EDITORIAL ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Beatrice Sly

Most of us are on that very long journey to the magnificent city of Success. In order to reach this city, we must have our suit cases packed with plenty of perseverance, honesty, ability, thrift and ambition. It will require very little money. We first travel along the highway of School. On this road we find many things which hold us back on our journey. The road is bumpy with many sharp curves. It takes us about 12 years to reach the City of Commencement which is located at the far end of this road. Upon reaching this city, we are encouraged by our accomplishment. Looking back on the road of School, we wonder just how it was ever done. Just outside the City of Commencement we come to two roads. The road to the left is to the City of Play and the one to the right is to the City of Work. We are greatly tempted by the straightness and smoothness of the Road to Play but some travelers who are passing by advise us to take the road to the right if we ever expect to reach the City of Success. We drive along very nicely for quite a while, making exceptionally good speed. After going about 100 miles, we come to a very steep hill. Upon seeing this, many of the travelers turn back to take the road to Play. But we, being highly supplied with perseverance, think we can make the hill without any trouble. However, it takes more than perseverance. It takes a great deal of honesty, ambition and ability to overcome the hardships found while climbing the hill. Reaching the top of the hill we look down to see the most beautiful sight ever seen. This is the great City of Success beyond the hill. Now we hurry as we have never hurried before, as we are more anxious than ever to reach the city. The City of Success is really more than we had imagined. Driving into the city, we noticed a crowd of people gathered. We rush over to find that the inhabitants of the City of Success are burying the world's greatest pest, Old Man Laziness, who has kept so many people from seeing this beautiful city. In spite of the fact that it is sad, we are greatly pleased to get rid of him. On further examination of the city, we see a huge monument in memory of the very prominent man, Work, who had very much to do with the establishment of the city.

MARKS
Philip Crandall

Marks are the scores which we make in our school work. Whether we pass or fail depends on the kind of work we do. So many are satisfied to skim thru, and squeeze by on a poor grade. Some, also not satisfied with their marks, are just too shiftless and lazy to study for the better mark. Pupils sometimes take the notion that they dislike the teachers and won't work for them. They cause all manner of disturbance and annoyance. These pupils are not doing anything but earning red marks for themselves. Make a resolution that you will raise every mark to at least 80. Get the good marks. You can do this by studying earnestly, listening intently and trying hard. Keep these red marks off your report card and raise your marks to a grade of which you can be proud.

GUESS WHO ? ?

This certain person that I am mentioning has brown hair combed back behind her ears. On Monday she wore a yellow dress with brown stripes in it. She belongs in the Junior Class and is quite often found with two other girls, better known as "The Three Musketeers." She is a good sport and well liked by everyone. She has been wearing glasses about two weeks.

Now you know who it is. Answer next week.
Answer to last week's Guess Who—Richard Appier.

EDITORIAL
Police Kemp: "You were going too fast—that's why I had to arrest you."
Don Brundage: "I wasn't going fast enough, or you would never have caught me."
Lester Regan: "My brother takes up French, Spanish, Scotch, English, Swedish, Hebrew and Latin."
Vic. Yannie: "My word, when does he study?"
L. Regan: "Study? He doesn't study. He runs an elevator."

TWO SPEAKERS AT ASSEMBLY

The second high school assembly of the year was held in the High School Auditorium, Friday morning, October 5th.

The central theme of the program was "Activities."

Howard Shinn of Wellsville, executive secretary of the Allegany County Y. M. C. A., spoke concerning the Hi-Y Clubs which are being organized in the various communities. These clubs give opportunity for older students to meet and discuss problems and express their own opinions freely. He stressed the point that, while play does hold an important place in club work, contact with important thoughts, people and things is to be desired.

The second speaker was Lou Burton, from Belmont, Junior project leader of the Allegany County Farm and Home Bureau. He talked on Junior projects in agriculture and home-making. He discussed the use and formation of the 4-H Club. One aim of the club is to assist young people to a more satisfying role in life and to show them the democratic value of good, improved methods of farming and home-making. The 4-H's—Head, Heart, Hands, Health must be appreciated and understood by all members.

