SUPERVISORS GET PAY INCREASES

No Action Taken on New Court House Project. — 82 Miles of Road Fixed During Year.

No definite action was taken on building a new court house for Allegany county or enlarging the present structure at last Thursday's session of the board of Supervisors, the final of a three-day meeting.

Chairman Francis M. Alvord of Friendship, chairman of the committee to investigate the adequacy of the present building and other offices, told of the committee meeting once and as yet not having sufficient time to formulate any definite program and asked for more time, which was granted, the committee asked to report at the March, 1937, session.

Mr. Alvord stated plenty of money could be borrowed for less than three per cent and that valuations were now near their probable peak for some years, due to the productivity of the oil regions. He spoke of the congestion in the office of County Clerk William W. Bush, suffering greatest inconvenience. A year ago any adequate addition there was estimated to cost $20,000.

Former Assemblyman Harry E. Goodrich reported on what the flood control committee had done, electing as secretary Village Engineer E. J. Rowe of Wellsville. The matter was being taken up with supervisors in Livingston, Monroe and Wyoming counties and Orleans might be enlisted, with the belief that all counties affected by floods in the Genesee river united could secure needed legislation and Federal surveys much mor effectively than one working alone. Congressman James W. Wadsworth had assured J. Hobart Rockwell of the committee of his aid, especially with Monroe county members.

Boost Solons' Pay

A resolution moved by John N. Thompson, Angelica, on behalf of the county officers and compensation committee, and seconded by Robert Green, Scio, went into the matter of legal per diem pay for supervisors, citing how in 1932 members had authorized the county treasurer to deduct ten per cent of the $6 per day charge, and how Nov. 24, 1933, the Ways and Means and Finance Committee reported favorably on the recommendation of the County Officers and Compensation committee that members should receive $5 per day while attending sessions and one mileage per week at eight cents per mile.

The resolution further reads: "Whereas, Subdivision 2, Chapter 299 of the county laws of the state of New York provides that in the county of Allegany each supervisor shall receive from the county compensation at the rate of $6 per day for each calendar day's actual attendance on the sessions of the Board of Supervisors, now therefore be it, Resolved, that effective Jan. 1, 1937, compensation shall be paid at the rate named." The resolution was signed by Mr. Thompson, James A. Young and Chester McEnroe.

Discussion brought out the fact that the board had no choice except to comply with the law mentioned.

One hundred dollars was voted for traveling expenses of a milk inspector with the request that the State provide an equal amount.

Fix 82 Miles of Road

Bonded indebtedness of the only towns in the county having such obligations showed that three so held: Centerville, $2,000; Almond, $1,000; Scio, $39,329. Of the last amount, $27,329 was for a water system installed late in 1935.

County Highway Superintendent Harry Craig gave his annual report which told of 13.27 miles of county highway base built this year at an average cost per mile of $6,877, and of 19 miles covered with bituminous top costing $1,958 per mile. Equipment purchases were given as totalling $10,218.56. The total expenditure for county road maintenance was given as $100,541.15, divided as follows: Labor, $28,810.85; materials, $56,713.58; machinery rentals, $10,352.90; snow fence, posts and sanding $4,663.82.

The cost of new construction in various towns was given: Hume, 1.58 miles, $9,950.99; Rushford and Centerville, 2.51 miles, $18,570.59; Ward, 1.72 miles, $11,789.06; Amity and Friendship, 2.35 miles, $14,819.88; Andover, 2.06 miles, $14,456.30; Alma and Willing, 3.45 miles, $22,361.39; Cuba, 1.29 miles, $2,948; Wellsville, 2.44 miles, $4,649.18; Willing, 2.09 miles, $4,382.49; Hume 1.28 miles, $2,216.55; Ward, 50-ft. bridge, $6,513.15; Hume, 1.02 miles, $1,816; Friendship, 35-foot bridge, $4,823; Rushford and Centerville, 2.51 miles, $6,124.92; Andover, 2.87 miles, $4,737.39.

The total of town roads improvement this year was reported as 82.7 miles, practically the same as in 1936.

Spread Christmas Cheer

The Andover Ski Club did a fine job of carrying the Christmas spirit to many local homes this year with their reclaimed toys, sleds, carts, dolls, etc.

The exact number of kiddies that the Ski Club will play Santa Claus to is not yet known, but the former Hoyer tailor shop, where the repairing and repainting of toys of all description was done, looked like a veritable toy shop the first of the week.

The club deserves high commendation on their splendid work, which they are carrying on this year for the second time. Don't throw away any of your kiddies' toys, save them for next year, even a wheel from one of your absolutely wrecked toys might supply the necessary one for another toy. Just put them aside for next year's Ski Club Santa Claus.

ANDOVER IS LUCKY IN LOWER TAXES

Both the Village and Town Rate Lower, While Many Other Places in County Gets Raise.

Tax rates for towns and villages have been made public by Clerk Denzil G. Perkins and Assistant Clerk Leon A. Ackerman who have been busily engaged since the annual meeting of the Board of Supervisors adjourned its annual meeting ascertaining rates and preparing tax rolls for collectors.

The greatest increases are shown in the rural towns of the county which have a large acreage of state-owned reforestation lands withdrawn from taxation for local purposes, except schools, when taken over by the state.

The largest increase reported from any of the 41 tax districts of the county is in the town of Birdsall where the rate went up for 1937 to $22.17, compared with $17.37 one year ago. The increase in the town of Burns was $3.40; Ward, $3.11; Rushford, $2.48; New Hudson, $2.38; Belfast, $2.04; Canesdea, $1.97; West Almond, $1.96; Alfred, $1.82; Granger, $1.50; Centerville, $1.43; Amity, (Belmont) $1.38; etc. Wellsville must pay 70 cents more.

The three villages with lower rates are: Almond, 52 cents; Andover, 82 cents, and Friendship, $1.35. Wellsville villagers must pay 75 cents per thousand more; Canaseraga, $3.37; Fillmore, 79c; Alfred, 52c; Belmont, $1.32; Angelica, $1.38; Bolivar, 12c; Cuba, 2c and Richburg, 46c.
