Issues Poppy Day Proclamation

Saturday. May 28th, was proclaimed "Foppy Day" in Andover in a I proglamation issued today by Mayor H. S. Livermore. The proclamation lurged all citizens to honor the World War dead and aid the war's living victims by wearing the American Tegion and Juziliary memorial popby that day. The proclamation reed: "Whereas, in the World War of 1917 1918 the young men of Andover gave their service to the defense of the United States in an evalted spirit of patriotism and some were called upon to sacrifice their lives in that service: "Whereas, many others were called upon to sacrifice health and strength with resulting suffering and hardships to themselves and families which continue to this day: "Whereas, the memory of these patriotic sacrifices should ever be kept fresh in the minds of patriotic citizens, while fullest aid should be extended to those still within the realm of human aid:

"And, Whereas, the wearing of the Memorial Poppy both honors the dead and aids the disabled and de-

"Therefore, I, H. S. Livermore, mayor of the village of Andover, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 28th Poppy Day in the village of Andover and urge all citizens to observe the day by wearing the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary Memorial Poppy."