Mr. Burton also emphasized the necessity of one's having a "job" or "project" either in the home or on the farm proper before the desired membership can be gained. Membership in the club brings participation in all the club activities including attendance at the county fairs and later representative attendance at the State Fair.

The conservation program is also sponsored by the club. Mr. Burton said that Allegany county has state and national leadership in that project.

At some later date, which will be announced by Mr. Bretch, both Mr. Shinn and Mr. Burton will return to Andover to meet with all people desiring to join any of these clubs.

The Junior High School girls' committee, consisting of Pearl Goodridge, Bernadine Briggs, Jean Northrup, Kaliopi Karacan, Bethel Millsbaugh, Merion Burgett, Mary I. Burns and Dolores Farwell sang a number entitled "May Had a Little Lamb."

Mr. Shinn played several selections on his xylophone, among them being "Wagon Wheels," and "The Man on the Flying Trapeze."

Laurencé Padden, football manager, announced that both Clarke and Brundage would be back in the game against Cuba and urged all who could to attend.

After the assembly group had sung several numbers, Mr. Shinn joined with the orchestra in playing "Our Director," as the student body returned to rooms to continue the work of the day.

NOTES FROM THE MUSIC ROOM

The majority of the people today like all types of music. It brings us moments of ecstasy, sometimes of doubt and despair.

Thru unity, harmony and rhythm we get flashes of beauty, wonder, majesty and power; in other words we are taught the beauty and meaning of life thru music.

An old saying is "Music hath charm to soothe the savage beast." Really music exalts one's life to a cultural plane and is an expression of the zest of life and a true art of living. The mightiest force in life is feeling and desire—to this music has much to give.

We do not look upon music in school as a task, a mask of gentility, but we look upon the music period as a time of real joy and genuine exultation, something thrilling and purposeful, no matter whether we may play an instrument or have the desire to sing.

Music acts as master of the socializing factor of the school and the community. Therefore, we need help in securing pupils who are interested and who are musically talented to take up instrumental work. This develops in each child an ego, a personality, a soul, making him capable of responsibility. He is also one of the best possible units of social wholly fit for society. What we need is fellowship.

One of the necessities in life is the use of leisure time. Music has developed thru these years, it has been put to an advantage in our children, in securing the wealth of material in music both vocal and instrumental.

There is no substitute for music in the program of an enlightened and cultured school community and nation. It is a fundamental part in our lives, the children's lives in clubs in civic organizations in society and in churches. Why not try to help our children to secure all of these good facilities—help them to become more acquainted with a music environment, sing lots and if interested allow them to take up instruments suitable to their physical make-up. Help to build the child's musical repertoire—help the school, the community and lastly to be on a higher plane for a cultural education.

CUBA DEFEATS ANDOVER 6-0

In the first home game of the season, played on the field Saturday, October 6th, Andover was defeated by Cuba 6-0. Cuba, entering the game as underdog, showed by a continuous fight that theirs was a winning team.

During the first period, Cuba recovered an Andover fumble, which resulted in the first and only touch-down. In the remainder of the first half both teams gained ground, but neither was able to score.

Both teams made many long runs during the second half, but no touch-downs resulted. Neither team threatened the goal until late in the fourth quarter, when Andover got within 30 yards of Cuba's goal. At this point Cuba intercepted a pass and held the ball the remaining time of the game.

The Cuba team was very much lighter than Andover, but they were wide-awake and played a smart game of football. The Andover team was slow and did not have a bit of snap. Altho John Cannon and Joe McAndrew played a good game, the loss of Decatur Clarke by an injury in the last half didn't help matters any.

The locals have taken their defeats well and are planning on a surprise showing against the heavy Canisteo team next week.

THE SPOTLIGHT !!

Here I am after a very busy week. There seems to be a great many social activities lately, but what has happened to all the weiner roasts. Well, for pity's sake! Cuba heat Andover, but that doesn't prove they're better. We won't give up the ship either because some of our best players were on the disabled list. We'll show everybody at the next game.

