IDEALISM

Marian Nobles

You can attain any heights towards which you urge yourself. A distinguished woman once said about her former classmates: "Some of the rich are poor, and some of the poor are rich. Some of the brightest died insane, and some of the dullest worked out high positions."

What you are lies with you. If you are lazy and accept your lot, you may live it. If you are willing to work, you may write your name anywhere you choose, among the people who write books, make exquisite music, carve statues, paint pictures and work for others.

We have all dreamed of things we would like to do. Keep those dreams in mind—work for them—and some day you will be living those dreams!

PHYSICAL TRAINING

John Regan

The scholastic year should not only develop the mind of a child but also its physical ability. During the Athenian and Spartan civilization, physical training was considered the most important step in the education of children. For a long period of years these two countries were the supreme rulers in the old world. This shows the success and value of their physical training.

The Health Department of the State of New York is more and more stressing the importance of physical training in schools. Andover High is the only school in Allegany county without regular classes in physical training.

Although sports aid in giving this important training, they effect only a very small measure of the benefits in high school. Let us all do our utmost to encourage the idea of physical training in our school and make it the pride of Andover High School.

ATTENDING THE DANCE

"Wasn't there a dandy crowd there? The music—wasn't it grand? The piece, 'Love in Bloom' that the orchestra played—wasn't it entrancing?"

These are the exclamations that should be heard after any dance sponsored by the school.

The first one should be heard the most number of times. Then the first thought should last. They most certainly had a good orchestra and music.

Supporting our school is a very important element in our school life. Our school is something of which we should want to help support.

If you have not yet had an opportunity to show your willingness to help in this respect, here is your chance. Come to the A. H. S. Athletic Association dance Saturday October 20th. Spread this news to your friends and let's see you all there.

IMPROVEMENTS

IN ANDOVER H. S.

The school building was improved in several ways during vacation last week. New blackboards were installed in the library and music room. Thus the library is available as a regular class room. A row of seats was removed from the center of the study hall, thereby dividing the study hall into two sections. This makes it much more convenient for both teachers and pupils.

A mail box was constructed in the office. The teachers will henceforth call at the office for their mail. The desks in all the eight grades were washed and some refinished. The pupils and teachers all appreciate these improvements.

SUPPOSE THEY SAY THEM, TOO?

- 1—"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling"—Gertrude Dean or Mary Greenan.
- 2—"Lazy Bones"—William Wahl.
- 3—"I'm Not Lazy I'm Just Dreaming"—Bill Woodruff.
- 4—"Freckle Face"—Joe McAndrew.
- 5—"Young and Beautiful"—Charlotte Cook.
- 6—"Brown Eyes"—Marion Swartz.
- 7—"Good Night, Little Girl of My Dreams"—Florence P. and Don L.
- 8—"The Old Man of the Mountain"—Brewster.
- 9—"The Man on the Flying Trapeze"—George Joyce.
- 10—"Smiles"—"Jo" Baker.
- 11—"How I'm Doing"—Bruce McGill.

ANDOVER vs. CANISTEO

Andover High School's football team will journey to Canisteo Saturday, Oct. 20th, to play the heavy Canisteo High School team.

Last year Andover beat Canisteo 20-0 and Canisteo will be out there fighting to repeat that victory this year. Coach McGee has shaken up the line and Andover will be in there fighting for its first victory of the season. Canisteo has a fairly good team and it should be a good game.

Everybody that can possibly attend this game should and help cheer the home team to victory. The starting line-up will probably be as follows:

- Left End—E. Kemp
- Left Tackle—D. Lynch
- Left Guard—R. Briggs
- Center—E. Alderson
- Right Guard—M. Briggs
- Right Tackle—E. Brewster
- Right End—J. McAndrew
- Quarterback—B. McGill
- Right Half—M. Sweet
- Left Half—A. Tuttle
- Fullback—D. Brundage.

