President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Governor Herbert H. Lehman and the Entire Democratic State Ticket Was Re-elected by Majorities Running Into the Thousands in Tuesday's Election.

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and his New received almost a unanimous endorsement at Tues-Tay's election. He carried 46 of the 48 states by wonmajorities, having a vote in the electoral college  $\P_{\text{of }523}$  out of a possible  $\bar{5}31$ , which even exceeds his  $19\bar{3}2$ inprecedented majority. Cook ('ounty, in which Chicago is situated, rolled up such & mammoth majority for Roosevelt that it was impossible r the rural districts to overcome. Even Ohio came in h its overwhelming Roosevelt majority.

Never in the history of the country was such a unan-, imous endorsement given to a candidate's activities as has been given by the American people as the New Deal received at their hands in Tuesday's election. California came to Roosevelt by half a million votes; Illinois 560,000, Michigan by 100,000, New York by 1,119,000,1 This by 300,000, Pennsylvania by 500,000.
