Andover Entertains League Meeting

The sub-district meeting of the Dairymen's League was held Monday in the local Methodist church. Preceding the business meeting the ladies of the church served dinner to 242 league members and their families. At the business session the auditorium of the church was filled to capacity.

Wallace Francisco of Belmont, president of the sub-district Dairymen's League, presided at the meeting. Charles Robinson welcomed the delegation and the Rev. W. C. Pero, pastor of the M. E. church, also gave a brief address of welcome.

Roll call of the directors of the league and of the delegates was taken. Several humorous songs were sung by Charles Robinson, Mrs. Robinson accompanying him at the piano. Mr. Talbert of Otsego county was the principal speaker at the meeting.

Short talks were given by Fred Utter of Friendship, director, also by the president of the league of Potter county, Pa.

The next sub-district meeting will be held at Cuba, Jan. 27th.

Ladies' Aid Elects Officers

The Ladies' Aid Society of the S. D. Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. J. Harvey Backus on Main street for their annual business and social meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

Reports of officers and chairmen of committees were given. The election of officers for the coming year resulted for president, Mrs. Fred Stebbins; vice president, Mrs. J.