HIGH SCHOOL HONOR ROLLS POSTED

The first honor rolls of the year have been posted in the high school home rooms, following the close of the first five weeks marking periods. First honors are awarded to pupils maintaining marks of 90% or above in three major subjects with none below 85%. The following pupils received first honors: Dorothy Nobles, Doris Honeger.

Second honors are awarded to any pupil with marks of 85% in three major subjects and none below 80. Second honors were won by Ruth Slocum, John Regan, Frank Weinbauer, Hilda Clarke, Orville Mester, Jean Millpaugh, Susan O'Donnell, Farnham Pope, Alan Tuttle, Donald Hordt, and Marion Swartz.

A H-S—
GUESS WHO???

If you want to be popular you should always be neat. A certain Sophomore boy with blond hair and blue eyes is what most people would call immaculate. His hair is always neatly combed and his face shining. The clothes he wears are what the school boys should wear. He has an excellent personality, and is well liked by all high school students. His grades are such that he makes show that he is industrious. His only fault is in the way he walks. As small as he is, it makes a great amount of noise.

Can you guess his name?
A-H-S—
THE BOY SCOUTS NEWS

The Andover Boy Scouts of America, Troop 42, met last Wednesday night in the Andover High School Auditorium and decided that they should try first aid tests. The rest of the evening was spent playing basketball. They seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

JUST A SONG

By Josephine Baker
"Please, Mother," said Emaline, "May I go to the neighbors' who are entertaining 'Six Women from Carolina'?" "Yes, 'Lovely One,' run a long, you do look 'So Nice.'"

"As long as I live," said Emaline, "I shall 'Love Thy Neighbor.'"

As Emaline walked on she saw two "Wagon Wheels," along the roadside "Around the Corner." She continued her walk and soon reached the "Neighbors."

Helen was "Waiting at the Gate for Katy," her sister. Helen said, "It's Twelve O'clock and all is well, but 'Lazybones' isn't here yet."

Emaline, turning about, said, "Stand up and Cheer," your sister Katy, is one of these "Easy Come, Easy Go." She is now in sight. You're "Too Far Away" for her to see you," said Helen.

"I must go in the house and see your company," said Emaline. As she walked into the house, no one noticed her. "Looking Over Somebody Else's Shoulder," she looked down at some photographs of the visitors. "My," said Emaline, "You Ought to be in Pictures," you are so clever, "Nancy Jane."

"Marion" was in the kitchen fixing "Frosted Chocolate."

As Emaline glanced up at "Grandfather's Clock," she thought it was time to be going. "Good-Bye, I'll See You in Church," "Tomorrow," she said.

The Andover High School Athletic Association promises a good time to all those who attend the dance to be held Saturday, October 20th in the High School gymnasium from 8 until 12 o'clock with music by Jimmy Gray's orchestra from Hornell.

The purpose of the dance is to raise money for the purchase of much needed equipment.

SENIORS HOLD WEINER ROAST

Last Tuesday evening the Seniors held a most enjoyable weiner roast at Lever's cabin at Midway. Although the weather was quite cool, everyone managed to keep warm, because a large fire was built in an outdoor fire place, over which the weiners were roasted.

After all the weiners had been consumed, the rest of the evening was spent in sitting around the fire singing songs. About 20 attended the roast and of the faculty, Miss Trenkle, Mr. Bretch, Mr. Host and Mr. McGee were present. They reported a good time.

PICTURES ARRIVE

The pictures taken of the school children arrived this week and were given out on approval Wednesday afternoon. There are two sizes, the large size, costing 25c and smaller size costing ten cents.

The pupils were anxious to see how they turned out. A remark was made in the eighth grade room that the girls' pictures would be on great demand for some reason or other.

Parents are urged to look at the pictures carefully, make their choice and then to enclose in the envelope any picture not wanted and the money to pay for the chosen.

AROUND THE A. H. S. WORLD

The first graders have been busy making Jack O' Lanterns for Halloween decorations.

The Fifth Grade has completed the Viking posters on which they have been working the last few days.

