seed has no wings itself, birds transmals not only carry seeds but plant

ANDOVER NEWS PUBLISHED WEEKLY

BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor OUR KEYNOTE:

"If There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

NOV. 6, 1936 right with America?" Instead of one investigation af-year around operation of factories and subsequent employment. Under the old plan, a curtailment of activity invariably resulted during the last two or three;

erence and how much do you want to pay. Personally

A Worthwhile Sport

we would like to have any one of them.

others for the national championship.

the holiday season when a job was needed most.

car have been provided.

in the proper way.

from every standpoint.

sentiments really believe?

drag along.

takes brains.

ing a set of false teeth,

The Matter of Money

that financial success is not genuine success.

ter. The habit of thrift is a fine habit to acquire.

but there were high fliers in grandfather's day.

local in character or national in its scope.

keeps count of all the big fish stories.

you are liable to run out of business.

New Cars Appearing

I vintage are now in the hands of dealers and are ever before in the experience of man, that the plea of beginning to appear on the streets. Some companies the fault-finder resolves itself in a wall of selfish dishave not yet made distribution of their new models, but content.

eat harm that it can cause

Of course, there are too many laws and regulations daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William living on his farm in East Valley at the start, neither side being able month, following the same production idea as initiated because there is over-regulation of everything. But Bacon of Caneadea, to Benoni Car- until last winter, when he moved to to score. Doran, McGinty, R last year. This method of putting the new models out the fault-finders are responsible for this in the first penter of Gainsville. The groom Alfred. in the fall instead of waiting until the first of the year place. They have popularized the idea that everything teaches near Silver Springs, where as was the previous practice, proved to be a great boon can be corrected by law which has built up an inherent they will make their home. to manufacturers and their employees in maintaining resentment against the continual "Don't do this."

Preserving Documents

possession of the government receives great consid-home of the bride. They will reside does, when a piece flew up striking Prof. W. C. Cannon of Section The new 1937 models that have been viewed to eration in Washington where an expert is employed at Bolivar. who has been so occupied nearly 30 years. He is Wm. Oct. 31.—Miss Joanne M. Turner, troying the sight. proved convenience. While many mechanical improve- G. Walde, and he has an assistant who has worked al- daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. most as long in that capacity as Walde, William W. Wainman of Olean to Richard H. John Nichols has sold his proper-

ity. Bodies have been further streamlined, enlarged! and made comfortable. Added luggage and carrying state, where most of the priceless documents are to be a graduate of Belmont High School avenue. space has been provided and many small things have found. They restore invaluable historical documents and is now employed at the Sinclair Dr. Geo. E. Burdick has sold his rooms in the John Prest brick block been given careful attention which in the aggregate go that have lain on dusty shelves for decades and become refinery at Wellsville. to make a much more convenient and satisfying autosoiled, and in addition have been yellowed with age, which also with air has rendered them very brittle. Greater safety has been a major consideration in Page by page the craftsmen piece together the designing the new cars. Bodies are stronger, better fragments of documents and manuscripts, so that his- Oct. 31.—Alonzo B. Hyde, prom-Swartz of Greenwood were Andover built and the all-metal tops appear on every car to torians may unearth for future generations the wealth inent Friendship resident, died sud- guests Saturday. date. Many other safeguards for the occupants of the of historical data they relate. Among them are treaties denly at his home due to a sudden. Miss Flora Bundy, Mrs. C. L. laying contest at Horseheads to date between the United States and foreign nations and heart attack. Services were held at Earley and Mrs. Patterson visited in this year. The high pen is owned In other considerations—color, power, speed, size, other state papers of great value.

etc., it seems to be just a matter of what'a your prefters the signature of Thomas Jefferson, signatures terv characterized by the bold stroke of George Washing- Oct. 31.—William Ferdinand Wack Andover relatives the past week. MORN shucking contests have begun and champions No pains have been spared to save them.

the football season, and one is led to wonder if some ernment.

making country life attractive, there ought to be a the change of seasons with the resultant frost which for a year. She is survived by one kind of pride in the way corn is picked. It ought to has transformed leaves and shrubs into a myriad of daughter, Mrs. Sarah Litchard. be an art. A corn picker ought to be as proud of his rich colors, have lured thousands of city people to long Oct. 18.—Gerald Lester Wilson, ing are her husband, William F. started in 1935 for 4-H poultry club work as any other artisan, who, after all, is a kind of rides and more intimate associations with nature. For World War veteran, died following Hogan, her parents and one sister, members. A similar program has the most part, these excursions spring from a wholly a heart attack in Binghamton. He Sister Mary of the Angels of St. been planned for the 1937 club year. The qualifications for corn pickinig require that laudable motive and are carried out with due propriety was born in Belfast and only son of Paul's convent, St. Petersburg, Fla. the candidate for the championship not only works fast and restraint. Easy transportation and good roads add Mrs. Mary Wilson. Besides his wid- Oct. 29,—Herbert L. Smith of but that he keeps his corn clean. Husks must be few to the pleasure of such outings.

