W. R. C. May birthday party held Monday afternoon at Lehigh Hall. Mrs. Frank Davis was honor guest and Mrs. Trowbridge and Mrs. Burbank hostesses. The party was held at the Herdman place, miles south of Angelica, was held Tuesday night. It is believed the building was struck by lightning.

About 25 relatives and friends of Harriett Lee of Tip Top called to leave greetings and cards in celebration of her 82nd birthday. She was also presented a birthday cake by a neighbor.

Rebekah Three Link Club held a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Edge on Main street. Twenty members were reported present, an excellent luncheon and pleasant social afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Davis arrived from Plainfield, N. J., Monday, having come up from Florida by boat. They visited their sons, Dr. Stanton H. Davis and B. Colwell Davis, Jr., and arrived in Alfred before Decoration Day.—Alfred Sun.

It will be highly pleasing to Allegany county taxpayers to learn that the county's outlays for home relief was less than $2,600 less than it was last March. There are nearly 500 on the relief rolls than for the month previous. This is from a report from Dr. I. G. Howe, home relief commissioner.

Mrs. George Demston of Clarksville fractured her arm near the shoulder in a recent fall.

Friendship has already started a series of band concerts, given by their high school band. The series will extend thru the summer months. Miss Inez Youmans has a Christmas cactus that has gotten way ahead of its calendar and is now in full bloom. It is a very pretty plant.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Coon of Alfred have returned to their home in that village, after passing the winter with their son, Dr. Aaron MacCoon of Leona, N. J.

In Friendship Wednesday afternoon will be closing day when all groceries, markets, dry goods, clothing and hardware stores will not open during the summer.

A four-year vocational agriculture course will be added to the curriculum of the Bolivar central school next fall, it was decided at a meeting of the Board of Education recently.

The test well at Friendship is down about 600 feet, according to reports; various pockets of shale gas have been found. Oil bearing sands are hoped to be reached about the middle of June at 1,100 to 1,200 feet.

A. L. Shaner, Bolivar oil producer and president of the Allegany Refiners, Inc., bought the assets of the McDonnell & Brannen Corp., of Bolivar, bankrupt, for $18,000 cash at the public auction held on the premises Wednesday, May 20th.

The Forceythe Wilson Club of Alfred is sponsoring a research of Allegany county by Miss Mildred Sisson of Cuba. Miss Sisson has been a contributor of verse for several years which has been published in the county newspapers and elsewhere.

A special meeting of the Allegany County Adult Education and Recreation Committee has been called at Belmont, Monday evening, June 1st. Plans for the summer recreational program will be discussed. The committee from Andover is: W. G. Pope, Glenn E. Bretsch, B. B. Hann and A. L. Bloss.

Allegany County P. T. A. pledged its hearty support to all the county's law enforcement agencies at a meeting last week at Whitesville, at which Mrs. Frank W. LeClere, county probation agent spoke on "Social and Moral Conditions in Allegany County." The council will spread the information to all of its allied organizations in the county.

Seven hundred boys and girls from Wellsville, Scio, Alma, Independence, Willing and Andover were guests of the Wellsville Exchange Club Saturday afternoon. They were entertained at the Babcock theatre to a program featuring "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and a luncheon of sandwiches, chocolate milk and ice cream at the high school grounds.

Among those who are having their houses repainted this spring are the Pease Cottage Home, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James McDonough on Water street, owned by Charles Fisher, with Kirk Ruger as decorator. The Driscoll house on Dyke street, owned by Wm. Woodruff is also undergoing repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Miner Rose of Canisteo celebrated their golden wedding anniversary May 19th.

You must have your driver's license renewed before next Monday, June 1st, or you cannot legally drive a car.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ordway and family have moved from the Hammell house on Chestnut street into the Wilcox house on Davis Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Henry are living in the G. B. Proper house this summer while he is employed as formerly on the state road construction work.

Mrs. C. R. McGill entertained the A. O. T. Club at her home Monday night. The first prize was awarded Mrs. R. O. Snyder and Mrs. Hazel Atwood received second.

A large building, work shop and garage, with living apartments on the second floor, owned by Harvey Hooker of Angelica was destroyed by fire May 12th. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Carl Bernhardt of Buffalo, a sanitary engineer, has been secured by the Western New York 4-H Clubs and other groups to lay out and advise for proper sanitary arrangements at Eggleston Park. He has begun his work under the auspices of the Allegany County Park Commission.

