for Ralph to make an overland hike

miles northwest from camp.

to No. 2 Anthony Pond some five

On either side of the lake, and on number of the islands may be found numerous abandoned summer visited several of these monuments of the good old days when money llake from camp. It consisted or ried at least ten miles by boat. To good as mine. But in its day it was la magnificant mansion. Included in house, evidently as it had been run in ready for its owners. There was home of the founder

ANDOVER NEWS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

the Postoffice at Andover, New York.

OUR KEYNOTE:

ANDOVER, N. Y.	OCT. 9, 1936
Subscription R	ates
One Year	$2.00
Six Months

Roosevelt's Record

litical propaganda and do a little individual thinking. is to strike vitally at our means of self-defense.

ing demand of the coming months. The rural sections do not feel this as keenly as work of other ambitious powers to seek to strike at street, lately occupied by H F. Wil-1 those in the cities. On the other hand the rural in-our back to weaken our power of defense. habitants did not encounter the depression, with its i President Roosevelt has put forth great efforts to re-la few years from now. vive agriculture and to remove the cause of the depression and toady we are closer to economic and financial salvation in the Farm Belt than we have been!

for years. which should go far towards taking the bitterness out a fight to the finish for control of that country. of the present campaign.

teach the advantages of American system in our women and children had sought refuge from the fury "Bees" will be accompanied by Ex-

The peacock is the only hird that can street and get away with it.

rire Sateguards

life because of carelessness. Yet, loss is being gradually reduced, in both life Fascists of Spain out on top of the heap. and property, through fire prevention methods taught Aside from the present wholesale massacre of er to advantage its patrons.

have charged rates sufficient to cover the risk involved, the resultant upheaval in world affairs that would fol-It saw, however, that it had a public duty to perform low. from the standpoint of educating the public as to the necessity of fire prevention. It was an uphill struggle to obtain public co-operation. But today, after 44 may find it necessary to do so sooner or later. years of fire prevention activity, the American public really co-operates with the insurance companies to reduce the cost of insurance, which means the saving of lives and property.

The average town government throughout the land realizes that if it wishes low insurance rates it not potential industrial centers. This study has been must enforce laws and ordinances which keep the made in many places to determine along what lines town clean from the standpoint of rubbish, dangerous the community can best be developed. building construction and all sorts of fire hazards; and that it must have, in addition, a suitable water ment although a majority are. Yet, a cross section of supply and fire fighting equipment.

the greatest in the world and a heavy drain on the re- by the magic words, "more factories."

Some folks never get back on their feet until they get rid of their automobiles.

Give Them a Chance

EVERY young man is entitled to a fair opportunity en to the average individual enterprise? in the business and social world.

and moral qualifications, and not by the standard best be developed residentially, others as health an of the parents who brought him into the world. Such is sometimes, but not often, the case.

parents. The sins of the father are visited upon the not the most desirable and experience teaches that son, and the innocent youths suffers for the acts of frequently, because of failure, do the cause of city the guilty adult.

own acts make or break him.

Very few boys are as bad as the neighbors think' or as good as their parents think.

Pinnacle Mountain, near Cumberland Gap, Kentucky. community by one mistake in locating an industry. The needle fish, a deep-sea denizen, has its jaws! congeted into needlelike points.

Sabotage Increases

TITE cannot help from being impressed with the increasing number of incidents involving sabotage lin the vital branches of our national defense. The caused to the cables. This was the fourth blaze on new treaty cruisers from Saturday until Monday. within a year but other acts of such nature have been uncovered in the same period. Two arrests have been made for disposing of important naval information to representatives of Japan. One man was convicted and the case of the other is still pending. The increasing number of accidents to our air- wheels, Sunday.

