ANDOVER NEWS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

OUR KEYNOTE: "If There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

Congress,					•
ANDOVER,	N.	N.			_ AUGUS	ST 14,	1936
			Subscriptio	on R	lates

Farm Youth Contented

ican farms are more generally satisfied with their lot dealers stocked. than were any other young people in the world. The lee dealers have had no rest and their plants have potatoes from a certified field may ...

main in the country, while 80 per cent. of the boys works have been mighty busy places.

such great financial and industrial successes as are divides the favors and is kind to us all in turn. achieved by the very few are possible only in cities, farm life offers the greater certainty of independence i and competence. There is no problem of unemployment in the country for those who can work and are TF you see "flying ants" swarming in your house, enough competent help.

education city youths had the advantage. Yet of the roof from over your head. farm yourth concerned in the survey already mencollege education.

No longer is the farmer isolated. Machinery more dangerous. has lightened his labor. And good roads, the automobile, the telephone, the radio and the circulating ive to wood as rust is to steel and iron, but their at library enable the farm population to keep abreast of tucks are easily prevented by following a few precauthe times as readily as do dwellers in cities. Youth on American farms, all things considered. has special reason to be gratified by its prospects.

Distinctive Charm

romantic or imaginative "charm."

not appreciated because they are so close that they are ground.

large measure in the beautiful trees with which the and this swarming may be the first indication of their can be said on price about veal, Fruits Plentiful, Fairly Cheap famous city is profusely planted, and which are pre-presence. Prompt action on the first apearance of the fresh pork, or smoked meats. Ham Peaches, pears and cantaloupe overalls, and such. served with the greatest care, even in the business ants may avoid much damage, but their continued bor- prepared and smoked meats in gen- are outstanding fruit values. Apples in this respect, they can plant quick growing varieties and not of attack. that will transform the community in a few years. Too frequently the hustling American folks will cut down a noble tree merely because it blocks the by cherishing their trees, planting those fitted to the D Move out the davenport, radio, telephones soil and climate, and preserving them against the in-magazines. Banish pepper, salt, sugar and all can give it a rare beauty.

One does not have to taravel across the wide seas sheep on the hills forr your clothes. to find charm. It can be found right here at home Without advertised products, your life would tion to beautifying the home surroundings.

any backsliders, they should recognize that failure to snail's pace; you might not progress at all. do their part in beautification shows lack of interest i their community that can't easily be forgotten.

race of neurotics, in the opinion of leading neuroli- vice must be advertised.

Nerve-wracking noise, the hustle and bustle of deal with advertisers and to buy advertised goods. modern business, the dodging of vehicular traffic and Read the advertisements in this paper regularly and a hundred and one other appurtenances to present heed their messages. day modes of living - all of them are consolidating themselves in a program of human destruction that rapidly grows worse with each succeeding day. does not get sufficient rest. Instead of partaking of a III happiness, because to be unhealthful is to be unleisurely luncheon, he grabs a sandwich and dashes happy. away to close another big deal. In the morning, he That happiness means health has a scientific gulps his breakfast and runs to get to his job on time. basis, according to a noted scientist, who has experi-On nights when he is not obliged to make the theatre, enced with rats. or meet some other social obligation he might partake Those that have been tamed so that they could of a leasure dinner - but any too often. from this widespread condition of neerosis. The pace during the experiment. set in modern business was created by the men so en- This is directly due to properties of several glands gaged. The pursuit of the dollar must go on, probab- which are like glands of internal secretions in the huly with increasing rapidity. Those who would relax man body, this scientist says. in the interest of their heath must sacrifice some of the so-called luxuries of life. And this, a majority ness, wise people will avoid fear. are unwilling or too thoughtless of their own welfare

The old Roman roads, built hundreds of years ago, are still in use, but they didn't have water, gas which is the goal of every human being. and sewer repairs to cut them up.

