Local Happenings

Merry Christmas!
Two cases of typhoid fever are reported in Troupsburg.

Haven't you a relative or a friend who would enjoy the News for a year as a Christmas gift? Call and leave the subscription and we will notify them of your gift.

Supt. W. Gates Pope conducted a conference of the rural teachers of Alfred, Alfred Station and Ward Monday. Mrs. Florence Beaton and Miss Mary Ellen Whitford were hostesses.

Robert Dwyer, 31, of Wellsville, is at Jones Memorial hospital, suffering from injuries received while working on an oil lease. His left lung was found to have been punctured and several broken ribs.

A truck load of apples slid on the icy pavement coming down the hill into Andover from Hornell, Wednesday morning and tipped on its side. Three men who rode in the truck crawled out the door uninjured but the apples were strewn over the pavement.

Workmen were busy this week repairing the damage done by fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kemp last week. Some flooring had to be replaced and new ceiling put on the living room. The fire was discovered by the dog barking. A few minutes more and the house would have been beyond help.

Just two more shopping days.

Mrs. Sidney Kaple is ill at the home of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kaple.

Mrs. F. B. VanName of Rushford fractured her left wrist and injured her hip badly in a fall from the veranda at her home last week.

Andover radio listeners heard very plainly Saturday the talks by Admiral Byrd and others from the Little America expedition plane.

The L. L. Bridge Club met with Mrs. John Nobles Monday evening for their Christmas party. Mrs. Anne Childs received high score and Mrs. Edith Holmes second.

A tenant house owned by Harder and Bradley and occupied by their pumper, Frank Robbins and family near Allentown was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars by fire recently.

Dr. I. L. Howell, veterinarian of Dansville has opened an office at Belmont. Dr. Howell is a Cornell graduate and has been connected with the Dessen Veterinarian Hospital at Rochester for two years.

Shirley Hoover, ten years old, was hit by the Evening Tribune-Times truck near the high school building when she ran across the street in front of the car. The driver took the girl to the office of Dr. C. W. O'Donnell where she was treated for slight cuts and bruises.

Members of the Home Bureau were in Belmont Tuesday, where they put on the play, "The Crowned Glory," at the county meeting. Those going from here were Mrs. Walter Greene, Mrs. Wm. Lang, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burdick and daughter Loraine, and Mrs. Emmett Robinson.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. John McIntosh and her Sunday school class of boys were guests of Lynn Mattison at his home at Elm Valley in honor of his 16th birthday. The young people enjoyed games and a chicken pie supper. They all reported a good time and left many well wishes for their young friend.

Relatives in Andover received word of the death of A. T. Jones of Mr. Jewett, Pa., at the John Hopkins hospital at Baltimore, Md., Sunday. Mrs. Jones, niece of Mrs. Margaret Hallett and sister of Mrs. Victor Dailey and Mrs. John Cannon of this village died from injuries received in an auto accident five weeks ago.

Chase; lecturer, Mrs. Frances Chase; steward, John Coleman; gatekeeper, Dale Stebbins; assistant steward, Carlton Slocum; chaplain, Grace Davis; secretary, Mrs. M. S. Chase; treasurer, Ray Lewis; Flora, Marion Lewis; Pomona, Pearl Slocum; Cora, Susan Kelly; lady assistant steward, Alberta Hallett.

Andover Merchants Play St. Louis All Stars

Basketball fans are in for a real treat, when the St. Louis All Stars, a team composed entirely of women, meets the Andover Merchants on the local high school floor, Thursday, Dec. 20th.

In the preliminary the Merchants' second team clashes with Almond town team in a game that promises to be plenty fast.

The All Stars, which plays one game a night with men only, and wins most of them, too, are U. S. professional women's basketball champions.

The line-up for the Merchants will probably be Joyce and Brundage forwards; Stubbles, center and Church and Clarke guards.

Plans are being made to accommodate the largest crowd of basketball history in Andover.

Christmas Gifts

For Veterans

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion of Allegany county, at Thursday night's meeting at Alfred, brought together a considerable quantity of home-made candy and packages of cigarettes to be sent to the Bath home for disabled war veterans. Some of the boys at Bath have no relatives to remember them and this thoughtfulness will be appreciated there when Christmas Day arrives.