craft, a majority of which are caused by unde- Miss Hattie Swarts and Joseph a well prepared and nicely served The United States Bureau NO clear thinking business man would discharge an many. It may be that the trend is only natural with F. Snyder's, Sunday. executive under whom the business had climbed the increase of activity in aviation. But there have Oscar M. Burdick of Little Gene-ed in social chat, cards and music. of wool dress-fabrics. True was a climbed to the increase of activity in aviation. But there have from failure to success and hire some unknown person been several of the accidents that have been traced see was in town yesterday, looking A pleasant feature was the meeting steds are made of long, good-quality and the success and hire some unknown person been several of the accidents that have been traced see was in town yesterday, looking A pleasant feature was the meeting steds are made of long, good-quality and the success and hire some unknown person been several of the accidents that have been traced see was in town yesterday, looking A pleasant feature was the meeting steds are made of long, good-quality and the success and hire some unknown person been several of the accidents that have been traced see was in town yesterday, looking A pleasant feature was the meeting steds are made of long, good-quality and the success and hire some unknown person been several of the accidents that have been traced see was in town yesterday, looking A pleasant feature was the meeting steds are made of long, good-quality and the success and hire some unknown person been several of the accidents that have been traced see was in town yesterday, looking A pleasant feature was the meeting steds are made of long, good-quality and the success and long seeds are made of long seeds and long seeds are made of long seeds are made who promised to reduce total expenditures without re-to causes that were not natural. Unfortunately, it has after his political fences. ducing any one expediture. We believe that any indi- never been possible to trace them to their source, so Miss Ella Chase of Whitesville vidual who had savings in a bank or any conscientious far as is generally known. While all of these acci-employed at Mrs. Mourhess' millin-present. banker unwilling to give Mr. Reosovelt and the pres-|dents of peculiar nature have occurred in the system|ery store this week. ent administration credit for the recovery in the bank-of our commercial air activity, this service and its Oh, the brown October with its ing business is indeed ungrateful. One should stop a multiple equipment and organization forms the back- seer and yellow leaf. moment in the midst of the deluge of Republican po-bone of our aerial defense. To cause trouble there. It is a fact that the average business man today is These acts of sabotage that are definitely known our campaign badges. not harassed with the business worries as he was in as such and others that are suspiciously bordering on Tramps were never so numerous 1932. There is an increasing volume of trade; he is the same category, may be the acts of mentally un- in the county as at present. expanding, he is planing what to do to meet the grow-balanced persons or disgruntled service men, but it is ing to find employment. Farm prices were low, but ber these are the good old days we will be longing for to be employed at such labor as the

TOR nearly three months, the world has received James Owens' tannery and has of Alfred Station, pastor of the our deep well pump and why it does President Roosevelt's refusal to allow his daily reports of one of the bloodiest struggles in transferred it to his saw and grist Seventh Day Baptist church there, not stay primed? I am enclosing drought conference with the Prairie Governors to de-modern history that is being waged between the two mill where it is now getting in its Henry E. Livermore, brother of the a sketch of the well, pump, valves Governor Landon, is an example of magnanimity another of the periodical flare-ups has developed into O. L. Barney of Whitesville has All rules of warfare have been disregarded, par- Greenwood street lately occupied

The attempt to pin the communist label on the ticularly by the radicals who represent the remains of by Dr. F. E. Comstock, as an office New Deal is just another desperate Republican trick. the government forces which were in control at the and will establish a jewelry business Where is there a country that has such great advant-joutset of the internal disruption. Prisoners have been there. ages in the freedom of speech. President Roosevelt murdered in cold blood for revenge. Women and chilhas supported and advocated educational programs to dren have suffered the same fate as the men in many tual Tent No. 18, K.O.T.M., will atcombat the spread of subversive influences in our instances, noteworthy among which was the blowing tend the Maccabee reunion and con-Let the radicals argue for their cross then up of the fortress Alcazar at Toledo where 1700 men, vention at Wellsville tomorrow. The committed which have been described as unprintable. Itwo musical organizations of which The horrible slaughter bids fair to continue until Andover is justly proud. one side or the other has completely subdued the The Mutual Gas Co., will lay a fish weighed 14, 15 and 16 pounds "Examine the check valve care." enemy. At present, indications and best information four-inch pipeline from Main street each. None weighed less than five fully to see if it is the type suited would lead to the opinion that the Fascists will prove direct to the Joyce well, a distance pounds. If you don't believe it ask for a vertical pipe and also to devictorious since Mussolini is throwing undercover sup- of two and three-quarters miles. the boys to show you the pictures termine whether it closes tightly. THE day never passes when one or more lives are not port to this side. Arms, money and active aerial fight- This will afford the consumers here taken of them. taken by fire. A heavy tribute is paid in human ing by Italian forces is reported to be the bid of the a steady pressure of gas at all times. Dr. W. H. Loughhead will open an dictator at the present time toward bringing the Our home company may be depend-office on Main street in Andover, i in every conceivable manner. Fire prevention activi- victims, the lamentable outlook for the future is that Mrs. Hanna Chord of New Jersey, Hawthorne Club as a delegate ties were started as early as 1892 by the national the country may never be able to recover from the re- at the age of 107, has given up the the County Federation of Women's board of fire underwriters, and at first the task seemed sults of the civil strife regardless of which side is vic- use of tobacco, because she has be- Clubs at Cuba, Tuesday and Wedtorious. Former uprisings and dissention had so weak- come convinced that it is shortening nesday. Mrs. Anna Cannon and The general impression once was that if property ened Spain econmically that all of her resources and her life. It is beautiful to see one Mrs. Frank Burrows were the delewas insured, it made little difference whether it property were needed to bring order out of the mud-thus early in life give up an evil gates of the Lucy Stone Club. burned or not — the insurance company paid the bill. dle. Now that the climax of property and life de-practice without waiting, as too On the Cuba cheese market about Then the human element was scarcely considered. stroying has been brought about, it is doubtful if self many do, until the habit is fastened 2,000 boxes of cheese were solv If the insurance business had wished to follow rule will ever be possible in a successful way. This upon them. the easiest read, it could have accepted this view and will open the door to conquest by stronger powers and

