

"WE DO OUR PART"

The code adopted by the American Bankers Association under the National Recovery Act provides that all banks in the same city, trade area or county shall adopt uniform hours of banking.

The hours of banking observed throughout the territory covered by the Allegany County Bankers Association are:

Week Days 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.
Saturdays 9 A. M. to Noon

Desiring to co-operate with the Government in carrying out the terms of the National Recovery Act we will observe the above-mentioned hours of banking commencing

October 1st, 1933

A Measley Time

The Canaseraga Times of last week tells of six children in the family of Mrs. Clair Brookaw being ill with measles.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Tides have no influence on weather, scientists declare.

Aluminum is extensively used in making very small automobiles in order to lessen weight.

Talking movies as entertainment on railroad trains have been tried and appear to be practical.

Cactus plants, which now are spread thru many parts of the world, were American natives.

A big elephant can lift a tree weighing a ton.

A tooth is the only part of the body that cannot repair itself.

Fairbanks, Alaska, only 120 miles south of the arctic circle, is hot enough at times for people to be overcome by heat.

Fir trees attacked by mistletoe sometimes are seriously deformed or prevented from attaining further growth.

I. O. O. F. Fair

The three-day fair at Odd Fellows Hall closed Friday evening with a dancing party, preceded by an auction sale. The entertainments during the fair featured High School Night, with orchestra and the Boys' and Girls' Glee Club; special numbers, a whistling sextette, by Leah Oakes, Alice Pope, Edna Joyce, Mary Etta Spicer, Richard Appier and Raymond Geer; also a boys' quartette, Max Baker, Howard Gath, Wisner Cook and Francis Vickers, under direction of Miss Mary Jo Russ, music director of Andover High School.

A concert by the American Legion band, director A. L. Bloss and a Home Bureau play, "The Crowned Glory," in which the characters in the cast were taken by Mrs. W. L. Greene, Mrs. Clifford Burdick, Mrs. Emmett Robinson, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Wm. Lang and Lorraine Burdick were all well received.

Apples and many vegetables such as beans, beets, cabbage, carrots, onions, parsnips, potatoes and turnips may be successfully preserved if stored in well-ventilated crates or barrels in a cool cellar.

Fillmore Man to Head County Bar Association

Belmont, Nov. 8.—Ransom L. Richardson, Fillmore, was re-elected president of the Allegany County Bar Association at a dinner meeting of county attorneys held at the Wigwam Club House, Belvidere.

Other officers selected are: Vice president, Francis B. O'Connor, Wellsville; secretary and treasurer, Eldyn V. Champlin, Belmont. Judge Walter N. Renwick of Cuba and former County Judge Guy O. Hinman of Angelica were made members of the executive committee, together with the officers.

The principal subjects for discussion at the meeting were the Home Loan Owners' Association and the mortgage law, the round table being led by Attorney Chester M. Bliss of Bolivar. A dinner preceded the discussion and business meeting.

PATTERNS 15c
