News of the death of T. Joseph Lynch at St. James Mercy hospital Hornell Monday afternoon was received on the hill with deep sorrow and with much sympathy for his sorrowing family and four surviving brothers of a family who have been sorely afflicted by death. "Joe" was a South Hill boy from infancy until early manhood, when he embarked in business for himself and by hard work and capability was not long in forging ahead. He will be sorely missed by his family and also by his church, of which he was a staunch member and trustee and by his home town. Burial services will be held on Thursday.