Two can never live as cheaply as one, though they

Growing Communities

THE conclusion has been reached, after extensive survey and study, that all American towns are the opinion on growth in the average town would Public schools are teaching children the danger show a demand for new industries. As a rule, when a involved in the careless handling of fire. The general town has a community revival and sets out to increase public has been pretty thoroughly awakened to the fact its population, it strikes out blindly, with little idea of that our average annual fire loss of $5 per capita is what it needs or what it is seeking, being spurred on Such efforts often result in disaster and the cause! of community boosting gets a severe setback. Sometimes it is fatal and the town goes into a long-sleep; never recovering from the shock.

The idea suggested above sounds reasonable. Why shouldn't there be as much planning and foresight used in community development, as there is giv-

In some towns manufacturing might destroy He is entitled to be judged by his own mental more values than it would create. Some towns can recreational centers. Of course, new industries are invaluable for the purpose of increasing population Many a young man of great promise is seriously and creating new business. But industries that have hampered by the reputation of one or both of his to be "bribed" to locate in the community are often and town boosting serious harm. There should be a This is true because as a civilized people we are good sound reason for a factory being located. And not yet entirely civilized. A polished veneer covers there should be care used in the selection of the right the surface, but often fails to penetrate to the heart. kind of factory. It should be one that is in tune witih Give the young man a fair chance, and let his the march of progress — one that will promise em-

Turning Back the Pages of Andover History damage was Mosher & Greene, Editor & Publisher).

T. K. Regan was in Wellsville

Dr. Loughlen is occupying Mrs. dist church, in presence of some 60 other less expensive fibers; but all just as easy to believe that they are the underhanded M. A. Woodbury's house on Dyke relatives and friends.

> |county judge or board of supervisors | Walter Lanphear has purchased October 6. The ceremony was perthe big boiler formerly used taken possession of the building on of the maddened radicals. Other atrocities have been celsion band and the Euterpe Club ed upon to do everything in its pow- a few days.

derived from the Roman "moneta," cities, Monday. the name given to their silver by E. L. Hann returned Wednesday the Romans because it was coined in from a visit to his son. Leslie Hann the temple of Juno Moneta, 69 B. C. at Albany.

Down The Stretch -

Harvey Backus, Owner and Editor,

Firemen's Banquet The social event of the week was Supt. of the Poor Sidney Crandall the firemen's banquet, under the of Angelica was in town Monday. | auspices of the Citizens' Hose Com-H. H. Williams and Frank Gilder pany, Wednesday evening. Thirty took a run to Friendship on their members of the fire department and the difference between worsted and about 20 invited guests partook of woolen material." toastmaster. The evening was pass and woolens are the two main types again of the Euterpe Club. Six of combed wool fibers. They have des the eight original members were nite weaves and firm finishes, so the

