Surrogate Court News

William J. Ayers, Belfast, former of Robert J. Ayers, named administrator of the estate of deceased, to which he and Mrs. M. Ayers, mother, are the only heirs. Clara M. Travis, daughter of Randall Cole, and only heir was named administratrix of the estate of her son, Grace E. Rich, mother of Ralph Rich, was made administratrix of her son's estate, in which she and the father of the boy are interested.

Whether the above means the beginning of a fight against those who might be responsible under the law when the three Belfast young men were killed in the automobile accident July 28rd on the Black Creek road, is not yet determined.

Earl Dodge, Belmont, was named administrator de bonis non of the $7000 estate of Alfred L. Dodge, Alfred, who died April 27, 1927. Mrs. Dodge, widow, first named administratrix, died before completion of settlement of the estate in 1935. Her sons and four daughters are interested.

Have Narrow Escape

Bert Leach, well known farmer of Troupsburg and his brother-in-law, Bert Wright of Canisteo very nearly lost their lives Sunday afternoon at the Wheeler railroad crossing east of Cameron village. Their car was struck by Erie Train 8. The men jumped from each side of the car, Mr. Wright escaping by inches and Mr. Leach was struck by the car as the engine dashed into it. He was badly injured about the head and face, with other injuries and was rushed to St. James Mercy hospital in Hornell.

The Sereaders Orchestra, high school boys of Fillmore, played several selections, and a reading, "When the Missionary Comes to Call," four piano solos and a drill by the Cuba Rebekah Lodge furnished entertainment.

The gifts to the assembly president and other officers were presented in an unusual manner. Allegany District One offered its gifts in a rainbow drill; Allegany District Two with a star drill, one of the members singing "Star of the East," in a semi-darkened room. Light refreshments were served after the program.
