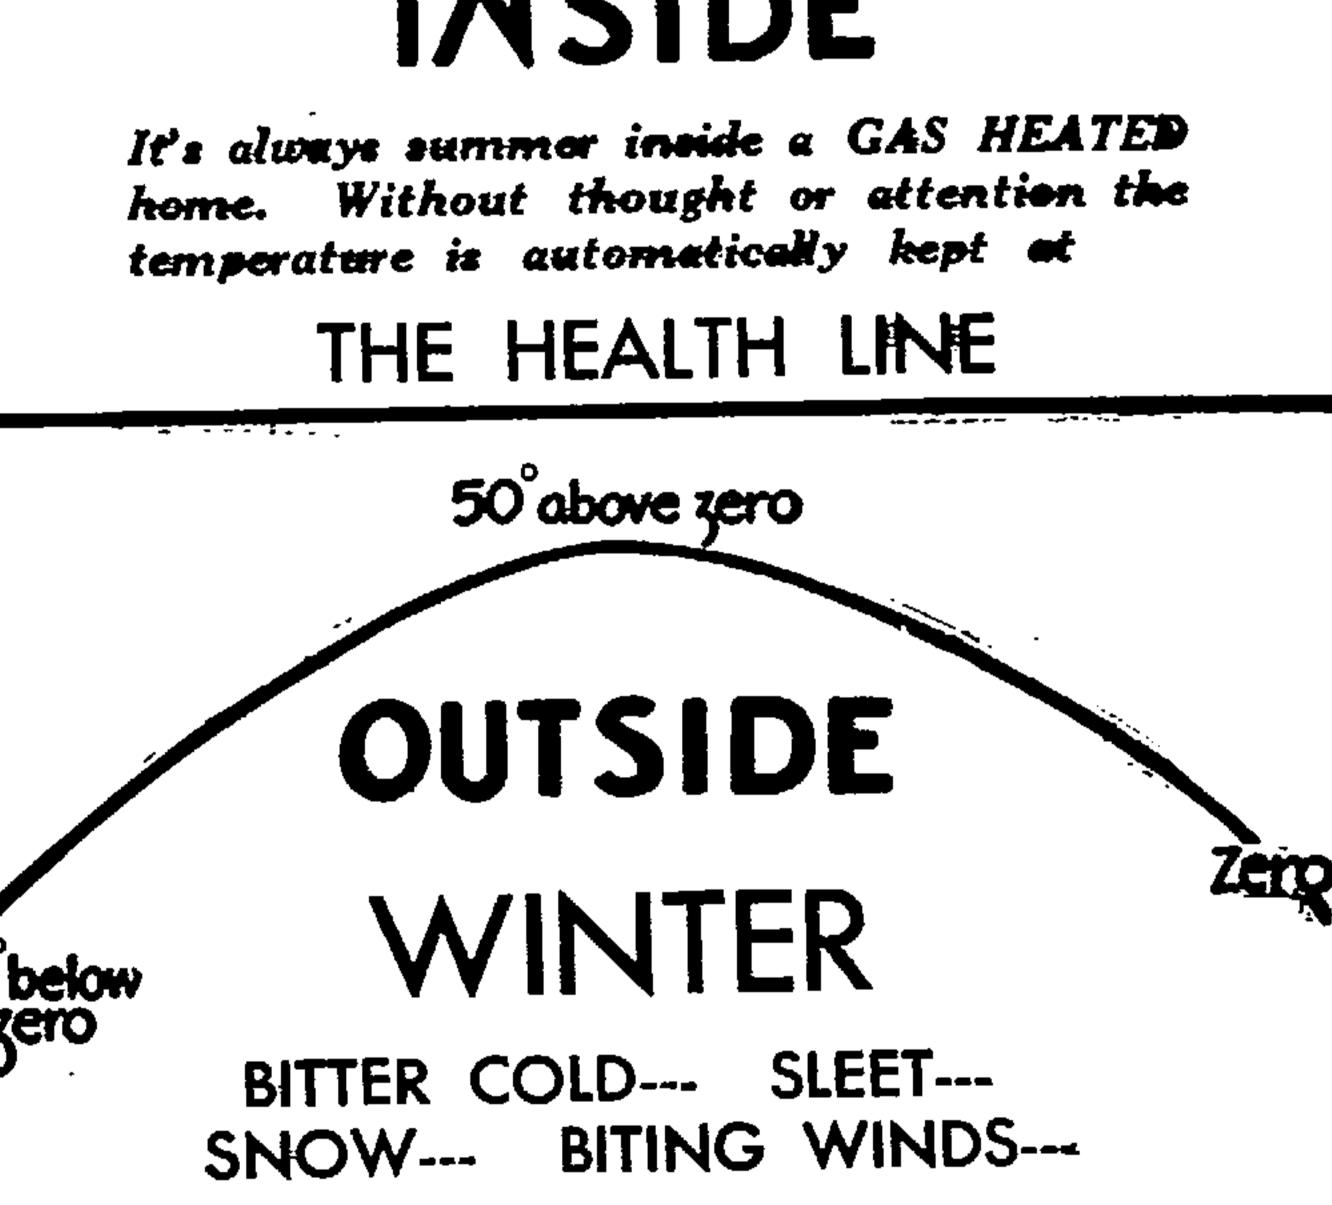

Hundreds to choose Children's Coats New Fall and Winter

Coats at prices based on Spring and Summer labor prices. These Coats were bought early. $2.49 $3.95 $5.95

she left the table. Neil followed her into the living-room. "Well, we won't go into that just ow. Frills, if it bores you." Joyce way. I found something that'll prohably interest you a diary kept by 102 Main St. "The Women's Shop of Hornell" Hornell, N.Y. by Frills-beginning about the

INSIDE

IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE Gas Heat with M-H DUPLEX CONTROL

automatically adjusts the inside temperature to any weather conditions YOU MUST USE SOME KIND OF FUEL.

If Gas costs no more consider all of its advantages. No more journeys up and down cellar stairs to fix the fire—no attention but to wind a clock—no ashes to carry out and no dirt and dust as when using other fuel.

Mail the coupon or telephone your Gas Office

Your Dealers Window

HORNELL GAS LIGHT CO Hornell, N. Y. Without obligation please send me fell information about GAS heating.