The Seniors certainly are pleased about the dance last Saturday night and why shouldn't they be? It was a swell affair.

The music was grand and as "Deko" Clark says, "I had a large time."

"Eddie" Alderson certainly enjoyed himself, especially during the last dance—Nice going Eddie.

Rita Burns looked down-hearted. I wonder if she missed someone? What's this I hear about the Hi Herald party? I must get some more details on that.

I understand that the school paper is going to elect associate editors soon. The Spotlight certainly will be down in the dumps if he isn't elected.

A. H. S. gets a little vacation this week. Aren't we lucky?

Well, so long till the Spotlight spots you.

—THE SPOTLIGHT.

SENIOR DANCE A SUCCESS

The Senior dance, held in the A. H. S. Auditorium on Saturday evening, October 6th, was a social and financial success.

The auditorium was decorated in autumn colors with branches of autumn leaves and red and yellow cheer streamers giving the desired effect.

Various people were heard to remark that the auditorium looked like a club house, with the wicker sets and bridge lamps.

Music was furnished by Jimmy Gray's five-piece orchestra. There was card playing for those who did not dance. The door prize, a box of Mary Lincoln candy, was won by Olive Withey of Yorks. The chaperones were Mrs. Thomas Regan, Miss Gretcher, Trenkle, Miss Annette Clifford and Mr. Bretch.

The dance netted the Seniors about nine dollars. The class is planning another dance around Halloween time.

The National Cooking School

It is good), and drop it over the top, bake in a hot oven 40 to 45 minutes—covering with paper if necessary. Or shape the dough (having it a little stiffer) in small biscuits and arrange these over the surface of the pie and bake in a hot oven. This requires less time.

Chicken and sauce may be heated before adding biscuit dough, to lessen time of cooking.

Broiled or Fried "Chicken"

Carve stewed fowl, dip in melted fat and broil till surface is crisp and brown. Or dip in fat and flour and pan-fry; or use flour, then egg and seasoned breadcrumbs, and fry in deep, hot fat.

Other Methods

Broiled Spring Chicken

Grease broiling iron and press split young chicken flat upon it. Brush skin with melted butter or bacon dripping and broil over or under direct heat.

Fried Spring Chicken

Cut young chicken in pieces for serving, roll in seasoned flour and brown in plenty of very hot fat in frying pan, turning to brown all surfaces evenly. Then pour in about ¼ cup boiling water, cover tightly, and cook slowly until tender—probably 30 to 40 minutes longer. Remove chicken to hot platter in oven and make a milk gravy in the pan. (See Lesson 1.)

Oven-Fried Chicken

Prepare the young chicken as for pan frying. Cut in baking dish, with plenty of bacon dripping or other fat, and cook about 45 minutes or until tender, in hot oven, 450 degrees F., turning frequently to brown evenly.

Or dip chicken pieces in melted fat, then in seasoned flour, spread on baking pan, bake in hot oven, 425 degrees F., until brown; turn, pour in ½ cup boiling water, cover, and finish at moderate heat, 350 degrees F.—probably ¼ to 1 hour total cooking.

FISH

In "Marketing and Meal Planning," you will learn the very important points about buying fish. Be sure you understand them:

I am just going to tell you very briefly, the most useful ways of cooking fish.

Broiled

Grease hot broiling rack. Brush with soft butter and season fish steaks or fresh fillets or small whole fish; broil same as meat.

Pan Fried

Season steaks, fresh fillets, or small whole fish, and fry in hot fat.

Deep Fried

Wipe pieces, dip in seasoned flour in diluted beaten egg and again in flour or in seasoned, sifted dry crumbs; lower into deep hot fat, 365 degrees F. (or hot enough to brown a little cube of bread in 60 seconds); cook to golden brown. Drain.

Oven Fried

Prepare as for frying, put in baking pan, dot with plenty of butter or bacon fat and cook in very hot oven; turn if necessary to brown evenly.

