EDITORIAL SPRING

Spring, with its changeable weather, is upon us. This is the season of the year we appreciate the most, because we are glad that Old Man Winter has left us; although during the first month of spring we are not certain whether the following day will be like spring or winter. This does not bother us in the least for we know that such fickleness cannot last forever.

Spring is the time we like to run or chase somebody around. We often run across lawns where the grass has started to grow nicely and leave our tracks indented in the soft earth—we are not conscious at the time that this is doing any damage, but if it is kept up the lawn would soon be nothing but a bare spot of ground with no grass to cover it. We should take this into consideration and stay on the sidewalks and protect other people's property as well as our own.

Spring is the last season of the school year and it is the time to spend most of our time in getting ready for the final exams. We have often heard pupils say "Today is too pleasant to stay in school and study so I guess I will stay out and enjoy myself."

Staying out of school for a few days at this time of year will make it very hard for us to catch up with the rest of the class. It will pay in the long run to enjoy the spring weather outside of school hours.

EDITORIAL THE EXCUSED LIST

The saying "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is certainly true today.

Here is a hint to the wise—Don't study all the time! Play is good for you, especially if it is outdoor play. That is why we have the gymnasium, basketball, baseball and other means of recreation in school.

Of course too much exercise will make you sleepy, and ready to drop. Just the right amount gets you pepped up so that you are ready and "rearing to go."

Since the inter-class schedule has begun, the excused list has become longer for every room. Now that the interclass games are almost over, baseball is the attraction. All of which goes to show that physical and mental exercise do go together.

Work hard, students, there are hopes for all of you to get out on the excused list.

FAMOUS SAYINGS BY FACULTY MEMBERS

Mr. Host: "Settle down."
Miss Day: "The five minute bell has rung."
Miss Trenkle: "Two minutes are up. Stop your talking."
Mr. McGee: "All right, get quiet."
Miss O'Connell: "All right, you turn around."
Miss Marsh: "Girls, be quiet."
Mrs. VanOxx: "Let's stop our talking."

One might think we held miniature Congress meetings in A. H. S., from the amount of talking done. Who knows "we may develop one great talker yet. Or we might take heed of the maxim, "Read much! Think more! Talk less!"

TO HAVE VACATION

The Andover high school Easter vacation began Wednesday noon, April 8th, and the students will be expected to return to school on Monday morning, April 20, all "pepped up" and ready for the final sprint of a successful year it is to be hoped.

GRADE OPERETTA PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

The grade operetta, "At the Rainbow's Edge," which is to be presented April 28th, under the direction of Miss Leona Marsh, is progressing very rapidly. The graders are taking quite an interest in it and are working faithfully.

Miss June Babcock will play the piano accompaniment for the delightful little songs which the children sing.

LETTERS AWARDED TO BASKETBALL SQUADS

Letters were awarded during the assembly program Friday morning, April 3rd to both the girls and boys on the basketball squads by Coach William McGee. Those who received letters because they had played in a certain number of games during the season were:

Jessamine Briggs, Roberta Church, Beatrice Sly, Beatrice Kruger, Ida Howland, Fotiney Karcane, Charlotte Cook, Mary Greenan, Mary Burns, Helen Dean, Marion Swarts, Donald Lynch, Edwin Alderson, John Cannon, Bruce McGill, Edwin Kemp, Leo Fulkerson, Raymond Briggs and Regina Lynch and Philip Lynch, who were managers of the two teams.

Also honorable mention was given those who did not receive letters but who had, during the season, shown much improvement and who were to be the foundation for good basketball teams in the future.

Appearing for the first time on the assembly program, the Girls' Glee Club sang "In a Gondola," and "Carita, Fair One."

A few announcements were made by Principal Glenn E. Bretsch. He particularly stressed the care of the school lawn during the next few weeks by the A. H. S. students that they might be proud of the appearance of their school grounds.

"HOW'M I DOIN'?"

The editor thought that the following suggestions taken from "Common-Sense Conduct and Fundamental Manners for High School Pupils," by J. C. Wright, home room director, Senior High School, Keokuk, Iowa, would prove very profitable to the student body of the Andover High School:

School Loyalty

If your high school is to become even greater and better, her school citizens must be loyal, devoted and faithful, in every relation of school life; full of courage and regardful of honor. To be a good school citizen you should be able to carry out the following pledge: "I will obey and help other pupils to obey those rules which further the good of all."

Such rules include proper conduct in the halls, assembly, classrooms and lunchrooms; respect for superiors, classmates and building, as well as self; faithful daily preparation of lessons; observance of the best possible speech; a sportsmanlike attitude at all times, and the development of other valuable citizenship traits.

Class Spirit and School Spirit
In order to be very successful, a school must run harmoniously. There must be unity of spirit, good teamwork and co-operation among the classes. The welfare of the entire student body is of the greatest concern, not the welfare of any particular class.

Make your class the best that has ever graduated from your high school, but above all, make your high school the best school from which you could be graduated.

