Maple Grading Sets Available

May be Secured From the State Department of Agriculture and Markets in Albany at Cost.

Albany, Mar. 8.—Maple producers may determine syrup grades by using the simple testing-sets available from the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets. The set includes four small bottles in a cut-out block of wood. Three of the bottles contain colored solutions, prepared in the department to conform with United States Standards, to match the color of Fancy, Grade 1 and Grade 2 syrup, while the fourth bottle is filled with the producer's syrup and inserted in the block for comparison with the master colors.

Since the colors of the standard solutions fade slightly, the department recommends replacing the sets annually and not to use any set for more than two years in order to get accurate results. The sets are available for 50 cents, postpaid, from the Bureau of Markets of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets at Albany. Since the sets were developed in 1935, more than 1,000 have been purchased by New York State producers, according to the Bureau.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25c. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

The Modern Child

A rude woman, sitting in a tram with a little boy next to her, was asked for her fare by the conductor.

"Tuppenny," she said brusquely.

"And 'ow about little Lord Fauntleroy?" asked the conductor, pointing to the child. "You'll need a ticket for 'im as well."

"Now, I won't."

"Yus you will. 'Ow old is 'e?"

"Dunno."

"Well, I do. 'E's six if 'e's a day. That'll be another penny." The woman flatly refused and a heated argument began. Suddenly the child spoke up.

"Aw, shut up, will yer?" he exclaimed. "Here's yer penny. And anyway, she ain't my ma. Never seen the old girl in my life!"

—o—

By George!

Lady (to new milkman): "How much is my milk bill?"

Milkman: "Scuse me lady, but my name's Joe."

Don't Write, Telegraph

Mr. Jones had anxiously been awaiting the announcement of the birth of his baby son, as he hoped the expected heir would be. One day he received a telegram as follows: "Your wife has given birth to an eight-pound baby girl."

Disgustedly he turned the telegram over and read on the reverse side: "If you want a boy, call Western Union."

"Now is a fine time to tell me about it," he exclaimed.

A Possibility

The train came to a sudden stop and immediately a worried-looking man rushed down the track and demanded of the guard the reason for the delay.

"What is it?" he asked, "an accident?"

"Somebody pulled the emergency cord," was the reply. "The engineer put on the brakes too quickly and one of the cars has gone off the rails. We'll be held up for about four hours."

"Four hours!" exclaimed the passenger. "But I'm to be married today!"

Instantly the guard turned on him. "Say," he demanded, "you ain't the guy who pulled the cord, are you?"
