Organizing More Collegiate Centers

The success of the Collegiate Centers under the supervision of Alfred University last year has led to the organization of several others this fall.

Jamestown has 73 students regis- tered, Medina 80, Salamanca, Olean and Genesee are now registering students. As soon as a place gets the required registration of 60 stu- dents it petitions the college and the necessary instructors are hired and classes organized.

The group at Bath will complete the second semester about the mid- dle of November and begin a new year with sophomore work.

Dr. James G. Stevens has been hired to act as supervisor of the collegiate centers, so as to relieve the administration officers of Alfred of the added responsibility.

Arthur Bullard Killed by Cars

Arthur C. Bullard came to a sud- den death Saturday when he was struck by a Pennsylvania train at New Brighton, Pa.

Mr. Bullard who was braking on the Pennsylvania, stepped from his train which was on the siding, to talk with men on top a car next to him and was struck by the steam chest of a locomotive coming on the next track, killing him almost in- stantly.

The remains were brought to And- over where funeral services were held in the Methodist church, bur- ial in Robinson cemetery.

Mrs. Catherine Clarke

Mrs. Catherine Crandall Clarke died at her home on Church street early Wednesday morning, from the effects of a shock suffered by her five weeks ago.

Mrs. Clarke, who had passed her entire life of 77 years in Andover, is survived by her husband, three sons, Edson, Clarence and Elsworth Clarke and one daughter, Miss Alice Clarke, all of Andover.

Funeral services will be held at the Seventh Day Baptist church this morning. Burial at Independence.
