Dishes

Have just arrived—in 32 piece, 53 piece and 16 piece assortments—and you must come in and see them in order to appreciate the quality and beauty of them. You will be interested in the gay color combinations, the unusual shapes and the amazingly low prices! Any set makes an ideal home or personal gift. The choice is wide; the colors rich and striking; the designs unique, and the price of any one set spells economy. Come in and see the display at once—and make your selection while the stock is complete. Prices range from $3.75 to $7.98.

Dull Knives

Are a menace only to the fingers of the user. They work hard and cut in the wrong places. Sharpening stones are cheap and there is no patent on a keen cutting knife. Let us show you a sharpener that will do the trick easily and quickly. Kitchen Hones, 20c up.

Linoleum Rugs

Small attractive throw rugs—that will cover those worn spots in floor coverings, or if used in-time, will prevent them. Special this week at 10 cents.

"Did you give him a lift? He's a brother of man
And bearing about all the burden he can.
Did you give him a word? He was downcast and blue
And the right kind of word might have helped him get thru.
Did you stretch out your hand and pass him a smile?
It might have meant victory that last weary mile.
Did you do the right thing and point out the road,
Or did you just let him go by with his load?

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

Edward J. Cory, Minister

10:30, Public Worship. Every member and subscriber is asked to be present at this service. The budget of the church for the ensuing year will be presented, and opportunity provided for securing envelopes and making pledges. Immediately following a brief service, there will be a tureen luncheon served in the dining room, to which all are requested to contribute. The pastor will take up the matter of the importance of the church budget, and the privilege and duty of regular systematic giving. It should be a service of dedication thruout. Things are on the uptrend. Let us, as a church, keep pace with the upward movement. God needs us and ours for the advance of his kingdom. It is for us to fit into His plan and together work it out.

Will all concerned please attend to this, in order that our financial year may close with satisfaction to all?
6:30 p. m., the Young Peoples' meeting in the church parlor. A good attendance is desired.

Father and Son Injured

Last Thursday while Mark Wilson was helping with placing a metal roof on his buildings a sheet of the metal fell and cut one leg above and below the knee so that some eight clamps had to be set to close the wound. His father, Birney Wilson, was helping in the store while Mark was laid-up and hit his forehead on a shelf projection so that quite a gash was cut. Both are improving. —Whitesville News.