—the ears must be clear of all except corn. There However, there are some who feel that they must three sisters. is considerable skill called for in seizing the ear and complete their trips by coming back laden with souven- Oct. 22.—Mrs. Weltha Angeline Painted Post. Funeral services were and sweet for use on ships or in disjerking the husks off and throwing it into the wagon irs. Enough of these people sally forth every fall day Taylor of Turtle Point, Pa., died at held in the Methodist church. to create a considerable problem for park officials and the age of 84 years. She was born City folks would be surprised to see how well farmers. Oblivious to personal property rights, which in Belfast and taught school in this these corn picking contests are attended—if they never ordinarily they respect, they strip the roadsides and vicinity during her early life. She saw one, and most of them haven't. The farmers who woods of sumac, bittersweet and the bright foliage of leaves seven children, 20 grandgo to see their favorites perform may not be led by trees. They may go so far as to dig bushes for trans-children and 21 great-grandchildren. cheer leaders, nor do they wear fur coats. But they planting at home. Not only do they take something Oct. 24.--Cruger B. Kaple, at his are interested in a way that is real and vivid, not which does not belong to them, but leave the scars to home in Almond, aged 80 years. He;

next spring and plant it in corn, it would be amazed By persisting in campaigns of education, and ap- had always made his home in that to see the attendance at the corn picking contest that peal to the spirit of fair play that dominates the com-vicinity. He is survived by his they might stage. It might be a good move for some munity relations of nearly all people, leaders in con-widow and one son. of them to try it. At any rate, the corn husking con-servation and beautification movements have brought Oct. 24.—Mrs. Margaret Moore tests are clean, wholesome, honest and truly worthwhile about a considerable reform. They have also had the Hogan died in the Cleveland, Ohio support of farmers long since grown impatient of the clinic and funeral services were held habits of inexperienced hunters.

If you go sightseeing in a tryst with nature, remember that there are others who will come after you MONEY and the people who have it are let in for a who want to enjoy the same beauty that you experlot of abuse. All too often public speakers con-lienced as you traveled along. Don't mar it by defacing demn wealth and close their addresses with appeals for that beauty by a desire to bring it home with you. funds for their pet hobbies. School children are taught Leave it intact for all to enjoy. It won't amount to much after you bring it home for you must have it all

But how much of this talk is cheap clap trap? to have anything at all. How much do the people who give utterance to such Dead men tell no tales, but their tombstones are Of course, the making of money should not be a sometimes awful fibbers. single purpose in life; neither should it be the chief aim, but it should be one goal, because money is es-Perhaps the most remarkable thing about some of our modern books is that they succeed in getting thru' To save money means to make money and characthe mails.

The abuse of money is wrong and has a bad influ-When the driver in front of you holds out his ence on others, but the right use of money is an im- hand, all you need is the skill of a mind reader.

portant factor of every worthwhile movement, whether Folks who know it all have one thing yet to learn -what other people think of them.

Sometimes we wonder how the recording angel Character is one of the few things that can't be obtained by placing a classified ad in the paper. Life is short, but many people manage to let it dom get better-only bigger. Don't follow the footsteps of others. It is better o make bigger tracks of your own. It doesn't take a telescope to see the future—ir show, which seems all wrong. The prize should have Trouble with mixing business and pleasure is that gone to the fleas.

One good fish story deserves another, but they sel-!

Lots of folks get away from the old grind by buy- do is build a private road for use of Ivan Morgan's

Too Much Fault-finding

Oct. 26.-To Mr. and Mrs. John CONTINUAL fault-finding is a dangerous practice and u and a bad habit to acquire. It is dangerous in an Watson of Cuba, a son, Raymond ndividual and dangerous for a people because of the Eugene. Oct. 24.—To Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Constant fretting and complaining will corrode the Howard of Friendship, a son. The attitude that something is Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cook of Troups Oct. 25.—To Mr. and Mrs. Lewis

Oct. 20 .- To Mr. and Mrs. Albert; er another to attempt to find something wrong, why H. Carnes of East Valley, a daughnot an effort to focus attention on the good qualities ter. Oct. 31.-A son, to Mr. and Mrs.: The most useful patriotism is optimism—not Raymond Sortore of Scio.