One thousand dollars in cash prizes are to be awarded to winners of an unusual program of competitive events which have officially been announced for the gathering of volunteer fire companies of Western New York, northern Pennsylvania and Canada, which will be the feature event of the town of Tonawanda centennial celebration on the Fourth of July.

Bobby Osgood, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Osgood, Angelica farmer, has two pet calves, Daisy and Buttercup, ten months old, which he has trained to drive. They wear both bits and yoke. Bobby clears snow paths with them during the winter and drives them about the farm chained to a wagon.

Fairman Brothers of Wellsville, successful drillers of several deep wells in Pennsylvania and in the southern part of Allegany county in Willing township; the Wittmer company of Pittsburgh, Pa., that pioneered the Greenwood gas field, where they own considerable gas interests and own additional large gas and oil acreages in Allegany county, and their attorney, William R. Van Campen of Belmont, have leased a considerable acreage along Feathers Creek and started a well on the Raymond Cline farm near Belmont.

A yearling buck deer met an untimely death and a new light car was practically demolished in a collision Wednesday of last week near Tip Top on the Almond-Andover road. Called to the scene, Game Protector F. S. Maloney found that the deer had been struck broadside by the car and was so badly mangled that he buried it. The car was operated by a man named Totten and bore an Indiana license. It was towed to Hornell for repairs, having the fenders, headlights, radiator and front end badly smashed. The driver was unharmed.

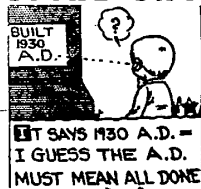

Home Bureau Meeting

The Andover Home Bureau unit held its regular monthly meeting Thursday, May 21st at the home of Mrs. Walter L. Greene, from 10:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. A very instructive lesson on "Care and Arrangement of the Hair" was given by Miss Janet Robinson, assistant home demonstration agent. "The Hows and Whys of Shampooing Hair at Home" constituted the first lesson. The second lesson will consider "Why Bother With Hair? How Does Your Hair Look and Why?" The date of this lesson will be announced later.

Twelve members were present at the meeting who enjoyed a very appetizing tureen dinner at noon. One more member came for the afternoon session.

The following stores will be open this Friday evening until 9 P. M.:
 The L. & C. Coat Suit & Dress Co.
 The Men's Shop
 Neil Gleason, Inc.

THE MARKET BASKET

Every article we sell must be entirely satisfactory or your money refunded.

Baker's Hardware News

Wouldn't it be great if you could do the dishes to the laundry and the house to the cleaners?

Cube Steak

Try one of our meat mallets on our next round steak, and you will be convinced that it is as tender a steak as you have ever had. The cost is small, and once you have used it you would never be without it. Save yourself the extra cost of high price meat cuts, and enjoy tender juicy steaks at considerably less money.

Farm Fences

Barbed wire is reasonable this season—Now is the time to repair and build new fences. We urge you to get our prices before you buy.

Insect Sprayers

Which are substantially constructed, will appeal to every man and woman for both indoor and outdoor use. Price 15 and 60c.

Paint

Chamois Skins

Large and durable—just the article to make your window jobs a delight and your results a real satisfaction. Prices range from 25 to 75c, according to size.

Hot Plates—Hot Plate Ovens

These Hot Plates have burners that are correct in design and fuel economy. They produce the utmost of heat units from fuel consumed, work rapidly, evenly, easily and are great space savers. In many cases, they fill range needs as well as a more costly stove unit—and are so economical to buy. We have various sizes—according to your needs.

Hot Plate Ovens bake evenly, quickly, safely and economically—and are so handy in warm weather to save heating the large oven. We have different sizes and we recommend them as a great labor, money and heat saving kitchen utility.

Prices range from 95c to $4.50 on Ovens and Hot Plates $2.75 to $3.75.

Shoe Soles

We have, in addition to our regular line of shoe soles, large sheets of sole materials from which you can make your own. This is especially useful when there are small children in the family. The summer months are hard on shoes—but they need not be costly, if you use sheet leather to repair them.

Lawn Seed

Now is the time to re-seed your lawn. We stock guaranteed lawn seed and fertilizer. Beware of inferior grades—they cost more in the end.
