"Mistah," he said to the joker, "is you a doctah?"

"Nope."

"Well, then, kin yo' tell me whar I kin fin' me a doctah right away?"

"What do you want with a doctor?"

"I'm sick."

"How sick?"

"Powerful sick."

"Do you know what's the matter with you?"

"Suttin'ly I knows whut's de matter with me—mah gall's busted!"

An Irishman was seated in a train beside a pompous individual, who was accompanied by a dog.

Irishman: "Foine dog ye have. What kind is it?"

Man: "A cross between an Irishman and an ape."

Irishman: "Sure, an' it's related to both of us."

He Had a Girl

A small town boasts a female preacher. One day when working in her study she heard a timid knock at the door. Answering the summons she found a bashful young German on the step who stood twirling his straw hat in his hands.

"Good afternoon," the preacheress remarked. "What do you wish?"

"Dee say dee minister lived in dis house, hey?"

"Yes, sir."

"Yess? Well, I want me to kin merriest."

"All right; I can marry you," she said.

The lady's hair is beginning to silver and the German glanced at it. Then, without comment, he jammed his hat on his head and hurried down the walk.

"Will you be back?" she called after him.

"You gits no chance mit me," he answered. "I don't want you; I haf got me a girl already."

Both the photographer and the mother had failed to make the restless little four-year-old sit still long enough to have his picture taken. Finally the photographer suggested that "the little darling" might be quiet if his mother would leave the room for a few minutes. During her absence the picture was successfully taken. On the way home the mother asked:

"What did the nice man say to make mother's little darling sit still?"

"He thed, 'You thit thtill, you little brat, or I'll knock your block off' tho I that thtill."