E. M. MORECOCK TALKS TO SENIOR CLASS
Mr. E. M. Morecock, co-ordinator of the Rochester Athenaeum and Mechanics Institute, Rochester, N. Y., talked to the members of the Senior Class Tuesday morning, April 7. He told them what the institute had to offer and left cards for those who were interested in obtaining booklets concerning the courses.

BASKETBALL SQUADS HAVE PARTY

The girls' and boys' basketball squads held a party in the high school gymnasium Friday, April 3, celebrating the end of a very successful basketball season.

A highly entertaining evening was passed in playing games of ping-pong and shuffleboard and dancing. The way the dancing was carried on added to its enjoyment. There were "tag dances" with both boys and girls "tagging." There were also "Leap Year dances" for which the girls asked the boys.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

JUNIORS STILL AHEAD

The members of the Junior class are still ahead of the other classes in interclass activities. The scores are as follows:

Juniors, 44; Freshmen, 39; Seniors, 29; Sophomores, 27; Seventh Grade and Faculty, 26; Eighth and Post Graduates, 9.

It would seem that the Eighth Graders and Post Graduates need to "perk up" a bit.

FIRST GRADERS HAVE ASSEMBLY

The grade assembly last Friday was presented by the first grade. The main themes stressed were the general signs of spring and Easter greeting to the assembly from the first grade. The program was as follows:

Songs by the class, "There Was a Kitty" and "Three Little Puppies." Recitation by Wayne Sherwood, "There Was a Little Turtle." Class dramatization, "Six Little Pigs."

Piano solo by Audrey Baker, "Tripping Along." Vocal solos, by Jimmy Burgett, "Red Sails in the Sunset" and "The Music Goes Round and Round." Recitation by Kenneth Shimwell, "Mary Muddling."

Signs of Spring—A pantomime with children playing marbles, skipping rope, and bouncing balls. The children participating in this were James Gavin, Gerald Goodridge, Ernest Claire, Donald Greenan, James Hyland, Patsy Ludden, Dorothy Ellen Mead, James Smith and James Hyland.

Easter Greetings, presented by James Smith, Dorothy Ordway, Devere Stearns, Ina Cooper, Ernest Claire, Audrey Baker, Harold Dodge, Althea Hoagland, James Gavin, Dorothy Ellen Mead, Gerald Goodridge, Joan Baker, Earl Richardson, Patricia O'Hargan and Donald Greenan. Final number by the entire class, "Goosey Goosey Gander."

Also the entire program was presented by the first grade, there was such a popular demand for Jimmy Burgett on the program that he was put on by popular vote. At this time, the first grade class wish to thank him for appearing on the program.

JUNIORS TRY OUT FOR PLAY

Members of the Junior class have been trying out for parts in the Junior play, "The Arrival of Kitty." As yet the cast has not been decided on, but will be chosen before the Easter vacation, and the rehearsals will begin the Saturday before school reopens.

This play is to be directed by the English instructor, Miss Mary Louise Day.

GRADE BRIEFS

Easter Party

The Eighth Graders celebrated Easter Wednesday, April 8th, by having an Easter party in their home room at 11:15. An Easter hunt and games were played and ice cream and cake were served.

Eighth Grade Elect Officers for Oral English Club
The Eighth Grade elected Tuesday as officers of the Oral English Club the following:
President, Carol Walton.
Vice president, Lawrence Dean.
Secretary and Treasurer, Robert Perry.

SENIOR INTERVIEWS

What is your name?—June A. Babcock.

Where were you born?—Wellsville, New York.

What is your favorite sport?—Basketball.

What is your favorite recreation?—Listening to story telling.

What subject do you like best?—Science.

What books do you like best?—Adventure.

What subject do you dislike most?—Languages.

What do you intend to do when you finish school?—Undecided.

What is your ambition in life?—To travel.

The Senior class will have to hang on to June tight or they are apt to lose her. You can guess what I mean. She even has a ring on, but not a diamond.

June is very studious and obtained high marks. She is a friend of all. Her main interest is in her relatives and ancestors, which makes an interesting subject to discuss.

Maybe, some day, her ambition to travel will be realized. We all hope so.

GUESS WHO?

This time it's a Senior. He has black, straight hair and dark eyes. He is tall and rather thin. He is a member of the boys' basketball squad. This boy has a pleasing personality and is a friend of many. One of his outstanding habits is being tardy to school. Who is it? Well, that's up to you.

Answer to last week's Guess Who—Maxine Davis.

!! The Spotlight !!

"Tag!"—the Spotlight's been doing some "tagging" too, and is back again to relate to you the things that have been going on among the "students."

The basketball party which was held last Friday evening could have been named "the Leap Year dance," for I noticed that the girls did most of the cutting in on the dancing partners and asked the boys to dance with them. The two teachers, who kept their eyes on the group, were among the most popular!