Marriages

Oct. 24.—Miss Jane Isabelle Mac-) Donell, daughter of Mrs. Lotta Mac-his left eye last week by being Friday.

They are chiefly employed in the department of Snyder of Belmont. Mr. Snyder is purchased a house on Rochambeau bank building.

the late home with Masonic services Hornell Thursday.

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at

OM

Turning Back the Pages of Andover History

FORTY YEARS AGO

The marriage of Miss Celesta B. S. Brundage has engaged in nendence occurred at the home of and pharmacist in Dr. E. M. Still the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. man's drug store. He will deal; Maxson Crandall, Thursday, Nov. 8. drugs, dyes, patent medicines The News joins the many friends in paper, stationery, fancy goods.

ed Thursday at his home in Alfred. urday afternoon. The score at the Oct. 23.—Miss Edith M. Bacon, Mr. Witter was well known here, end of the game stood the same as

Joseph Williams and L. D. Bron. Donell of Bolivar, to Hubert R. struck in the face by a flying sliver. E. F. Earley and family of Allen. Batts, son of Mr. and Mrs. George He was breaking thin strips of wood town visited at the home of Crayton months of the year with workers out of a job during THE matter of restoring priceless decuments in the F. Batts of Sullivan, Ind., at the with his foot, as nearly everyone L. Earley on Sunday. him squarely in the eye, totally des- Hall College, South Orange. N

Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry ty on Hill street to Hiram Boyd and ance business to the Andover State residence and practice to Dr. C. C. Demer, who will take possession at Barred Rocks Lead State Miss Rema Tucker and Miss Frequently there has been found among the let-at the grave in Maple Grove ceme- Mr. and Mrs. Allen Corwin of legany county entry with a total of Painted Post have been guests of 82 eggs and 69.25 points, the second entry of Joseph Famighetti, of Nas-

St. Mary's church, Bolivar. Surviv- part of an intensive poultry program daughter, Mrs. Leon Wheaton of of freezing milk to keep it fresh

REDDY KILOWATT AND HIS FRIENDS

Oh, gosh, doesn't you must be sure and get them all A faint frown of discontent twist- a moment. "You'd better let me "The number of disaster victims as a much smaller cone and a smaller has been a made a smaller better let me a moment." he look swell!" SYNOPSIS-Maria Trevor is dised her dainty lips. A girl would be go over this after you finish, for a sisted by the Red Cross during the fister seede (like a mustard seed) than when alighting on moist soil, germicouraged because Rod O'Rorke uses lucky to get a man like that along slip in any of these quotations might cal year ended June 30. was more than many coniferous trees one-tenth its nate so quickly that in two days a l his money developing an invenwith all his father's millions. Didn't mean a terrible loss for the house." four times the number aided in the presize, and incidentally, the name of a someone say his grandmother had "All right," answered Maris, slipleft him a million too? Gosh, some ping a sheet of carbon between the ant rather than deny themselves folks have the luck! for the future. She becomes uncer-"Now," she thought, "if only I she put them in her machine.

tain of her love for nou. Termapa had the money to dress like the girls But even as she put on her early shelter and medical care, and thou called redwood, a close relative of hard or tamarack, which is a contained would be more happiness with he goes around with. I'm sure I'd phones and started the machine go-sands of nomes were rebuilt or re-the hig tree reproduces by appropriate foliage the year round, but the sands of nomes were rebuilt or re-the hig tree reproduces by appropriate foliage the year round, but the sands of nomes were rebuilt or re-the hig tree reproduces by appropriate foliage the year round, but the tain of her love for Rod. Perhaps look just as well. Oh, wouldn't it ing, her thoughts followed Stanley paired by the Red Cross to enable them] be grand to marry a man who could and the young society buds who had to carr, on." "I've never spoken to him," de- give you gorgeous clothes and jew- lured him from his desk so easily. "I've never spoken to mm, ue- els and cars? Someone who would While her slender fingers transcrib- of disasters which occurred during long a giant Sequoia may live. None take you to Europe and anywhere ed the words that she heard hear to disasters which occurred during long a giant Sequoia may live. None clared Maris stoudy. One wondered take you to Europe and anywhere ed the words that she heard, back the year. Admiral Grayson said, "The has ever been found that has died have an ally you wanted!" Then a far-away look came into contrasting her life with that of the workers into 39 states i. her eyes, for swiftly she remember-girls who evidently thought an of- many exigencies ed Rod. But then she pouted. Why! fice was merely another amusing! watching every minute for that very | ... didn't Rod bother more about his place. clothes? Often she wished he would. Hour after hour she worked, with tornado and typhoon. The Red Cross wear them better, have them pressed but a short breathing space for took charge at the scenes of 105 domes. Miss Riggs gives out an the work, and—But a wistful smile lunch, for many of the salesmen tic disasters of major severity." crept around the corners of her rosy were in from the road, and the cornot a newcomer like me—who are lips. Rod was a dear. He had been respondence room was deluged with operation when disaster strikes giving allowed to work for the boss or the boss or the boss or the boss' son. What chance have I to get acquainted with young Fayson?"