THE unprecedented heat wave which held sway over the country for many days and the unusually incomfortable warm weather which has characterized e summer to date has caused great loss and auffer Farmers, of course, have been the wors

However, when one group is affected adversely and home. If you enclose a self-advery same conditions. This has been more true than tion the name of this paper you will' ever of the hot weather. Many lines of business have receive a direct reply to your query ries are being shipped daily from the Three buildings in the business enjoyed peak operation and set records for output. from the colleges. Do not ask more Wellsville station. $2.00 Electric power plants are among these. A record than one question in one letter or Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Reg- fire early Monday morning. The head $1.00 amount of electric energy has been distributed in on one post card. Ask as many an of Tip Top last Wednesday, a 10- ple of the vicinity were awakened in $.50 many sections of the country. Increased consumption questions as you like, but make each pound boy. fans, refrigerators, ice-making aircon- one a separate communication. ditioning systems and other comfort devices were re-:

Refrigerator manufactureres have had a difficult. R. D., asks if the size of potatoes. N extensive survey made not long ago by the re-itime in supplying the demand that has been made on is any indication of their value for the surprising fact that boys and girls living on Amer-been able to make their product fast enough to keep K. L. Fernow of the plant path-fact was surprising because that the opposite was been taxed to the utmost to keep evryone supplied be fully as good for planting as the Mrs. James McGinty, of Pitts- Frank Graves has been nursing supposedly true according to the belief of a majority The essentia! for the great American summer drink—larger potatoes, and sometimes may burg, is visiting friends and relatives sick hand this week. It became is lemonade—has enjoyed the greatest popularity with be better. Seven hundred fifty thousand investigations were the price skyrocketing accordingly. The ice cream in- If planted whole, they often give ' included in the canvass and of that number, 93 per dustry has come in for its lion's share of popularity as good stand whereas larger potatoes ited Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Earley, at John Graves recently underwent cent. of the girls reported that they intended to re- is usual in hot weather. Soda fountains and bottling cub; and planted beside them give Silver Lake, Thursday.

prospering. The picture may be entirely different in soil is very dry or very wet at plant- day morning for a two weeks so- her grandfather, A, C, Barney. The old myth that opportunity dwells only in short order, but after all the great balance wheel that ing time. cities was exploded long ago. While it is true that is operated by a higher and infinitely mericful power, Many growers are prejudiced a- Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lamphear and his family to Alfred.

Troublesome Insects

willing to work. The farmer's problem is to get rest assured that you are infected with termites and get busy. For in time they will eat the walls from Superficially it might seem that in the matter of around you, the foundation from under you and the tioned, 75 per cent. of the boys and 73 per cent. of ment of Agriculture says there is no need to be than one per cent leaf roll, and in brooder house. By June 1 or 15, it Leo Snyder is visiting do such percentages of youth enjoy the advantages of ron form, because they made their actual attack "

tions which are recommended. In general, the bureau advises that all wood with coal or cresote or else such contract should be avoided by foundations of concrete or stone. Brick is not advisable in foundations unles capped and faced dollars with concrete, because the termites are able to burrow A in Europe this summer. They travel across the into the mortar after a few years. While termites can DEEF is one of the few foods which Less fish is being caught and sold with the Excelsior Band. Atlantic for old world tours largely because the Euro- not be driven out of their habitations in wood by in- D is cheaper this year than it was than last year including both ocean Rev. C. H. Harrington left Monpean cities possess the reputation of having a certain secticides or fumigation, then can be killed off by in-last. Whether you like it as steak and lake varieties. Prices of canned day for Baltimore, Md., where he troducing concrete or treated wood insulation between or stew, oven or pot roast, you will vegetables of standard grade are al- will assist Evangelist John a Davis Yet, this so-called "charm" lies often in some the building and the ground at all foundation or post find it an excellent value. Broiling ready up twenty-five per cent on the at a series of meetings in connection seventeen. simple thing that can be developed. Many American contacts, as they can not live without the moisture that and frying chickens are also attrac- basis of short crops and a small tion with the Emery Grove Camp cities and towns have such features now, but they are may be secured through their passageways into the tive value. There is somewhat more carry-over from last year's pack. Meeting.

