Emergency Unemployment Relief

Serial Bonds of the

State of New York

Dated July 1st, 1934, and maturing

$3,000,000 annually July 1st, 1935 to 1944 inclusive

Principal and semi-annual interest January 1st and July 1st, payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the Bank of the Manhattan Company, 40 Wall St., New York City.

Exempt from all Federal and New York State Income Taxes.

Bidders for these bonds will be required to name the rate of interest which the bonds are to bear not exceeding four (4) per centum per annum. Such interest rates must be in multiples of one-fourth of one per centum and not more than a single rate of interest shall be named.
Bidders may condition their bids upon the award to them of all but no part of the entire $30,000,000 bonds and the highest bidder on the basis of "all or none" will be the one whose bid figures the lowest interest cost to the State after deducting the amount of premium bid if any.
No bids will be accepted for separate maturities or for less than par value of the bonds nor unless accompanied by a deposit of money or by a certified check or bank draft upon a solvent bank or trust company of the cities of Albany or New York, payable to the order of the "Comptroller of the State of New York" for at least two per cent of the par value of the bonds bid for. No interest will be allowed upon the good faith check of the successful bidder.
All proposals, together with the security deposits, must be sealed and endorsed "Proposal for bonds" and enclosed in a sealed envelope directed to the "Comptroller of the State of New York, Albany, N. Y."

The Comptroller reserves the right to reject any or all bids which are not in his opinion advantageous to the interest of the State.

Approving opinion of Honorable John J. Bennett, Jr., Attorney General of the State, as to the legality of these bonds and the regularity of their issue will be furnished the successful bidder upon delivery of the bonds to him.

If the Definitive Bonds of this issue can not be prepared and delivered at a time to suit the purchaser, the State reserves the right to deliver Interim Certificates pending preparation of the Definitive Bonds, and will have these Interim Certificates ready for delivery on July 2, 1934.

The net debt of the State of New York on June 15, 1934, amounted to $520,272,327.40 which is about 1.88 per cent of the total assessed valuation of the real and personal property of the State subject to taxation for State purposes.

Circulars descriptive of these bonds will be mailed upon application to