Williams-Smith Iseason occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orange Smith on the even-1 ing of Oct. 3rd when their daugh- they have weaves that are fulled ter, Jennie E. and Burrel Cole Wil- and felted. Poor quality Woolens liams were united in marriage by can be cheapened and even adulter a Rev. M. E. Hedding of the Metho- ated with short, inferior wool and

After the first of January next The marriage of Miss Ella Maude be better for early fall wear because Livermore to Allen W. Corwin of it is not so warm. Also, cotton and Corwin Hill, occurred at the home wool mixed, shrinks less when washof the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. ed than all wool." Elwin Livermore, Saturday evening, formed by the Rev. E. D. VanHorn please tell me what is wrong with bride, and Mrs. Charlotte Corwin, and piping to the house." sister of the groom, acted as best! Professor A. M. Goodman of > Mrs. Frank Mead, aged 27 years, ed by one or several things. died at her home in the town of "Perhaps the pump valve leaks; Greenwood, Oct. 2, after an illness or there may be a small air leak in of six weeks from typhoid fever. the long suction pipe; or the check She was the daughter of Mr. and valve in the pipe in the well may

A fine catch of northern pike was caused by the check valve in the brought home from Conesus Lake well, because this valve is very like. by Frank Martin and Ernest Stearns ly to leak and if it did not leak the last week. The entire catch of the other two causes of trouble would party weighed 100 pounds. Three not very likely prove serious.

Mrs. F. S. Clark represented the Ruling price 12 1/2 c. W. B. Bundy returned from The word "money" is said to be trip to New York and other eastery

Guy F. Akin of Chautanon guest of his brother, r Dyke street this week. Lis in Andover making arrangement

Mrs. J. F. asks: "Please tall shape. Examples of familiar wor. sted materials are: dress challie

. I wool crepe, and serge. "Woolen materials, however and heavier and therefore warmer, and ! mixed woolens are not poor buys Some mixtures are better for some tuses than all-wool. A mixture of cotton and wool, for instance, may away, in spit of his protests. tense, his lips in a compressed line, his eyes fixed unwaveringly on the F. C. V. W. writes: "Will you His keen glance had caught sight ox agricultural engineering department answers: "The trouble may be caus. " fleak. Most likely the trouble is pressed the trigger. Helf the body of a man lurched hand.

Without Calemal—And You'll Jemp Out of Bod in the Morning Rarin' to Go name, Stubbornly refuse anything else. The Subscribe for the Andover News

have enclosed other suggestions" posite the window, falling at full of a falling body. let hole just above his left ear and got him—yuh got him." one in the side of his neck. He was in a near faint. Delevan swore help-| yells had doubled in ferocity and | lessly, terribly. Johnny, white and the gunfire rolled to a shattering, harsh, crouched over and dragged sustained roar. his window corner and settled down carried through the dark.

to his watching. In that position darkness found them.

Thus felt Johnny Clehoe as mid-on the small Johnny gulped. "Ain't I been ish." nof the Kanab desert coun- wishin' an' prayin' the same thing," But yuh got Spelle?" protested, Bank and by San Juan Delevan, Good ole Tex — he's like a dad to layin' jest outside that front window trude Pierson, Mrs. Nellie Ersley, attended church services in Olean, to what it cost to build there is as "I know. He's wonderful. With on the porch with a .45 between his Miss Minnie Ersley, Mr. and Mrs. Sunday. trippled by and his partner, John- his clear old eyes and funny, quirky eyes. An' that thievin' four-fingered, Thomas Murray and daughters, Wal-Tex Whippie and cowpunchers em- smile. Yet I feel that he can be ter- half-breed son o' his was the two- ter Redmond, Lewis Abel and W. G. ployed by San Juan Delevan to fight rible if he's aroused." Long they crouched there in the Ole Jim told me all about it." dark. Two children, and just a wee! "How about you - did yuh get! oit afraid of a stark, murder-filled them cattle?" asked Johnny.

velled Johnny. "I'm gonna be set | God's sake take a new position. Pore little kid, she's havin' a tought "I'm glad she's asleep. She likes !-

banueus smash the local bank and If only Tex was here."

Now Go on With the Story

FINAL INSTALMENT

They got yuh figgered."

