The writer is probably best known our readers thru his Scatteringood ries in the American Magazine, s recently written a book entitled 'he Cat's Paw,' in which he reals the reflections of his leading racter thru quotation of Chinese overbs.
They seem to us so worthy of oughful consideration that we e going to pass some of them on you, here is a sample:
"He who has seen one grain of ce is wise as he who sees the op of a province."
More will appear in future issues r Baker's Hardware News. Watch r them.

love Tone

The new vogue in Kitchen Ware, being greatly admired by critical me keepers of the whole country; combines style and beauty with urdy durability.
No other color scheme equals dove ne, trimmed with its beautiful ntrasting color, it blends perfect- with all surroundings because ove tone itself is formed thru the irect neutral blending of all the olors of the spectrum.
Pride of possession is the first motion awakened by Dove Tone; hen a growing satisfaction as daily se proves its enduring quality.
By all means, ask us about this nest of new enamelware. See for ourself its beauty, excellence and est of all, its very moderate price.
Labeled by Atlantic is your guar-antee of its outstanding value.

Very So Often

The subject of toilet tissue is rought to our attention by the re- mark of users of Lion Brand, its outstanding quality and economy here compared with other brands.
Its excellence was brought to our attention more than 35 years ago und during all these years with a multitude of comparisons we are still idly convinced of its unmatched value.
We urge you to join the long list of its constant users.

Wall Paper Cleaner

Continued cold weather means forcing the fires, if you would be comfortable. Adding to the amount of smoke and dust that will fasten themselves on walls and ceilings.
As you look around the home you have perhaps decided that new wall paper will be required for the spring clean-up.
Many a room that appears faded and grimy may be restored by the use of good wall cleaner, and these cool days when you are not very busy is a good time to start the job.
Cleveland Cleaner will do wonders to dingy interiors without drudgery or muss. No rags, no sponges, no slop, and a can costing only a dime will work miracles on wall paper, window shades and smoked surface everywhere. Get a can today or the first time you come our way and beat the spring cleaning season by a full month.

Cel-O-Glass

Now sold under a five year guarantee, gives your poultry the benefits of ultra-violet rays, which ordinary glass soiled curtains and so called glass cloth bar out.
This new improved Cel-O-Glass has a tougher, heavier coating, it will not break like glass or tear like cloth—use it also for cold frames and for hot beds; saves labor, is more economical and will produce for you earlier and stronger plants.
Now is the correct time to get your pens and brooder houses ready for the spring shipment of young chickens.
You will find our prices on Cel-O-Glass as low as may be obtained from any source of supply. We buy to obtain lowest wholesale prices and pass this saving on to our customers, you will save on this item when you buy from us.

Bits of Blarney

Hope they're right, the old timers who think the intensely cold weather means an early spring.
If the Weather Man sent zero mornings he also sent a heavy sprinkling of sunny days since February began. Beats January—and we're not sorry.
Fillmore and Andover presented contrasts in last week's news. In the village first named a hotel keeper had to advertise to get back a wheelbarrow some one was seen taking from the rear of the premises. In Andover an honest boy advertised a sum of money he found, leaving it at a store where he picked it up. The wintery days are getting warmer—oh, yeah?—Friendship Register.
Farmers moving East? John Snyder of Arpin, Wis., has purchased the Hull farm on White Creek, near Belfast and taken possession, with his family to follow in the spring.
We never missed the water 'till the pipes froze up.
Even Alfred folks (noted for their Godliness and temperance—would there were more like 'em) were kept away from church and Sunday School February 10th by the intense cold. The same thing happened in several rural places over the county.
Almond High School Seniors believe in themselves—a worthy characteristic. Their motto is: "In ourselves Our Future Lies."

Bits of Allegany County News

Belmont has a four-year-old Airedale puppy which undoubtedly saved the life of its owner, Mrs. Kenneth Lyles Rice, during the recent severe cold weather. Bursting gas pipes filled the house with gas and the animal made several attempts to attract his mistress's attention. Finally he knocked a book from her hand as she lay reading. Both were seriously affected by the poisonous fumes before a plumber shut off the main.
Alfred entertains May 25th the first annual convention of the New York Ceramic Association.
Bolivar Boy Scouts began Monday collecting furniture, dishes, bedding and clothing for distribution to the needy families.
Angelica's Hose Company, No. 1, has established a fund for the purchase of new uniforms for its members.
Friendship's Chamber of Commerce has recommended to the town board the construction of bird feeding hoppers and shelters, improvement of two old cemeteries within the corporation, and the covering of an open ditch between the Congregational and Universalist churches, contingent on CWA employment continuing.
Angelica's Wilsonian High School basketball five has made an enviable record in the Class C division of the county league, winning ten games without a defeat. They play Steuben county leaders March 8th at the Alfred tournament, the winner to go to Rochester to compete for state honors.
Friendship's town board has named Fred L. Utter a justice of the peace to fill the vacancy made by the death of Henry A. Smith last October.
Fillmore sees newly painted box cars on the Pennsylvania railroad, indicating profitable business on that line.
Friendship, 40 years ago, had just voted down incorporation as a village and was preparing new boundaries moving to a second vote.
Hume Baptists have originated a type of contest that pulled out 100 persons to an evening service.
Fillmore friends start things early. They are already discussing plans for their annual Fourth of July celebration (held for years on zero days).
Wellsville Salvation Army workers have provided beds and meals at Army headquarters in the two years to Jan. 1, 1934, for 8,917 transient men. It cost $2,857.50. A move is on foot to provide a similar service at the expense of the public.
Cuba Presbyterian Men's Club plan a minstrel show for March 13.
Clarksville reports some quality potatoes bringing $1.00 per bushel.
Obi United Brethren and Clarksville Baptist Christian Endeavors are exchanging union services.
Cuba, 40 years ago, did not have an empty house of any description, and even rooms for rent were at a premium.
Whitesville folks are friendly. Forty of them surprised Editor Glen J. Robbins of The News one evening last week, bringing eats with them to his lonely bachelor quarters, and enjoying themselves until a late hour. The editor was indiscreet enough to tell a neighbor he had cleaned house. Probably the lady visitors wanted to see what kind of a job of house cleaning a man could do.
Belmont Boy Scouts, in a whirlwind campaign, gathered more than enough furniture, bedding, clothing, canned food, etc., to rehabilitate the Victor Peterson family whose home was completely destroyed by fire the morning of Feb. 9th.
The Odd Fellows are planning for another athletic smoker to be held in their hall next Tuesday evening after the regular session of the lodge. Several Odd Fellows from surrounding villages have been invited to attend this smoker and a fine card has been arranged.
Injuries from splinters cost one state a third of a million dollars in compensation last year.