Boiled

Wrap cleaned and scaled fish in a piece of cheese-cloth—or still better in wet cooking parchment (for if you use this modern cooking paper, you can cook all your seasonings right into your fish—butter, lemon juice, pepper and salt). The parchment may be washed and used over and over again as it is very tough when wet. Wrap closely, set in the steamer and cook over boiling water, keeping tightly covered.

If boiling in cloth, add chopped onion, celery, and carrot to water; 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice (to increase whiteness and improve flavor), 1 tablespoon butter and ½ teaspoon pickling spice for each quart water, makes plain boiled fish very different. Serve with a good sauce (parsley, drawn butter, egg, from Lesson 1.)

Baked Fish

If possible, place fresh or salted fish on a rack or perforated tin sheet to keep off bottom of pan. Rub cleaned, scaled and washed fish well with flour and dot with bacon dripping or butter or sprinkle with cooking oil. Season well. Bake in moderate oven, 350 to 375 degrees F. Stuffing improves a whole baked fish.

Another Method

You may wrap fish, stuffed or unstuffed, with all its seasonings, closely in wet cooking parchment, set on rack in baking pan, pour in some boiling water, cover closely and bake in hot oven. The juices closed in the cooking parchment make delicious sauce.

STUFFINGS FOR MEAT, FISH FOWL

Breadcrumbs form the base for most stuffing mixtures; mashed potato is often used, and there are special stuffings such as sausage meat (used in turkey crop), mashed and seasoned cooked chestnuts, etc.

Breadcrumb Stuffings

There are two types of bread stuffings:

- The dry, crumbly stuffing—soft breadcrumbs with seasoning and a little softened fat (butter or lard dripping.)
- Same mixture as above, but moistened with beaten egg and a little milk, water or stock. This holds its shape—will slice nicely.
- Sliced bread covered with warm water and drained well when soft—then combined with seasonings melted fat, egg if desired.

Breadcrumb Foundation

2 cups crumbs 2 to 3 tbsp. fat 1 teaspoon salt 1 tbsp minced parsley ¼ tsp. pepper 1 to 2 tbsp onion 1 egg when used Milk or water as desired

Potato Foundation

Rice or mash required amount of potato (white or sweet). Beat light with beaten egg yolk, butter, a little hot milk and season—with just salt, pepper, parsley and lemon juice or with additions of onion with sage or savory or mixed herbs.

Special Stuffings

Chestnut

Cook chestnuts, and chop or mash them; combine in any up to equal quantities with breadcrumb stuffing. Wet with egg (diluted if desired).

Oyster

Combine raw oysters with breadcrumb stuffing, in anything up to equal quantity.

Giblet

Cook well-washed gizzard, heart, with neck and wing tips, until tender. Chop meat and add to breadcrumb stuffing.

Celery

Combine finely minced celery with breadcrumb stuffing.

Uses and Variations

Chicken (a) Use delicately seasoned breadcrumb foundation recipe—slight onion when desired. Where stronger flavors are preferred, a very little powdered sage or savory, or mixed poultry spice may be added.

(b) Use potato stuffing flavored with parsley and lemon juice.

Turkey—Use same as chicken, making twice or three times the quantity.

For the crop, at least, slightly beaten egg should wet the breadcrumb stuffing, so it will slice nicely. Or a different mixture may be used, such as sausage meat or mashed and seasoned cooked chestnuts bound with egg. Giblet, chestnut and oyster stuffings are excellent for turkey.

Goose, Duck, Pork, Pork Tenderloin

Use same stuffing as for chicken (in suitable quantity), adding 1 teaspoon powdered sage and more onion to foundation amount, for goose and duck, which are fat themselves, less melted fat may be used in stuffing.

Veal

Breadcrumb stuffing, seasoned as for chicken or goose.

Lamb

Breadcrumb stuffing, seasoned as for chicken, including a little onion; finely chopped mint good also.

Fish

Breadcrumb stuffing, with egg when possible—flavored with salt, pepper, parsley, lemon juice and perhaps a little chopped pickle and capers.
