Baker's Hardware News

"Doctor, I cannot sleep nights."
"Hum! Insomnia?"
"No, not exactly. My husband is a ventriloquist and holds conversations with himself all night long."

Horse Blankets

Are necessary articles during the winter months. We have a few Blankets which we are closing out at a great saving to you. Get yours while they last.

LePage's Glue

If the metal tips come off your shoe strings, dip the laces into LePage's Glue. This will stiffen the ends and make them easy to put thru the eyelets. And remember, LePage's sticks anything to last! It does any sticking job right—Ask for LePage's Glue.

Baskets

Just the right kind of a basket for the morning shopping! This assortment comes in a variety of styles and sizes, are hand-woven oak with drop handles, are well made and are sturdy and will give years of service. Priced from 50c for a small market basket to $1.75 for the larger clothes basket.

Lanterns

Have you a good lantern from which there is no danger of setting the buildings on fire? Look them over—it is better to be safe than to be sorry.

Three cases of scarlet fever were reported at Black Creek last week.

Mrs. S. P. Boothe of Wellsville is suffering from a fractured shoulder blade received in a fall Sunday.
