Il Value
When you employ help of any d you have a right to expect that service rendered will not only upensate you for its cost but pay a profit. If the transaction fails in this respect you have not had the th of your money, and would e been better off if you had not aged in the matter at all. Some years ago, in fact many of m, we appointed ourselves the dware purchasing agents for this imunity. Your kind co-operation liberal patronage thru the years amply confirmed this appoint-nt; we trust to our mutual benefi- your satisfaction.
as it not occurred to you that haps you might avail yourself of till greater gain by a more ex- ded use of our facilities for your vice.
A considerable portion of the cost the merchandise we carry for ur convenience are the fixed ex- es necessary to the housing, idling and protection of these ommodities; as we are now organ- id a considerable greater volume ld be distributed with little or no rease in what is termed this over- id expense, thereby reducing unit t which would result in lower ces and therefore a larger pur- suring power for your Hardware llar.
We hear much these days of idle rkers, idle factories, idle farms l idle dollars, the return to pros- ous days can only come thru ne system that will replace this le spread idleness with construc- e activity; let's all work together l by energy, co-operation and wise omomy work out the economic sal- ion of this community.

ozen Pipes
Unless you have them you are out the conversation; get some at ce, even if you have to leave win- we open.
We furnish pipe, fittings, solder, skings, and allow you free use of a bench, vice, and pipe-threading ls. Many small leaks may be re- red with Metal-X Liquid Solder. t a tube today.

BAKER BROS., Andover N. Y.

Elmer Coats is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis. A. L. Youmans was unable to work several days this week because of illness. Mrs. Vivian Sweet is assisting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Pro- per during the day. Regular meeting of Thomas M. Lynch, American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday, March 6th. One o'clock luncheon. Work is soon to start on a $45,- 000 high school building at Allen- town, the plans for which have been approved by the state. Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr gave them a surprise visit Tuesday evening and helped tie off a quilt for Mrs. George Carr. Because of the extreme cold weather, making it difficult to heat the building, there was no services Sunday at the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Denzel Baker entertained at bridge Friday evening, at her home on Dyke street. Prizes were won by Mrs. Archie Bloss and Mrs. Frank Holmes. Bethel Millsbaugh had her head cut badly when she collided with the stone abutments of the bridge on second street while skating on the creek Monday. The body of Mrs. Lillian Fiske Knox, whose death occurred at her home in Princeton, Ill., was taken to Belfast, her former home, for funeral and burial last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burgett and Mrs. Cora Baker entertained at a family dinner Tuesday evening, in honor of the second wedding anni- versary of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Reger. E. R. King and B. J. Brewer of Canaseraga have been appointed to the Western New York Advisory committee of the 15th National Flower and Garden Show, which will be held at Rochester, April 14 to 22. Mrs. Arling Baker and Mrs. Leo Snyder will entertain the afternoon division of the King's Daughters this Friday-afternoon at the home of Mrs. Baker at a 1:30 luncheon. The mystery basket banks will be opened at this time. The old hotel building in Troups- burg, recently destroyed by fire, re- moves an old landmark having been built 108 years ago. It had been used as a dwelling house for some time and was occupied by Eugene Youmans. The loss was estimated at $5,800. At the regular meeting of the Juvenile Grange Wednesday evening they held a program on the life and times of George Washington. Mrs. Dewey Northrup presented the Andover Juvenile Grange a silk pen- nant which was given her at Lake Placid by the State Grange as an award of merit for being on the honor roll of the National Grange.