himself sending her flowers. He she'd not be in too great a hurry to himself sending her flowers. He she'd not be in too great a hurry to get acquainted with young Fayson?"

she questioned, nonchalantly taking knew she loved them. the chance soon if it didn't come into her eyes. If she married Rod some more. "Well, Maris, I haven't worked the bungalow, for he had told her The hum of marching feet echoed Coast Guard-Red Cross cooperation at son may play around with girls like she liked the idea. She loved the now. York. The country kind of gave her Miss Riggs said, "Oh, just a minute. Cross leadership, training and disaster | "Who said we wanted to marry the blues. It was so quiet. Maybe We've got to check over that letter che Chains and disaste. them? You take things too serious- she could make Rod change his mind with the quotations. I put it to one son will take a shine to you. Why flooded her cheeks at the very sugdon't you call Rod and tell him to gestion of his name might fall in two giggling debs coming down the t, Maris, it seems so silly to corridor. How carefree they seem- |. -and then you'll be mighty sorry if dark, with snappy brown eyes and demonstration flocks established as a it's some other girl who goes riding seemed vividly electric in all her with > him up. When Rod comes to his with laughter. sample your chocolate cake first." desk edged the draughty corridor. "But the dishes?" countered Pat- "It's like walking thru a maze know that the proud young boss had who had suffered losses.

"Never mind the dishes. I'll do sages," laughed the blond girl. them, only I want to take my time Maris said, "Mr. Fayson's office is who felt she was the star office through membership at the time over this sumptuous cake and cof- the last one down the corridor. He's wamn iee," said Maris, rising and turning at his desk." Quickly the girl turned.

The velvety click-clicking of 20 "Oh, there he is!" The small, giggling and chattering that usually noiseless typewriters echoed in dark girl turned again after she greeted her ears. She opened the Maris' ears. She was sitting at her spoke, and smiled to Maris. Then door. All the girls had gone. It that are native to the North Amerdesk in the stenographers' room the she said, "Thanks, so much. I'm seemed too bad that she couldn't ican continent. next morning. There was no sheet afraid we must seem awfully dumb." find even one for an audience. There of paper in her machine, nor any; "Of course we are," rejoined the might come a day when she could The earliest known description of dictaphone going at her side, for she other girl, "tho I bet you'd be mad, calmly speak as the Stanley were the Maya ruins in Yucatan, dating When they hastened down corridor Maris' eyes were riveted of Her eyes were not on her machine the girls. Where had she heard on her fellow workers, but her the name "Rowene" before? Then gaze wandered along the corridor to suddenly she remembered what one glass-encased office where young of the girls had told her-that Row-Stanley Fayson was seated at his ene Quirk's mother was crazy desk. His coming had caused a wild have her daughter marry a rich j flutter of excitement in many of the man.

stenographers had openly discussed in having her meet Stanley, their chances of catching the wealthy when they entered his office the young man who like many another perched casually on his desk, lit college boy, had assured his friends cigarette and chatted light-heartedly was going to revolutionize his with him. She was a Western gir -fairly rich too-and folks said her that had proceeded his arrival Sudden jealousy seared Maris' nat pretty girls were his special, heart. Why was a life of hard work e had apparently not learned to be her lot when she was just their existence. Or perhaps, as cute as those other girls who didn't s Riggs suggested, when queried know what it was to hit the keys of one of the girls, he was too near a typewriter, to toil all day in an s father now, to start anything. office, and sell their freedom for a As Maris gazed at him, she no paltry pay envelope?

noticed the coy glances gave Stanley. Miss Riggs

Cary T Grayson, chairman, said : the name of a talented Cherokee letterhead and second sheet before qual report just issued. "Over 131,000 Pointing to the many-sided problems son may play around with girls like one lined the luca. One loved the Spring floods and tornadoes which | Dr. Harlow.

