FORTY YEARS AGO

JULY 18, 1896

Hamilton C. Norris, Editor

Mrs. N. A. Clair was suddenly taken violently ill last Friday forenoon and after a severe suffering of less than two days found relief only in death, passing to her heavenly reward Saturday afternoon, July 4, 1896. She is survived by her son Byron A. Clair and a daughter, Miss Minnie A. Clair.

Mrs. E. S. Bradley is visiting friends in Otsego county.

J. S. Phillips left Monday morning on a business trip to Chicago.

Miss Bertha Harmon was the guest of Dr. Walker at the Hornell-ville Sanatorium Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Mosher and two children of Plainfield N. J., and Miss Mary Lee Cottrell of Alfred were guests of Mrs. A. M. Burrows this week.

Married, at the home of Harvey M. Ackley in Penn Yan, July 4th 1896 by Rev. A. J. Walrath, John Lusk of Alfred and Miss Sara J. Ackley of Penn Yan.

Mud, mirth, music, merit, millinery and much mastication madly mingled at Lanphear Valley yesterday. Primary cause, last day of school; secondary cause, picnic. Immediate effect indigestion. Parties, Pedagogy Miles Davenport and the pupils and patrons of school district No. 5, Alfred and Andover.

The Citizens Hose Company went to Canaseraga Friday evening when they arrived there they found there would be no band present at the Canaseraga Fourth of July Celebration and the Excelsior band of this place was sent for. The band boys started a four o'clock Saturday morning, driving to Hornellsville, where they took a train for Canaseraga.

Our readers will be interested in the fact that on Sunday June 28, the corner stone of a new Catholic Church was laid at Albion, N. Y., Rev. J. D. Biden, who a few years ago was Rector of Blessed Sacrament Church in this village is now rector of the Albion church and the building of the new edifice is one of the results of his activity and enterprise.

A DISH FOR THE WEEK

Hot days call for cool dishes; orange juice and milk make a delicious frozen dessert for summer meals and party refreshments.

Orange Milk Sherbert
4 oranges
4 lemons
4½ cups of sugar
2 quarts of milk

To the juice of the oranges and lemons add the grated rind of one orange. Add the sugar and stir until it dissolves. Add the milk and freeze the mixture at once. The milk may curdle when added to the juice but the mixture will be smooth when it is frozen.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

JULY 13, 1906

Wahl - Vars
A quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl Jr. of Elm Valley, on Tuesday of this week, July 10th, at 7 P.M. The contracting parties were Clifford J. Vars, a well known and popular young man of this village and Miss Marie E. Wahl, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wahl Sr. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. D. Bacon, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this village. After a bountiful wedding supper, served by the sister-in-law of the bride, the happy couple drove to Wellsville, where they took the train for New York.

Catherine Trainor, widow of Thomas Trainor of Hartsville, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Fisher, Saturday of last week and was buried under the Andover Presbyterian church Monday. Mrs. Trainor had been a great sufferer for over a year from a broken hip sustained in a fall. She is survived by one brother John Mullen.

Mrs. Jennie Low Hardy spoke to a large audience at the Baptist church Tuesday evening, descriptive of life in Australia and New Zealand.

Charles Tracy with J. M. Brundage, Frank Clark and Jesse Snyder of this village have taken over 700 acres of valuable leases in the Canadian oil field.

Miss Rachael Updyke, Bert S. Brown and Edson Langworthy each received checks from the National Protective Legion this week.

Rev. E. D. Van Horn, pastor of the Andover Seventh Day Baptist church tendered his resignation as pastor of that church Saturday to take effect Sept. 1st.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Langworthy of Westley, R. I., June 29th. Mrs. Langworthy was formerly Miss Fannie Brundage of this village.

Miss Florence M. Bassett was brought home from the Steuben Sanatorium at Hornell Sunday morning where she is recovering from a serious illness.

The fresh air children who have been our guests the past two weeks will start back for New York City Thursday morning on the 7.27 train.

For the best results as a cover crop, rye should be sown at the rate of about one and one-half bushels to the acre as soon as the vegetables are harvested.

Rhubarb once grew wild in Russia and some other parts of Europe; the first plantings were brought to America about one hundred fifty years ago.