Each spring and fall the termites emerge from exception of chops, prices are a corn and wheat as a world shortage It has been said that the charm of Paris lies in the wood work of infested buildings as "flying ants" little easier. Nothing encouraging is anticipated. ing of minute tunnels in sils, posts, joists, etc., is cereral, however, have a strong appetite plums and grapes are fairly plenti-Any American city or town, no matter how large tain to result eventually in important damage. While appeal in summer weather regard-ful and moderately priced. Grapeor how small, can in due time obtain that same charm the termites are insectorial aviators at one stage of less of price. and attractiveness. If the people have been negligent their careers, aviation is merely a means of locomotion Potatoes Plentiful and Cheap able cost. Huckleberries, both wild sidewalk a little or for some other trifling reason. But CTRIP your wall of curtains, window glass, paint roads of pests, the inhabitants of any community home prepared foods for your pantry. Go back the flint for your fire, the fields for your bread, the berg lettuce.

Putting Ease in Life

and we can make more of it by giving proper atten-seem both drab and hard. You would have little to rise because pastures are burned comfort or convenience; know nothing of the means! up and grain prices are high. Egg Broiled Chicken on a Slice of Har This community has a distinctive charm because to secure them. Unhelped, your ingenuity would tend prices are now somewhat higher its people have developed a home pride. If there are to limit your pace. Your progress would be at a than last year and already storage Advertisements sweep you on to new enjoyments.!

Read them and know about advertised goods. They eggs has been affected by the heat. give your life new ease.

Pin your faith to advertised goods - its merchandise of no regrets. Every time the merchant ad-▲ MERICANS, and especially those who reside in our vertises, he puts his reputation in your hands. Hi metropolitian areas, are in danger of becoming a products or his wares must have made good. His ser-

That is why it pays to read advertisements, to

Health is Wealth

The modern city dweller keeps late hours and LEALTH is wealth, someone has said. It is also be handled in the hand do not suffer the ill effects

There seems to be no basis for expecting relief from experiments as do those that are wild and afraid

Since fear affects health and therefore happi-Most fear is fancied, anyway, and is a mental condition that in a large majority of cases can be To be healthy and fearless, that is to be happy,

People have been setting all kinds of endurance If all the compaign speches of the year were records during the past few years but so far no one printed and placed end to end, they would still be has started one to break the record for continuous toes from diseased hills are usually Valley, visited in Belmont from Fri-, Mrs. Bert Wildman, Saturday, Aug. small and because they misinterpret day until Sunday.

WHAT and WHY?

| would probably have more leaf roll | large-scale poultrymen. fields, however, usually have less building used in the spring as a was an Andover guest Thursday than the large tubers."

New York State Colleges of Agricul group that prospers by the dressed, stamped envelope, and men-

The "Barracks" Plan

FORTY YEARS AGO

AUG. 12, 1896. Hamilton C. Norris, Editor

Frank Burrows started for Chau-istore of Miles Smith, which was in Edward Guinn of Tip Top visited out. The building also housed the Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones visited without question the nature of relatives in Canaseraga last week. affair. Nitro-glycerine was used to

So it goes that some are suffering and others are This sometimes happens when the Belle and Anna Brundage left Tues- Marion, is visiting at the home of 'journ at Chautauqua. 🦠 handling poultry flocks. "It is true that if small potatoes The answer: "This plan of hand-street and will move to Andove." were taken from a field which con- ling the flock is gaining in popular- next week. tained 20 per cent leaf roll they ity and might well be adapted by than would larger tubers. Certified "The barracks is a permanent Miss Ellen Young, of Greenwood," usually produce as well or better house. Into it are moved yearlings Dundee this week. soon as they stop laying. The reg-vacation in Hornell. C. W., wants to know what is ular laying pens are thus released meant by the "barracks" plan in for the use of early pullets."

