Mother and Daughter Banquet Was Successful

Seventh Annual Attended by About 100
Fine Menu and Program Enjoyed

The King's Daughters Lutheran church held their annual Mothers and Daughters Tuesday evening at the parlors. About 140 women in attendance.

Reverence and honor were paid to the tribute of mothers and daughters who displayed a ship which existed. After the delicious repast was served, the program was very efficiently decorated with flowers, a pleasing presentation in a very clever manner.

Miss Catherine of the Andover High School acted as toastmistress. At each corner was a figure of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" as favors.

The guests had an opportunity to hear both Mrs. and Mrs. Lillian Suttor of Gustamala and China, and personal experience among the mothers of those countries. A description of the lives of mothers in these countries brought to the mind of their listeners the people of this country.

The following program was given:

Pavane - Mrs. M. J. W. Bonna
Patrician - Mrs. L. J. H. Taylor
Atrian - Mrs. L. J. H. Taylor
Toasted - Mrs. L. J. H. Taylor
