GRANGE NEWS
 Edith M. Thorne, Lecturer

Judge Hopkins was very much pleased with his audience Sunday evening, a large percentage being Grange members. The audience was stirred by his talk, "Good Morning Judge." We are proud of our county judge and appreciate his many kindnesses.
 This week is Child Health's—Let's visit our library and see the display. Many of our business places will also feature displays. Let's keep in mind May 12th. An evening program for parents and others interested in children will be held at the school house.
 A large number of Andover Patrons went to Friendship Friday night attending Grange and putting on the following program, the theme being "The Heart and the Soul of the Constitution."
 The Heart of the Constitution—"Insure Domestic Tranquility," so first numbers were on peace. Grange Peace song; tableau, the Angel of Peace, with Peace Flag. A reading, "Our Peace Flag," by Dorothy Schoonover.
 Dialogue, "Father and son seeing 'The Big Parade,'" Dewey Northrup Sr., and Dewey, Jr.
 Pantomime, "Apparitions," Emmett Robinson, Mary Schoonover and others.
 Duet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson.
 Talk, "Trade Treaties, Bluebirds of Peace or War Menaces?" Harry Smith.
 Surprise feature.
 Class quiz: America's Magna Charta, Fern Holroyd and class.
 Reading, "The President's Proclamation, 150th Anniversary of the Constitution," Agnes Robinson.
 Presentation of book, "The Story of the Constitution," Sol Bloom—by the Lecturer.
 Reading of tableau, "The Triune of American Democracy," reader, Gertrude Schoonover, Nellie Mead, the Constitution; Nellie Green, Liberty; Lenna Church, the Flag.
 Song, "Old Glory," by all.
 Piano solo, Eleanor Northrup.
 Poem, "Of the People, by the People, for the People," a great Lincoln poem, Wilbur D. Nesbit—by Bernadine Briggs.
 Poem, "Laws," Edgar Guest—by the Lecturer.
 Reading, extracts from "The Heart and Soul of the Constitution," Sol Bloom.
 Song, "Faith of Our Fathers," all.
 May we all agree with Sol Bloom that "the Constitution satisfies the aspirations of the heart; it feeds the human soul; it is complete expression of the spirit of the American people."
 Will every Grange member make a special effort to come to Grange next Wednesday night, May 11th. The deputies will be with us. The Juveniles will put on their degree work at 7 p. m.; the subordinates at the regular hour. The program will deal with the second chapter in a book we are enacting, the title "Grange Morale." The second chapter will deal with the home, naturally the mother and child enters the picture. Come and hear the pleasing program we have planned for you.