Food Market Advice

Potatoes are again plentiful and and cultivated, are cheaper than lent and with higher prices on most Here are two menus made up of foods so general it is well to serve seasonable foods which are moder-cheap. Their food value is excellast week.

matoes are good and reasonablly priced. String and lima beans and

Dairy Products Higher

Prices of dairy products continue eggs are making their appearance

because much of the supply of fresh!

potatoes often. Peas, corn and to-late in price.

cabbage are rather high as is ice- Sweet Corn

Turning Back the Pages

THIRTY_YEARS AGO

J. Harvey Backus, Owner and Edit

Scio Fire Swept section of Scio were destroyed by two heavy explosions. The general flames but the front windows bles ifected in some manner while while

Now Go on With the Story a serious operation in a sanatarium Dr. George E. Burdick is moving

Ziba Cook, of New York City, is ivisiting Andover friends moved into their new house on South Main street. ship Monday, where he will open a fruit and confectionery store. Mr. and Mrs. George Bloss of Whitesville, attended the Harvest

Home Thursday. Mr. Bloss playing good lamb available and, with the All grains are high but particularly Uncle Ab says no wonder women lare "making great strides nowsdays" what with pajamas, shorts, Don't delay? Use Dose's Pile.

HAVE A LONG COOL ONE ON

fruit is again available at reason-

Bread and Butter

Lemon Chiffon Pie

Coffee (hot or iced)

Jellied Consomme

Rolls and Butter

Peach Meringues

cattle baron, his head. But he did not flinch, right hand to brush the moisture N. Y. The bride was attended by her Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace and ill at his home here, is much im-foreclosure on the small careful shooting. Harum-scarum as "Keep 'em up!" came the harsh The bride's brother, Carlton J. Rud- Association picnic in Bowles Grove Rev. and Mrs. Wilburt Davis, Miss He is opposed by Ed. Star-rustler stiffened and pitched head-over to that cage door and unlock Bank and by San Juan Delevan, Then Johnny turned to see how One phoney move an' there'll be lilies of the valley. The maid of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack day guests of Mrs. Davis' sister, it. Keep yore hands in plain sight. t rancher who has been Tex was making it. A gulp of fear three dead men instead of two. Hur-Tex Whipple and his partner, John-down and kicking. Tex himself lay, Moving with the mechanical stiff- The wedding dinner was served at his, Mr. and Mrs. Lester York and a business caller here Saturday.

View Clehae, are cowpunchers em- half sat to one side, but shooting ness of an automaton Burney walk. the Roxbury Inn, covers being laid family, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Red- Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Burger, Mr. ny cleaner, and Mrs. Knox Miller, and Mrs. Leonard Dennis, Miss ployed by San Juan Delevan to fight deliberately. The second outlaw ed jerkily to the cage door, totally for 30 guests. Immediately follow-The rustlers and protect his inter- was backing his horse away, holding unused to scenes of violence; su- ing the dinner, the happy couple Mrs. Sarah Redmond, Walter Red- Eloise Chaffee and Blair Chaffee atbefore his body as a shield. Johnny amid his endless columns of figures. England States. After October 1st The Goodwill Class enjoyed a Thursday. gave a yell and dug in the spurs What had just taken place had filled Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson will re-spagnetti dinner at the home of *Better make the most of it hil racing in on the rustler at an angle. him with dread and horror and had side at their home on the Lake Road. Mrs. Harlan Waters, Tuesday. Thows when yul'll get any more." draw the outlaw's attention from Beyond the barrier the bandit Prenuptial events in honor of Miss son Junior were at Independence Gibson's Point on Keuka Lake, Sun-

As soon as it was light enough to Tex. He succeeded but found him- who had done the shooting kept step Rudman were given by Mrs. Harvey Saturday evening to attend a musi- day. read signs Tex got busy. First he self suddenly clicking the hammer with him. When Burney lowered Goodno, Mrs. Leonard Dennis, Mrs. cal entertainment given by the Da- Walter Redmond spent Tuesday rode in a wide circle about the of his gun on empty cylinders. his hands to the lock the bandit H. C. McCaffery of Greenwood, Miss vis family of Battle Creek, Mich. with Mrs. Redmond at Pleasant Val-Springs, peering closely at the dust Realizing his predicament Johnny jabbed his gun thru the bars until Arline Cook and Miss Maude West Mrs. Mary Tilroe Young has re- ley Sanitarium. and sand of the desert floor. Johnny kneed his horse away, snicking back the muzzle nearly touched Burney's of Rochester. and same closely at his heels. They the loading gate and punching out throat. The latter retched slightly. Their many friends here extend visit here. completed a circle of about a mile the empty shells as he rode. Quick The stink of powder gas was strong to Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson their Mrs. Wilfred Gee and son David spending the week with his brother, when Tex pulled up and while roll- to grasp his opportunity the rustler in his nostrils. His fingers fumbled hearty congratulations. the fleeing Johnny. For a split sec- Lithe as a weasel the bandit was!