The old cattleman swore

"He's on top o' the bunkhouse," made no move to push himself to another point. It was Ronny who yuh, son." darted up and drew her father tinued and grew into the shape of a rent of yells shattered the silence. now." long, black gun barrel which was And with them came the rumble and "That shore lisitens fine," mur-Goodno treasurer. being shoved over and trained on thunder of shots. There was a clat- mured Johnny. "I'm dead sick o' the ranchhouse. Johnny swung his ter of boots upon the porch and fightin'. I done had enough roamin't sights into line, drawing a fine bead something crashed at one wide around. I want to settle down an'i iust above that threatening barrel. porch window, tearing away sash grow fat an' sprout a beard." Cautiously the upper half of a bared and splintered remnants of glass in "Yeah?" Tex's eyes were twinkcentered his bead and opening catapulted a dark, maglig- have somethin' to say about that—

Like a flash Johnny lowered sech things." The hig Sharps rifle teetered on the Ronny to the floor and leaped away, "Huh," grunted Johnny Jidge pole for a moment then tipped careless of movement and noise, just yuh're smart don't yuh?" over and slid halfway down the so he could draw that ruthless fire "Nope — jest a prophet, 100f, where it stuck and held, in from the girl. He stumbled against all. An' I'll betcha a new hat plain view of the exultant Johnny. a chair and it skittered and crashed right." "That's one cannon spiked. I got in front of him, immediately those Johnny smiled up at him. him, Jim. An' the big gun's in plain flaming guns winked and flared to-sight on the roof where the rest wards him. Something struck him low on the Johnny's triumph was short lived. left side, burning across his ribs like I'll send her in." started to circle from Delevan's side of flame which spat at him. There was awarded by having Tex catch "Johnny," bawled Delevan. "Yuh velvety cheek. In the rear of the house Pink Crosby's Winchester was crashing At her father's side Ronny sagged in steady cadence, while outside the

the body into a dark corner. Then, There came a rustle of skirts and without a word he padded back to Ronny's voice, fearful and broken

But Ronny did nothing of the Ronny scurried to the doorway, Marcus, Jr., died Sunday morning. -much. Just a little, while waiting night. pense whips the nerve centers tout kind. She stumbled through the where she halted and looked back. and unyielding. At these times the Johnny. She felt the warm sticki-!

grows until danger and hand to hand | Johnny was not exactly falling men." "A'right,"—jest a little dizzy. us ole wolves around."

deeper than the opaque veil which He ended up finally, half lying, our are the real quill."

Johnny's side with a cup of coffee yuh? It's Tex-it's Tex. The ole en ray bathed them in its radiance, which Chang had managed to brew gray wolf's come to look after his softening the grim, sculptured by some celestial legerdemain, did cub. Now Spelle—damn yuh—here's harshness of their features to one realize fully again that he was where yuh—get—yore—needin's." of mellowed contentment.

SYNOPSIS — Silas Spelle, high- are going to rush the house soon. I "Yuh danged young hellion," that he can seize their range he muttered hoarsely. "God-yes, Johnny. He is opposed by Ed. Star- if'n Tex was here he'd lick Speele's "Nope-not us. You got him." buck, president of the Cattlemen's whole damn outfit single handed. "Son, yuh shore did. He was wards, Miss Virgil Slaght, Miss Ger- Grace Young were among those who $12,000 to $15,000. Your guess as gun man yuh downed in the room. Kellogg.

"Yore danged right we did. We odist Episcopal church and friends 1" Long after, Jim Delevan stirred had a little trouble findin' 'em but were much gratified to learn that !! railroad. The Box D iron was blot- of appointments made at the Gene-"She's here, Jim," answered John- ted on every critter, turned into see Conference in Olean.

"She's asleep on my shoulder. a Gridiron P. A lot o' it was mighty sketchy work. We cornered jasper who claimed to own 'em an'

Johnny that the murk outside was clean. Like we figgered, Spelle was spring. so very far away. Then the storm an' all it's been quite some storm. president in place of Mrs. Milton noses and are gone. My camp com-central house, with four cottages thinning somewhat. Dawn was not behind the whole deal. Takin' it by Mrs. George McKinley is the new But the air's cleaned up an' we can Chaffee. Mrs. Lester York was panions, however, were very charit- near, a keepers lodge, water plant con. From all sides of the house a tor-settle down to honest cattle raisin' elected vice president; Miss Ruth able, and allowed that the water was and electric Delco light house. This Caravan Visits Here Mrs. Caroline O'Day, Congress-) woman-at-Large, with a caravan of head showed. Johnny held his a flurry of blows. Then through the ling. "I reckon somebody else will speakers paid a brief visit to Green. wood, Thursday afternoon.