THE SPOTLIGHT !!

Well, here's your ole pal back with you with lots of news. The outstanding event of the week is the dance being put on by the Athletic Association Saturday night. I will expect to see all of you there. However, don't do anything too conspicuous because I'll be right there with my eyes and ears wide open.

The Hi Herald staff are also going to have a bit of recreation. They are having a party next Wednesday night. As I will be at this party I'll sure have a cheerful little earful for you next week.

The football squad all journey over to Canisteo Saturday. Here's hoping all the regulars are able to play so as to bring Andover the victory. That's another place I will expect to see you—not so much to see you but to hear you over there cheering for the boys.

The Freshman girls of this year are so restless—that is—in the sixth period study hall they are. They can't seem to stay in one seat any length of time. I ask you—is this restlessness or is it because they are so noisy?

Poor John Cannon—I sure felt sorry for him the other day when he tried every possible way to comb his hair but couldn't make it lie down. Speaking of John, you know it is funny to see John proving all of his geometry problems by construction.

Some of the high school girls ventured up to watch the town team practice Monday night. I wonder—was it the interest in basketball or in the players? I'll let you decide that for yourself.

Did you know that "Eddie" Alderson and "Eddie" Brewster are the champion zigglers in Commercial Law class? I think they should hold a contest. "Gertie" Dean wouldn't have a chance at all.

By the way, did you notice that the committee in charge of the athletic dance were all girls?

So it is true that "Dekel" (Clarke) is interested in a blonde Sophomore girl? It's a great thing to have a car, "Dekel," 'cause walking up hill would be tough on that weak ankle!

Well, the pictures are here. Have you seen mine?

THE SPOTLIGHT.

MUSIC NOTES

Have you seen the bulletin board in the Music Room? If you haven't it might be a good idea to take a trip down there and look it over. At present you will find literature on the series of music concerts held at Eastman School of Music at Rochester and at Houghton College. From time to time you will find pictures and notes about noted musicians.

If you don't have classes that take you to the Music Room during the course of the day, make it your business to go anyway, and increase your musical knowledge.

The National Cooking School

halve, boil, scoop out and fill with savory stuffing—with cheese, meat or nut meats for added food value and deliciousness.

Paranips—Scrub well and peel after boiling in salted water. Slice or cut in dice or strips. Serve with butter or suitable sauce. Cooked paranips can be baked in white or cheese sauce, in moderate oven for about 20 minutes.

Glazed Paranips—See Glazing instructions.

Boiled Paranips, halved or quartered, can be dipped in batter and deep fried; or cut in slices lengthwise and pan-fried in bacon fat; or placed in fat around roast in oven until well browned.

Peas—After boiling peas until tender, drain, add butter or cream, salt, pepper, a little sugar and a few leaves of crushed mint.

Pea Souffle is a favorite. Follow Souffle instructions.

Pea Timbales—good for vegetable or for main course. To each cup cooked mashed peas, seasoned with salt, pepper and scraped onion, add 1 cup milk with 1 beaten egg and 1/2 cup fine crumbs. Turn into small buttered molds, set in pan containing boiling water and cook in moderate oven until firm in center. Turn out to serve. A cream of cheese sauce may be served with them.

Peppers—When fried green pepper is used to give flavor to any dish, chop it and fry in butter over mild flame.

Stuffed Baked Peppers—cut off top, remove seeds, pack with filling. See "Baked Vegetable" instructions. (Peppers may be parboiled first.)

Potatoes—Well-scrubbed potatoes, boiled in their skins or baked, contain most minerals. If standing after they are peeled, keep covered with cold water. Cook in boiling salted water.

Franconia Potatoes—Commonly called "Browned," are parboiled first, then finished around a roast, browning in the pan fat; baste and turn, so they will have a savory, brown, crusty surface. Season.