labout reading signs from Tex, nod- heels of Rex's shot came another the combination." "I-I know it," mumbled Burney.

"Yep. They jest cut out ninety for he was already falling from the drag. The rest they took on to the and galloped back relieved to see clumsy, twirled the dial. Once h Box D. They cooked up that yarn Tex rise to his feet and come limp- overshot a number and spoiled the shout rustlers as a blind an' figured ing forward. before anybody could prove 'em al.

the Springs musta had 'em pretty lead the cheerin' section?"

At noon Tex halted enough to If I'd o' missed him he'd o' got yuh self falling—falling—! loosen the saddle girths for a mo-shore." the crown of his hat and let the to beat hell." three in the afternoon Tex rose in it?"

thirsty lines of Hereford cat- for yuh."

ing the inevitable slowing down of back the moisture.

the herd.

"Yuh dang, helter "Caught 'em" rasped Tex through gutty young cub," he muttered a bank examiner to handle the afdust-caked lips. "Reckon "What would I do without yuh?" mebbe we're in for a fight, son. O' Then he blew his nose loudly and he had vanished, taking the trail they may run for it, but I set to getting his saddle off his dead back to Westhaven. The bank exthink so. Well, get yore bronco. dawglaig loose in the leather."

oncas into a gallop and pounded stared in a stunned, horrified, apathe cattle. So absorbed were office. Sprawled on his face across face was twisted in a smirk of trie rustlers in their work they did the sill was Ed. Sarbuck. His one umph. He had won again. guess at their pursuers' proxim- arm was out-strethed before him and a few inches in front of his exthem. Then one of them hap tended fingers lay the heavy revol- Notice of Completion of pened to turn and look back. He ver the old man had not been swift shouted to his companion, jerked enough to use. A little pool of

Watch yoreself, kid," yelled Tex, still figure. take the one on the right."

In the intervale be, the great blobs of sweat gather of

"Get busy then."

set up. The alert bandit snarled.) the wind would wipe out the tracks "Yuh dang fool kid," barked Tex "Don't stall for time. If anybody wrathfully, though he knew the comes before you get the vault open wrath was merely a cloak to deepest yuh get a slug, savvy?" "Shore, yuh're learnin', son. Lem- emotions. "What's the idee o' yore Burney nodded mechanically and me see, Wade an' his gang musta chargin' in thataway with an empty ran a furry tongue over his dry left Skelton Springs about noon gun? Wanta get yoreself salivated?" lips. He began again. This time he resterday. The tracks show that's "Shucks," muttered Johnny went thru the numbers without about right. That gives 'em about "How'd I know yuh wa'nt hit? mistake. The final tumbler clicked. eventeen, eighteen hours start. Yuh was down wa'nt yuh? An' him He twisted the handle and set him-They cain't drive them cattle any afannin' at yuh all the time? What self against the weight of the vault too fast 'cause that long drive in to did yuh want me to do, sit back an' door. The massive portal swung back. The next instant something well fagged. I gotta hunch we can "Well," growled Tex. "Yuh might crashed against the back of his head have some respect for my feelini's. with terrific force and he felt him-