> nant figure, a spitting gun in each the beard an' the hay window, mean. Women are touchy about I'm their last regular meeting. Where is she?"

"Out on the porch with her dad.. Just as Speel's cohorts, driven to a white hot iron. It spun him half Tex swaggered the length of the madness by the sight of another about but he steadied and drove two bullet scarred porch with mischief casualty on their side, opened up in quick shots in return, holding low glowing in his eyes. Ronny Delevan fury from all angles, Doc McMurdo down and between the crimson arcs watched his approach curiously and Mrs. Pearl Smith, Trustee. to Johnny. He went down just op- was a cough, a gurgle and the thud her by both shoulders and plant a iting friends in Penn Yan.

"Why-what-" stammered the the bride to be. Ain't mad are City. Ronny blushed furiously. told you that?" she demanded. and Mrs. Richard Cook. "We're all right child," boomed mine wants to see yuh. Pronto now ing in West Clarksville, Monday for dinner.

"Jim, we're danged lucky!

conflict are to be welcomed with but he was slumping slowly down- "Yore damn right. Tex, I hope ward, his shoulders against the wall. there'll be leetle fellers later or "I'm a'right," he muttered hoarse- leetle pudgy fellers to tug an' paw "They will be, Jim. Them kids o'ı > here I stay. Right here I sit an "Listen-I watch the days peter out down there hear 'em-I hear 'em. Texas guns across the desert."

Many Attend Funeral Brundage attended the Method. Conference in Olean, Friday. Miss Marian Chaffee has gone

Pastor Returns Here

Parent-Teacher Association

The first meeting of Greenwood group of members of the Rebekah located about two miles down the SYNUTON Rev. and Mrs. Shirley L. Travis 1,000 acres on the northwest shore. much fer Utah an' Al an' me to fin- Mrs. J. H. Goodno, Mr. and Mrs. were recent guests of Rev. and Mrs. On the main land, on a high emin-Matt Rogers and son Jerome, Mrs. Robert Horton of Cohocton. While ence was constructed a 15-room Archie Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. H. there, Rev. Travis was guest speaker mansion. Every stick of timber, C. McCaffery, Mrs. Louis Murdock, at a Loyalty banquet in honor of every brick and nail had to be car-Miss Grace Young, Miss Cecelia Mc- Rev. Horton. Cormick, Miss Ruth Salzer, Miss Mr. and Mrs. Milton Chaffee and build such a home in Andover would Dorothy Cooper, Miss Luella Ed- family, Miss Ellen Young and Miss have cost at the least calculation

POPULAR PLAYGROUND great 32-foot launch is still in the Members of the Greenwood Meth-i five of us started out on a fishing a large ice house and sheds and trip. We fished until dark. We outbuildings. In the house we countin his chair and cleared his throat. we finally located 'em in a little val- the Rev. Shirley L. Travis has been cast for small-mouth black bass and ed eight large roomy bedrooms up-"Ronny," he called softly. "Where ley about fifty miles north o' the returned to this church as the result like we. Shirley L. Travis has been pike. There are lots of fish in this stairs, a parlor, dining room, dance returned to this church as the result like. There are lots of fish in this stairs, a parlor, dining room, dance returned to this church as the result like. boys in camp have come home in storeroom and woodshed. Surroundpast days with splendid catches, ed on three sides was a wide glassed Whether some smart Andover guy and screened porch. In two of the had telephoned up here that I was rooms now stand beautiful and exa leetle questionin' got him to tan- Parent Teacher Association was held coming I have not been able to de-pensive fireplaces. Now the proper-Johnny's arms tightened around rame was. Utah an' Al an' me de-building. A welcome to the teach-termine yet, but there is one thing ty is nearly all decayed, and is the termine yet, but there is one thing ty is nearly all decayed, and is the teach-that is certain, every fish in the lake home of hedgehogs. Every piece of the teach-that is certain, every fish in the lake home of hedgehogs. the sleeping girl. She stirred and clared a showdown an' the pastler ers was extended by Lester York, a knew I was there. The Long Lake glass in the place has been broken. moaned a little, like an infant boss an' his gang elected to shoot it member of the Board of Education. fish acted just about the same as do Another fine abandoned property out. It was their mistake. We got It was necessary to hold a special those in Lake Lamoka, Loon Lake, is built on Peterson Island, just in The air was stark with the chill the whole story from one o' them election of officers due to the resig- Demond's Pond or Cuba Lake, when front of our camp. Here the propof early morning. It seemed to what was due to crash. He came nation of several officers elected last I go fishing with the boys. They erty was not abandoned until 1930, just come up, say "Hello Harvey," when the depression caused the switch their tails and thumb their death of its owner. There is a large

