THE HI HERALD

Roby Buchanan lives at Sodom on the head of Cane Creek beyond Hawk. Sodom took its name from its evil doings of an earlier day.

The kinfolks from the valley will begin to come when they see the cars from Spruce Pine, and the truck packed with the younger sisters, cousins, and nieces rattle up the road.

Minerva, Roby's wife, has been up since daybreak. Perspiration stands in little beads on the upper lip above her wide, good-humored mouth, drawn into unaccustomed lines with today's responsibility.

The town cousins look like middle-class people anywhere on a holiday. The neighbors wear clean print dresses to help Minerva.

Pursuant to an order of Hon. Walter N. Renwick, Surrogate of the County of Allegany, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against the estate of Milla E. Pingrey...

Turning Back the Pages Of Andover History

TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE ANDOVER NEWS

Forty Years Ago MAY 30, 1894 Hamilton C. Norris, Editor Memorial Day Memorial Day exercises were carried out as planned by the G. A. R., although it rained all day.

By the actions of the weather man, every town in the county must have voted "wet" this spring. June 1st and no gardening done to brag about.

A fine ten-pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murray of Greenwood recently.

Roby rides down the valley with the departing guests to show them the new gem-cutting equipment at the mill. It is a small frame shack covered with tar paper, perched like a nest in the alder bushes.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Allegany Mutual Telephone Company will be held at City Hall, Andover, N. Y., June 1, 1934 at 2:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing directors for the next year and to transact all business that may properly come before the meeting.

This is to show, that we, Florence S. Earley and Mae Parker, both residents of the Village of Andover, N. Y., as surviving partners of the Henry Stephens Insurance Agency...