The robbery was discovered the ment while he poured a mouthfur or "Mebbe-mebbe," grinned Johnny next morning when the bank failed two of water from a canteen into "But believe me I was skedaddlin" to open its doors at the regular time. Burney was still alive, but l thirsty broncs wash the dust from "Where's yore hat?" demanded when Doc McMurdo, a hard-bitten, their throats and nostrils. Then the Tex irrelevantly. "I suppose yuh dour, silent old Scotchman examined cinches were taken up again and the rode right up to that other jasper him, he shook his head. He had steady grind resumed. At about a slapped him in the face with Burney carried to his home where he did the best he could for the stirrups and pointed ahead. "Nope," retorted Johnny. He stricken man. Burney died just be-There maybe five miles distant, lay lifted it off with a .45 jest before I fore four o'clock that afternoon plugged him. Well, it looks like we from a concussion of the brain. Be-Tex increased the pace percep- done got a herd o' cattle an' two fore he went he had a brief spell of ibly and an hour later he and daid rustler's on our hands, Tex. delirium and thruout the broken tohnny came to the edge of a wide An' they's two broncs for yuh to jumble was a single phrase that he vake across the center of which take your pick of. I'll round 'em up reiterated again and again. Doc "McMurdo was alone with Burney at the slowly filed. In the rear, hazing While Johnny was busy with his the time and as he listened a queer, e cattle onward, two men were errand Tex rolled a cigarette with calculating expression crossed his riding, swinging the ends of lariats shaking, fumbling fingers. He was hard-bitten features. across the backs of laggards, fight- blinking his eyes rapidly to keep ty investigation in a very imposing, "Yuh dang, helter-skelter, loyal mysterious manner, then wired for fairs of the bank. Two days later aminer made some hasty calculations Tom Burney, book-keeper of the and pronounced the bank insolvent Tex and Johnny lifted their Cattleman's Bank in Carillion, The day after this was announced. "|Silas Spelle rode into Carillion and n accross the quarter mile which thetic sort of a way at the doorway was closeted for several hours with separated them from the rustlers leading into Ed. Starbuck's private the examiner. When he left, Spelle's

Assessment Roll a gun and wheeled his horse to crimson was beginning to spread on Notice is hereby given that the the floor near one shoulder of the Assessors of the town of Andover lhave completed their Assessment-' Almost at Starbuck's feet lay an- Roll for the current year; that a Both the rustlers were shooting other body, that of Al Stinson, the copy thereof has been left with the They were desperate, tired Cashier of the bank. He also had undersigned E. E. Orvis at his resitheir nerves on edge from made the mistake of reaching for a dence where it may be seen and ex-Rearines and bodily discomfort and gun. Tom Burney wrenched his amined by and persons interested laced with the third Tuesday in with the knowledge that they eyes from the dead men and stared therein until the third Tuesday is

> A MARTRUMof the town of Andover

Subscribe for the Andover No

Y., was the scene of a pretty port, by the Rev. Edgar C. Smith Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Burger ac-Rev. Shirley Travis who occupied The wedding march was played Smith of Bath attended the Ayrshire in Hamburg. w Miss Freda Cremen of Camden, sale in Cortland last Wednesday. | Redmond Goodno, who has been (sister, Miss Marian W. Rudman, family attended the Star Mail Route proved.

lman of Erie, Pa., was the best man. at South Canisteo, Sunday. The bride was attired in pink chif- Those from this place who attend- of Battle Creek, Mich., and Miss honor wore blue chiffon and carried Stewart in Howard last Thursday Mrs. H. C. McCaffery and family.

of Wellsville spent Thursday with Clarence Webster.

Miss Mary Coston of Rochester has been spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Addie Coston and sister, Mrs. Theodore Wing.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. P. Trowbridge daughter, Miriam of Elmira have of Mrs. Trowbridge's im- dist Episcopal Church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCaffery and present at the Democratic rally at turned to Syracuse after a brief Atty, and Mrs. Davis Webster and

NO. 1-The most popular spot in he camp, where the children congregate after noon-day meal to hear stories read by one of the members of the camp staff.

NO. 2-Afternoon milk time, when the children receive a portion of their one quart a day allotment of his valuable food.

NC. 4.—Part of the camp staff of several workers, showing Miss Mary Ann O'Boyle, former Alfred teacher, now of Andover, play director, center, assisted by Miss Helen Jammers, left, of Wellsville and Miss Barbara LeClere, right, of Friend-

ANDOVER FREE LIBRARY