> Salzer secretary and Mrs. J. H. too warm, that the fish were in deep property could be replaced very water to keep cool. Of course I easily. Concrete walks connect the knew better; knew that they were buildings. playing hide and seek with me. How- Real estate here is obtainable at ever, the boys did catch some fine quite reasonable prices. We were fish (when I remained in camp) and offered 26 acres of lake front land brought back to Andover a fine for $3,500. After two weeks at their camp. The atmosphere at Long Lake is we had to reluctantly start for home just as clean and pure as it can be. Wednesday, Sept. 30th. We beat We think the atmosphere at And-the going out record by 45 minutes

District Deputy Miss Evangeline over is mighty fine—and it is in and saved over 30 miles by learning Vanderlip of Canisteo and Past comparison with many other places the best way to make the trip. Deputy Mrs. Sara Talbot were guests - but the Long Lake atmosphere In closing, we want to say that of Greenwood Rebekah Lodge at has even Andover air beaten a mile Ralph Shaff and Erwin Baker are for its purity. There are no ground princes among fellows and know the The following officers were elect-gases, no impurities from monoxide camping game to perfection. They from the automobiles, no contamin- are royal hosts and mighty kind and Mrs. Rachael Wallace, Noble ation from civilization. The sky is considerate companions. —J.H.B.

a clearer blue, the sunrays come Mrs. Laura Scribner, Vice Grand. with more intensity. We think this Approve More Power Mrs. Agnes Osmin, Financial Sec- woeld be an ideal place for Dr. Jack Station for WHDL, Olean to come and start a haven for asth-Mrs. Cora Dennis, Recording Sec- ma or hay fever patients. In fact The Federal Communications Comwe were told that the state is now mission approved of the requests ap-Mrs. Blanche Goodno, Treasurer. making tests of the action of this plied for by the Olean Broadcasting pure air upon the hay fever suffer- Company, Inc., to increase the powers, and have not yet found a per- er from 100 to 250 watts and wave Mrs. Shirley L. Travis and daugh- son who had been here to have suf- length from 1420 to 1400 kilocycles resounding, shameless kiss on one ter, Sylvia, have returned from vis-fered in the least with hay fever, and the authority to install a new They are planning to make this a Western Electric transmitting equip-Mrs. J. H. Goodno, Mrs. George resort for those suffering with asth-ment, which will be housed in a McKinley and Mrs. Arling Cobb ma and hay fever. The sun shaes building of all glass construction. "Now don't get excited, young were in Bath, Friday, to attend a hot here in the middle of the day, With this building there is a tower 'un," chuckled Tex. "I'm jest salutin' lecture by Mrs. Tobey of New York and the nights and mornings are to be erected at approximately 308 real cool, enough so that a fire in feet, which will be illuminated at Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hahn of the tent is most enjoyable. It keeps night with obstruction lighting rec-"Who Bath were week-end guests of Mr. a fellow busy changing from winter ommended by the Department of to summer clothing and then back Commerce. Altho Olean at present

"Nobody. Shucks I got eyes ain't Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wallace to winter again. I tell the boys we is not on the route of any establish-"Johnny-dad-where are you?" I? By the way, that young cub o' and Mrs. Clayton Scribner were call- are very fashionable. We "dress" ed airlines, WHDL will comply with Mrs. Marcus Congdon, whose son, Presbyterians, we didn't go fishing will be visible for several hiles at

"HIAGARA, LOCKPORT & ONTARIO POWER CO.