Buy Now For Next Winter

Prices on Circulating Heaters will be higher in the fall. We suggest that you buy yours now on a budget plan, and save yourself money as well as the inconvenience of paying out a large sum when your fuel bills are larger. Make a small payment each week from now until the cold month starts, and you will never miss the money and in return you will have your heating problem solved in the most satisfactory and also the most economical manner.

Circulating Heaters in walnut finish are economical in fuel consump- tion and comfortable in their deliv- ery and distribution of heat. They are not a heating plant for just a mere season, but for a life time. We offer them with confidence—for we have used them for both home and store heat.

We are able to make low prices to the early purchasers—come in and make arrangements for your heating problems at once. We can solve them.

Steel Wool

A product that should be always in easy reach. It is very effective for removing stains and light scour- ing. A new stock just in, at 5c per box.