Gradually the room emptied as this year the annual report reveals formed during the previous summer, "No, Maris, but when you've a but succeeding side puned her the girls hurried from their desks. The Rev Cross aided 77 000 families usually by the first of August. Nathering of bark from oak and thoughts together. Why should she at last Mice Ricce coid "I guage of the girls hurried from their desks." The Rev Cross aided 77 000 families usually by the first of August. Nathering of bark from oak and the girls hurried from their desks. The Rev Cross aided 77 000 families usually by the first of August. Nathering of bark from oak and the girls hurried from their desks. The Rev Cross aided 77 000 families usually by the first of August. Nathering of bark from oak and the girls hurried from their desks. office. Maris went back to her desk line in this one operation "Never before bave as many metru and covered her machine. She was Glancing up, she saw young Stan- variety of pressing numan problems.

to herself as she gathered up her senses again there'll be time enough "Can you tell us where to find bag and hurried to the cloakroom. to talk to him. Say, if you want to Mr. Fayson—Mr. Stanley Fayson?"

get to the hotel early you'd better questioned the small, dark-eyed girl.

be stirring—at least if you want to Maris was suddenly glad that her

Maris was suddenly glad that her

Mr. Fayson—Mr. Stanley Fayson?"

Gosh, but hasn't he the fine man
great army of Red Cross chapter funds and m.

er." Admiral Grayson said. "In e.

Gosh, but hasn't he the fine man
great army of Red Cross chapter funds and m.

er." Admiral Grayson said. "In e.

great army of Red Cross chapter funds and m.

er." Admiral Grayson said. "In e.

Gosh, but hasn't he the fine man
be stirring—at least if you want to sample your cheerless." If only she could let the girls to find your way thru all these pas- snoken to her. They'd be jealous, all right, especially Milly Tremaine supported by the American peorle But when she reached the dressing room, there was none of the

an old friend of hers. (CONTINUED NEXT WEEK)

Vatican library.

RED CROSS AID TO

As Elements Hit 20 States East of Mississippi

landslide, refugee relief, shipwreck.

finish the letters she was working Pennsylvania during the Spring floods (such as hemlock) sometimes graft another roll. 10 nersell, however, she confessed that she would make Again a look of discontent crept on, or Miss Riggs might give her More than 10.000 persons were restogether naturally. Then, if cued troin the second floors of homes tree is cut down, its stump may live me into ner eyes. It she married and The five o'clock whistle sounded. In Wilker-Barre and Kingston through for yeears by drawing nourishment I from other trees through the inter-"Government agencies and relief connecting network of roots. In the without learning a thing or two, and muter. Well, Maris wasn't so sure out. She would turn her letters in to Red Cross relief forces at all times." wound tissue around the rim of the erty in eastern and southern states 'winter buds' observed on trees are until 1989 and then gradually dim.

you would. Go on," begged Patsy. The creaking of a door disturbed just putting away her eraser and politan centers borne the brunt of at "Why should I? That young man her thoughts, and she turned to see carbon paper when she heard a light gle year, challenging Red Cross pre

With another smile the young sons aided and adds that additiona. "Oh, go on, Pat; you needn't ous blonde; but even her somewhat man passed thru the swing door. millions will be used to "clean up" occurring during the year were met by Red Cross chapter funds and manpow "The Red Cross disaster relief serv ' ice is one of many Red Cross activities Roll Call, held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving." Botanists have identified sixteen .

from about 1630 was found in the

Believe It or Not About Forest Trees

a capsule enclosing a seed," remarks tem for the perpetuation of the for-DISASTER VICTUS a capsule enclosing a seed," remarks tem for the perpetual Dr William M. Harlow of the New ests is well organized. "Believe it or not," adds Dr. Har-York State College of Forestry trees with which the average person is not familiar. "Believe it or not, the giant Se-, ruoia, or big tree of the West, has .

Persons who have been very slowly, may be interested

Indian (Sequoiah) who formulated generally considered an alphabet for his tribe. The so-foliage the year round, but the ing as well as by seed, while the giant Sequois themselves grow only trees which are not confers."

