welcomed a daughter, Mary Ellen, Sunday, Aug. 30, at their home in Olean.
The W. W. G. girls met at the home of Miss Ida Clair Wednesday evening at 7:30. Their general study was on Africa.

If people would keep the weeds cut from the back yards and nearby corners there would be fewer cases of hay fever so prevalent at this season.

The Mulholland ambulance was called Monday afternoon to convey Mrs. Robert Ross, injured in the Mid-Way auto accident to Jones Memorial hospital, Wellsville.

Subscribers to the Andover News are invited to patronize the advertisers in each issue of the paper.
They are playing fair to the home paper and will do the same to their customers.

Mrs. Albert Green and Mrs. Archie Wasson of Cuba, twin sisters, celebrated their 70th birthday, August 26th. The ladies before their marriage were Lizzie and Lillie Chesbro of Mystic, Conn. Mrs. Green has two sons and two daughters.
Mrs. Wasson a son and daughter.

The ladies of the Baptist Mission Circle held their basket picnic at the home of Mrs. James Burbank, Tuesday afternoon. There was an election of officers and plans were also made to attend the county basket meeting to be held this Friday at Angelica. The subject which they studied was on Africa.

The Swain reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cooper, Labor Day. There were 51 present who gathered from Canaseraga, Dalton, Dansville, Almond, Belmont, Buffalo and Andover. After the dinner, a business meeting was held and the officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President, John Swain; vice president, Roger Swain; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Nora Hess. The next reunion will be held at Canaseraga Park, Labor Day, 1937.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met at the church parlors Wednesday afternoon and at the business meeting elected officers for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. Margaret Northrup; vice president, Mrs. Pearl Mesler; treasurer, Mrs. Lulu Emery; secretary, Mrs. Valencia Slom; floral committee, Mrs. Edith Thorne. The hostesses, Mrs. Hazel Burgett and Mrs. Pearl Mesler served delicious refreshments.

About 45 relatives gathered from Alfred, Genesee, Elmira, Wellsville, Hornell and Richburg, where they held the Allen reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Witter, Sunday. After a fine dinner a business meeting was held and Claude Saunders was elected president; Mrs.
George Smith, vice president; Mrs.
Marion Saterlee, secretary and treasurer. A program of songs and readings was carried out. The next reunion will be held at the home of Orange Allen at Alfred, the first Sunday before Labor Day, 1937.

Mrs. Ellen Vincent of Alfred Station fractured a bone in her wrist in a fall last week.

Grant Vedder of Fillmore has joined the U. S. Navy and expects to enter training in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stearns have moved from Water street into the Joyce house on West Greenwood street.

The Prime electric fence reel which was given away by the Higby Electric Company, Labor Day was won by Play Pease.

The Ghostley reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nobles in Shovel Hollow, Sunday.
About 70 enjoyed a picnic dinner on the lawn.

Mrs. A. L. Bloss entertained the A. O. T. Club Monday evening at her home on Greenwood street.
Prizes were won by Mrs. S. B. Scott and Mrs. Raymond McGill.

The Department of Agriculture estimated July 23 that for the first six months of 1936 that the farmers' cash income amounted to $3-291,000,000, which is an increase of $335,000,000 over the corresponding period last year.

George H. Foster, Cuba High School graduate, has recently been appointed cashier of the famous Northfield, Mass., schools, the Northfield Seminary and Mount Herman, a boys' school, each of which, founded by Dwight N. Moody in 1879, has an enrollment of more than 500.

The third annual reunion of the George W. Green family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
Green, Sunday. Relatives were present from Perry, Almond, Wellsville, East Valley and Andover. About 30 members enjoyed a picnic dinner on the lawn. It was voted to hold the next reunion at the home of Charles Green in Perry.

Earl E. Sage of Bolivar was painfully injured while working on an oil lease last week. A chain on a set of pulleys he was using broke, drawing his hand into the gears. An iron handle then flew up, striking him on the head. He sustained severe cuts and bruises and several bones in his right hand were broken.

In the six months ended August 1st, 206 persons on Allegany county relief rolls left relief for regular employment, apart from emergency government programs, local officials in charge of the administration of relief reported to the State Temporary Relief Administration, supervisory body which reimburses from state funds by 40 per cent of approved local relief expenditures.

If Andover had a few citizens as loyal and co-operative for our town as is our neighbor, Louis S. Bassett of Independence, we would have a more prosperous village. His part in the Labor Day parade Monday was one of the most pleasing specialties. "Lou" is a genius in more ways than one, and has a warm spot in the hearts of Andover people.— Come again and often.

The eighth Cronk-VanOrder reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hann, Sunday. The dinner was served in the dining room of the M. E. church to 70 members, who gathered from Sodus Bay, Ithaca, Interlaken, Trumansburg, Elmira, Port Allegany, Hornell, Almond, Greenwood, and Andover. A social time was held and matters of business discussed. The officers elected for the coming year are: President, Wilmer Cronk; secretary and treasurer, Miss Virgil Slaght.

New Ranger at Cuba Lake

Jacob Geyer has received the appointment of ranger at Cuba Lake, to succeed Flemming, who has held the position for eight years. The appointment was made by the Alle-gany State Park Commission as recommended by the Cuba Lake Cottage Owners Association. The appointment carries a salary of $1,200 per year.

Entertains Women of

Kirkpatrick Home

The ladies of the Kirkpatrick Home were invited to lunch and to spend the afternoon last Friday with Mrs. E. S. Moses. It was an occasion which will give pleasure whenever recalled. This is the third year Mrs. Moses has extended this gracious hospitality.—Cuba Patriot.

ning.

From lust for place or pomp or power, Save me with pure and passionate pride;
Curb not the hunger of my soul But keep ambition sanctified.
Safeguard Thy steward, Lord, each day,
By visions of the higher way.
