Community Service Notes

"The Old Rugged Cross" Wins

George Bennard's hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," popularized by Homer Rodeheaver, tallied the highest number of votes in the Favorite Hymn Poll taken at the community services in the Seventh Day Baptist church last Sunday evening. It won nine votes above its nearest competitor, which was "In the Garden," another popular old favorite. These 30 hymns that were voted for will be used in the "Old Hymn Night" service at the Presbyterian church this coming Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. There will be instrumental as well as vocal music in special numbers and the congregation will be asked to join in the singing of their "old favorites." Everyone is welcome. The program is as follows: "Old Hymn Night" Order of Service

Rev. Dronsfield presiding
Prelude by the orchestra
Call to Worship:

Hymn: "My Faith Looks Up to Thee"
Responsive Reading

Hymn: "He Leadeth Me"
Scripture, the Twenty-fourth Psalm.

Fifteen Years as "Hello" Girl

Mrs. Harry Joyce has completed 15 years service for the Andover Telephone company as night operator.

In all these years we have heard no words other than praise for the efficient service she has rendered. The News compliments Mrs. Joyce upon her record.

Change of Firm

Announcement will be found in another column of this issue of the News, of the change in the firm of Henry Stephens Insurance Agency. Archie L. Bloss has purchased the interest of Mrs. R. A. Parker in the company, and with Mrs. Florence Earley hereafter will conduct the business under the same name as heretofore.

Clarke — Gregory

Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Helen Kathryn Clarke of Binghamton and Glenn A. Gregory of Skaneateles, N. Y., Saturday, Jan. 18, 1936, at 5:30 in the West Presbyterian church in Binghamton. Both bride and groom were former students at Alfred University.

The bride is a niece of Miss Alice Clarke of Church street and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clarke of Andover.

Week of Prayer Closes

Last Sunday night, as a closing number to the Week of Prayer which has been observed by four cottage prayer meetings, held each night in different locations in the village, a union service was held at the Seventh Day Baptist church. Dean F. W. Wright of Houghton College gave a masterly address with music furnished by a quartet from the musical department of the college. The service was enjoyed by a large attendance and with the cottage prayer meetings held, completed a fine program arranged by the pastors of the four Protestant churches for the week of prayer.
