Interesting Tales Given by Judge Ward Hopkins

Recounted Several Cases in His Address Entitled "Good Morning Judge."

The community service projects of Child Welfare life was held on Sunday in the Seventh Day B... it being inconvenient Methodist church. The Cory led the service, offered by Rev. Walter The Methodist choir r appropriate anthem.

County Judge Ward of Cuba gave an information on "Good Morning Judge" very interesting way a number of court cases come before him, and value of looking at this other's point of view. instances extending cases in which both men and youths were involved either thru bad home unfriendly circumstances were developed. The speaker emphasized that in Christian influence in which relations and wife are strained of understanding, or wrong conception of mind and desire, are proper for a large proportion committed by on day.

The judge told how the title of his address, to prepare a rather humorous incidents which are found, anything could be definitely true of stark realism was found it impossible thing but a gravelly surface. The address was suggestions and counter-proposals in our relationship, in order to create youth to commit easier for them to be easier.
