I'm sorry for the bird that thinks I'm just a scarecrow in a tree!

What's going on, but that's absurd! Why, every night and every day I learn some interesting things About the folks who pass my way: But I just sit and flap my wings, they don't know that what they de Is not so secret, after all Some things are awful funny, too-I laugh so hard I almost falli I have a host of little friends Who wave at me when they go by. And when my clumsy arm extends Jelio." they think it's just a breeze That's blowing harder through my tree; They'll never know how much they please The heart that beats inside of me Some older people often stop To look at me, and when they smile give my sleeves a friendly flop And hope they'll hang around awhile. Yes life is full of joy for me, Surprising as that seems to you; It's fun to sit up here and see my daily dozen then!