Fotiney does enjoy this tagging business! We wonder why! It was quite a bone of contention between Fotiney and Inez, who would dance with the coach!!!

Jo Butler and Eddie Kemp were in high spirits, altho Cleon didn't approve of it, did you Cleon? Where was Rita Dean?

Ida Mae wouldn't let anyone get a look at John. She sure kept her thumb on him and he seemed to like it.

I was somewhat taken by surprise at the party. Near the end, refreshments were served and this was the first time that I saw a group of young people who would not and could not eat any more ice cream. I did notice that a few of the younger ones were talked into finishing the remainder of the cream.

I hear Elbert Cable went to a party the other night. I needn't ask if he had a good time.

Did you notice all of the St. Bonaventure students around last weekend? Why were they here. Ask Rita Dean.

Oh, I almost forgot. Did you notice the diamond that Dot Nobles was wearing?—Maybe it has something to do with her deciding not to go away to school.

I was listening to orchestra rehearsal the other day and I discovered a brand new "note" being played by "Vic." This note will have to be written on the scale so that Vic will have something to play.

We are certainly glad to see Jo Butler after the long weeks of scarlet fever. We surely missed her. I think Ray did, too!

The Juniors are being tried out for parts in the Junior Play. They say the cast will be announced next week. So be on the look out for "The Arrival of Kitty," and

THE SPOTLIGHT.

A LETTER FROM JOSEPH PALOOKA

Dear students of Andover Hi School:

Well, I read your paper, "The Hi Herald" every week. Youse do not know how much me enjoys it.

I expect t' come t' the Juneer play next Mae 28th!! I appereated the Seneer playe, althou I didn't seen it, but me good fren Annie Howwe saw'd it. She sed it was too good.

I jes thout I wud right a letter an tell youse all me goode attitud towards youse all,

sincerlie yourz
Joseph Palooka

There are now more than 2,000,000,000 human beings on the earth.

Nearly one per cent of the population of the United States are morons.

Four dust coated paintings, being carried to a rubbish heap at Honolulu, were found to have values of $800 to $1,000 each.

IF I WERE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT IN A. H. S.

The first law that I would pass would be the Prohibition law (P. T. in H.) which is to prohibit talking in hall, especially around the fountain. This would make Bernice Cooper and Kenneth Vars stop talking about their elders.

I think that A. A. S. S. should be stopped. I'm sure that Marcus Brutus and G. J. Dolan, Esq., would appreciate this.

One amendment to the Constitution would be sure to be added. That Congress (assembly) should meet at least once a week and just before election (tests) at least two a week.

As an afterthought, there should be an especially large room with an N. T. A. (no teachers allowed) sign on the door.

The N. L. L. (no long lessons) act should be put into greater force.

In case you have not been reading the newspaper, this act is to prohibit the political leaders (teachers) from giving lessons that we have to spend more than one study period on.

The Library of Congress should only be used for reference work, not for looking at the Freshman girls.

There should be no political parties started in this school, which would hurt anyone's feelings.

I would have the treasury take out enough money to build a swimming pool on the athletic field which would hold either Louis Dodge or Edna Honegger. This would have to be about 500 square feet and seven feet deep. The water would only be three feet deep, to allow for an overflow.

The R. F. A. (the room furnishing act) I would have passed. In this a provision would be made for beds in Room C, for Don Oakes, Gerald Dolan, Louis Dodge, Mack McDonough and Lyle Nye, that they might sleep more comfortably.

But I'm not the president and won't be. "Oh, woe is me!"

BOE ZECKELY COLUMN

Dear Boe:

I am a pretty, popular and precise Junior. I have nice clothes and plenty of friends. However, I have too many admirers for my own good. To work after school, do my homework and keep two or three dates every night keeps me busy.

I find I am neglecting one out of these three duties most of the time. As I know you have helped so many of the pupils of the high school out of serious troubles, I hope that you can find a solution for mine. Have I got to find a double or must I give up one of these troublesome things?

Sincerely, "Weary R."

I agree with you that this is a serious problem. A double would be a good solution, but as they are hard to find, I would suggest cutting down to one date a night, and I think you will be surprised at the amount of extra time you will have. Don't get discouraged, as I am sure your fond admirers will understand you are only a school girl who needs more sleep.

Yours, BOE.

P. S.—Advice for the asking.

Coliseum Features Joe Haymes Orchestra

As a special Easter dance offering, the Coliseum ballroom at Ceres, N. Y., presents one of the original founders of the new and popular "swing" music, Joe Haymes, with his orchestra of 15 famous swing artists and entertainers. This attraction appears at the Coliseum on Easter Sunday, April 12th with a special dance and entertainment program from 9 to 2.

Joe Haymes is well known to local music lovers, having previously been featured at the Coliseum. The orchestra has also been a consistent major feature over the Columbia broadcasting network.

This engagement at the Coliseum, ushering in the spring season of Coliseum name band presentations, will be an assured success from all standpoints.
