TO sports writers, sports participants and sports fans 1935 was the banner year to date. Let me go on record now as saying 1935 will be greater in almost every way-especially in football. First, the so-called smaller colleges are coming into their own-no longer are they the scrub teams for the big boys. Second. better high school coaching has promoted better collegiate play and training. Third more dads, mothers, sisters and kid brothers are interested in the great Fall pastime. Fourth, no longer is the All-America team chosen exclusively from the Big Three, the Big Ten or the Big Anything. Now the smaller colleges all have a chance.

This is going to be fun, analyzing every week what I think are the ten best games of the coming Saturday from the viewpoint of up-State New York fans and trying to predict their results in advance.