French Fried Potatoes—Cut in sections like an orange, soak an hour in cold water, dry thoroughly and drop a few pieces at a time into deep hot fat, 375 F. Drain well, sprinkle with salt and keep very hot in oven.

Lyonnaise Potatoes—For each cupful of diced cooked potato, melt one tablespoon butter in frying pan, cook one tablespoon chopped onion until tender, then add potatoes and cook until brown.

Riced Potatoes—Very light and convenient. Press boiled or steamed potatoes thru ricer and keep very hot in oven. Top may be browned; or grated cheese spread over top and browned.

Mashed potatoes will never have lumps if riced first; add a little hot cream or milk and butter, season and whip light with a fork or wire spoon-beater.

Potato Cakes—Season mashed potatoes well, adding scraped onion, minced parsley, etc., moisten with well-beaten egg (one-half egg to cupful), form in flat cakes and pan-fry.

Croquettes with potato base—just add any meat or fish (finely chopped or shredded) to potato cake mixture, chill well, shape in balls or cakes, coat with egg and crumbs, and pan-fry or cook in deep hot fat, 390 F., to rich brown.

Salafy—Discolors quickly when peeled or cut, so must be dropped into acidulated water—I teaspoon lemon juice or vinegar to one cup cold water. Cook and serve like parsnips.

Spinach—Soak in laundry tub or big container of water, then lift out gently so grit will settle at bottom. Repeat in several waters. Finally wash leaves in hot water. Drain. Cook until tender with only moisture that clings to leaves—don't overcook. Chop and season with salt, pepper and butter, or season without chopping. Excellent to cook tied up with seasoning, in wet parchment, to cook in own juices when dropped into boiling water.

Spinach is good in Souffles or Timbales—Prepare same as peas. Can be creamed or served with cheese sauce or baked in sauce.

Squash—Can be steamed, boiled or baked—See General Instructions.

Tomatoes—To peel them, scald a few moments in boiling water, then flush with cold water; or rub all over with blunt side of knife before peeling, to loosen skin.

Good baked (unpeeled), whether plain or stuffed—See Baked Vegetables.

Firm sliced tomatoes may be broiled or pan-fried—sprinkle first with seasoned flour.

Turnips—A strong flavored vegetable. Peel, slice or dice and cook in large amount of boiling salted water; or season and tie up in cooking parchment, to prevent odors. Mash cooked turnips and season with salt, pepper and butter.

PASSION PLAY TO BE IN WELLSVILLE

An unusual opportunity will be presented to the residents of this vicinity when the great European Passion Play will be given on the stage of the high school auditorium in Wellsville this Sunday and Monday, under the sponsorship of the Wellsville Rotary Club.

This company came to the United States in 1928 to open the great "Krug" Bowl in St. Joseph's, Missouri, and that week played to over 107,000 people. Through the enthusiastic acceptance of the audiences that week, the company was invited by communities throughout the land to present this famed play in their communities.

The play opens with the exemplification of the triumphal entry of the Saviour in Jerusalem and the complete acceptance of the people of the streets. This is truly one of the most colorful scenes of the play. The plays runs for 22 scenes, including the "Last Supper" scene that brings to life on the stage the famous painting of De Vinci as the Master portrays his deep love and affection for his disciples when they gather around him for his last communion. Then follow the Crucifixion and Resurrection scenes, which climax the play and will bring a new conception of this age old story to the people of this section.

The play, taken from the Frieburg script, the oldest of Passion Plays, written in the entirety, the events of the Lord and Saviour's last seven days on earth, and those who will have the privilege of witnessing this drama will have portrayed before them the most dramatic and spectacular play to ever be presented on the legitimate stage.

A cast of 150 appear in the play, augmented by a vocal chorus of 150 voices selected from various choirs of this section.

Tickets are now on sale and those wishing reservations may write for them to Passion Play Headquarters, 105 N. Main street, Wellsville. There will be three performances, the first a matinee to be given Sunday afternoon with a special admission price for students. Regular performances are scheduled for Sunday and Monday evenings.