H. H. Williams is confined to the house by illness this week. The New York Ceramic Associa- tion is scheduled to meet in Alfred May 25th. Mrs. Vivian Sweet is assisting in the care of Mrs. Byron Proper at their home on First street. Mrs. Denzel Baker entertained at cards Saturday evening. Honors were won by Mrs. Archie Bloss and Mrs. Frank Holmes. Comrade John Deming and Mrs. DeEtta Bullard of Pleasant avenue, who have both been ill with grippe are reported as improving. Mrs. George Carpenter of Pleas- ant avenue entertained the Contract Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon. High score was won by Mrs. W. F. O'Connell. An overheated boiler in the Black Creek cheese factory one morning last week, caused a slight fire which was extinguished with small damage to the building. The fire department was summon- ed to the home of Ralph Burgett on Dyke street where a chimney was burning out about noon Thursday. No damage was reported. The Bloss tenant house on Green- wood street, occupied by Wm Rogers was damaged by fire Saturday after- noon. The prompt response of the fire-men saved the building. Word has been received by And- over relatives of the improvement in the condition of A. A. Hinchey of Belmont, who has been quite ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Albert Sortore. Mrs. Benjamin Wallace is in Andover this week packing their household goods for removal to Belfast where Mr. Wallace purchased a barber shop some months ago and they plan to make their permanent home. The Epworth League of the M. E. church met with Miss Catherine Coryell at her home Saturday evening. A very enjoyable time was re- ported, the members playing games. There was also a musical program and delicious refreshments served. The Subordinate Grange held an interesting meeting Wednesday evening. A report of the recent meet- ing at Belfast was given by Clifford Burdick. The January and Febru- ary birthdays were celebrated with the customary decorated birthday cakes at the luncheon which fol- lowed the work of the evening. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh- ton Appley at Horse Run, near Bolivar, was destroyed by fire Feb. 22nd with most of the contents. Mr. Appley was burned about the head, neck and hands. It was believed the fire caught from wood placed in the oven of the cook stove to dry. The Philaetha Class of the M. E. church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bertha Pingrey for the first of the monthly gather- ings and social times. They did sewing at this time. Refreshments were served by the hostess to 14 and they also planned to meet regu- larly the last Tuesday in each month. Undertaker Frederick Mulholland was in Olean with his ambulance to bring the body of Forrest Baker, who died in Miami, Fla., to Wells- ville, where funeral services were held Friday at the Mulholland fune- rial parlors in Wellsville and burial in Woodlawn cemetery that vil- lage. Boy Scouts Enjoy Evening
Andover Boy Scouts, Troop 42, held a meeting Wednesday night at the High School building. The fea- ture of the evening was a basketball game between the fathers and the boys with the fathers winning. There were 20 scouts and six fathers in attendance. A feed was en- joyed after the work of the evening. Gave Party to Daughter
A clipping from a recent copy of the Baker (Mont.) News reads: "Mrs. R. Harland Robinson gave a party to a dozen little friends of their daughter, Meridith Lou, to which they all came trooping, bring- ing their pet dolls. Needless to say, they all had a very happy time." They also report lovely weather there all winter so far, with no se- vere cold. Breakfast bacon will be crisp and dry, if it is drained on brown paper or a paper napkin for a few min- utes after it is fried.

Old Allegany Heart Throbs

Whitesville is supplying logs now being trucked to Ellicottville to be made into shoe lasts for the Endicott-Johnson Company, Endicott. Bolivar reports an oil field work- er putting a blow torch to a new use. Holding the forced-air burner in one hand he used the blaze to warm the other cold fist. Rushtord, back in 1891, saw so few tramps that when one came to town The Spectator made a person- al of his visit. Friendship and Andover Boy Scouts have followed Bolivar's and Belmont's troops in gathering furniture, bedding, canned food, etc., for unfortunate families. Allegany county has four official weather stations where observations are made daily by volunteer work- ers: Alfred, Andover, Scio and An- gelica. Bolivar has 297 dogs, a recent census of canines shows. Richburg village is owed $3,882.- 03 unpaid taxes on 18 properties. Bolivar's unpaid amounts total $13,- 069.03. Richburg will conduct a tax sale March 14 and Bolivar on March 16. Little Genesee and Belmont have both booked a series of entertain- ments of the Chautauqua character for next fall thru a bureau in By- ron, Genesee county. Bolivar Central School, by book- ing two years ahead, has secured Dr. Bernard C. Clausen of Pittsburg, much in demand, as commencement speaker for the Class of 1934, which will graduate June 27. Clarksville reported snow from 18 inches to five feet deep on the level and in drifts from five to twelve feet deep at this time of year in 1894. Bolivar's weekly newspaper, The Breeze, brought the first gas engine into the Allegany field back in 1895, and 80 persons visited its office in one day to see it perform. It was of the Otto make. Allegany county women CWA workers have made more than 1,000 garments which are to be distributed by Welfare officers and the Red Cross. Belfast-Cananda Union Free School District No. 1, is to vote on March 1st, whether or not to ex- pend $30,000 for the erection of a gymnasium to be added to the present school building. If carried, pay- ment would be made in 20 annual installments. Alfred must be one healthy vil- lage. Only six deaths were officially recorded there in 1933 and but four in 1932. Almond's library basement im- provements and new heating system work on which was recently ap- proved by the state CWA, were be- gun last week. Alfred's Amandine Club is being addressed today (Thursday) by Dis- trict Attorney Ward M. Hopkins on "Crime and Law." Alfred Station has a newly organ- ized Women's Christian Temperance Union. Andover road improvements and highway widening, clearing creeks, etc., at an estimated cost of $4,400; and Belfast High School interior re- pairs and painting, estimated to cost $1,060, both CWA projects; were officially reported completed as of Feb. 15, 1934. Alfred's American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary are al- ready preparing to entertain the state Legion commander next spring. Cuba has just opened its first re- tail liquor store. Fillmore's cheese factory was mak- ing its product at $1.10 per hundred pounds back 52 years ago. At the same time eggs brought 80 cents per dozen at retail in New York City. Belmont's long-time librarian, Miss Ella Sortore, who died suddenly last December, has been succeeded by Mrs. Myrtle Evans. Miss Sortore had served since the formation of the organization backing the effort. Fillmore's Genesee County Hospi- tal contemplates an addition because of lack of room for present needs. Firemen will give one-half the pro- ceeds of their expected Fourth of July celebration to aid the cause.