The planet Pluto, science says, "Believe it or not, the so-called will continue to grow in brightness perfectly good boy friend, I can't shoughts together. Why should she At last Miss Riggs said, "I guess in 14 flooded states east of the Missis ture has provided wings for the trees for use in leather tanneries is See why you want to break up with be minking of four when maybe that's all right," and rising, hurried sippl and 6,000 families in 6 tornado seeds of many trees but in some an important industry in the mountain on the chance that young Fay. Stanley Fayson—the warm color with the letter to the vice-precident's hit states south of the Mason-Dison.

SAGAS OF THE SKIES

Manager, Aviation Division, Seles Department

THE little village of Tovildors nestled/close to the foot of the Ural Mountains. The grass of the alpine meadows provided fine grazing for the cattle, and the rich lands raised good crops. But this March the rains had been unusually heavy. There had been frequent falls of heavy rock from the towering heights and anxious villagers hoped that the rains would stop. But the skies remained black with clouds. and the stream in the valley overflowed its banks. Suddenly there was a warning rumble-high above. The villagers scattered for their one, a great avalanche of rock ewept down upon the village. When trees and aplintered wood where place to land. So they fiew low and the village of Tovildora had been threw the cargo overboard to the homeless villagers. Back and forth Rudakoff, flying ace of the Red villagers had not only enough Army aviation corps, four planes eat but sufficient clothing and ma-set out for the ruined village. To terials to protect them against the the wings of the planes were fas weather until summer would come tened supplies of food, tents and and they could rebuild their homes

By Mac Arthur

A dog with the most fleas won a prize in a dog Another thing the state highway commission might!

ton, and other signatures which illustrate the delicate one of Wellsville's oldest and be. Mrs. E. A. Mullen returned home sau county has laid 81 eggs and penmanship of James Madison. All are originals and loved citizens, at his home, after an Tuesday after a few days' visit with scored 68.7 points. have to do with the early history of the United States. illness of two months. "Billy" Wack her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thad Clark- The entries of Norman Francisco as he was affectionately known by son of Canisteo. The task is well worth while. Americans who have his legion of friends, has been a corn visited Paris, and who have visited the Quay D'Orsay resident of Wellsville all his life and When misquitoes are to be entries are now in sixth and seventh pickers from the corn belt to meet in competition with of foreign office, are keenly interested in an opportun- has been an employee of the Empire mounted for scientific study they place with records of 38 eggs and ity to see the early treaties between this nation and Gas & Fuel company for many are killed by electrocution because 39.05 points and 34 eggs and 34.8 It is significant that these contests come during France, all marvelously cherished by the France years. Funeral services were held this process leaves the wings ex- points respectively. from the late home, pall bearers be- tended-Raids on Nature

Raids on Nature

Roid Cross expended the expective point of the country-side and the parks of Martha Lumpkin, daughter of an expective point of the country point of the country point of the country poin ow and mother he is survived by Whitesville, at the home of his ry Industry has developed a method

If some college would plow up its football field traits in human nature.

testify to their vandalism, and to the less desirable had been in poor health about two years. He was born in Almond and

Births

NOVEMBER 4, 1896 /. Harvey Backus, Owner and Editor Mosher & Greene, Editor & Publisher In Business

raim Fitch of Wellsville, a daugh-best wishes and congratulations.

Donnell and Brundage played outstanding game for Andover.

> home to vote. Andover is ways glad to see him. H. E. Miner has moved his

Miss Flora Bundy has moved into

The United States Bureau of Dai-

I'M A NEW WOMAN

THANKS TO PURSANG

Yes, Pursang contains elements of proven value, such as Organic Copper and Iron, which quickly aid nature in building rich, red corpuscies. When this happens, the appetite improves.

Nervousness disappears. Energy and strength usually return. You feel like a new person. Get Pursang from your

BARKED SHINS AND POOR LIGHTS

GO TOGETHER, DAD! LET ME

BRING YOU BETTER LIGHT!

Egg Laying Contest Two pens of barred rocks are leading in the Sixth Annual 4-H egg don't want us for wives." by Robert Macauley of Scio, an Al-

of Belmont and Charles Witter of Cuba, additional Allegany county

Robert Macauley owns the first, think you'll frighten me into calling uninteresting face was transformed had just finished a batch of letters Rowene. if I told you so." given her anything else to do.

girls' hearts. Some of the youthful Well, she'd evidently lost no time But so far, in spite of a reputa- mother was crazy about money.

AT YOUR DEALERS

THE HOUSE OF HAZARDS