GRANGE NEWS

Edith M. Thorne, Lecturer

At the May 25th meeting there will be a short Memorial service in which the altar will be decorated with flowers for the deceased Patrons of Husbandry of Andover Grange No. 1098. The third chapter, The Church, in the book Grange Morale will be given. The program follows:

Singing of hymns, Grange choir leading.

"The Patrons Belief in Immortality," the Chaplain, H. S. Thorne.

"He Was a Friend," by Will Taylor—Jennie Smith, followed by the decorating of the altar as the secretary reads the names of the deceased.

Pantomime and solo, Orpha Green and Charles Robinson, "The Old Rugged Cross." Prayer by chaplain. The Little Brown Church in the Vale—Grange Choir.

Religion in the News—Rev. Walter L. Greene.

A Living Cartoon and Reading, "Flaming Youth or Flaming Parents?"

Music—Mr. and Mrs. John Croyle.

Altho no Grange program is complete without an agricultural number, Memorial ones would seem an exception; yet, there is a burning vital question before the dairy farmers of the State, the discussion of which the Worthy State Grange Master urges upon the Granges.

Really, isn't it a fitting way to honor the Patrons who have "gone on ahead" to take up the torch of "better agriculture," that they have thrown down; therefore, Mr. R. Spicer will give a report of the milk hearing at Elmira, May 19, at this meeting.

Will all Juveniles please make a special effort to come to the meeting, as they have been asked to have a number on the June Pomona Grange program. It is necessary to practice for it.

The Child Health Program at the high school May 12 was very much enjoyed by the parents and friends of children present. Miss Lempeas has kindly consented to present the play given at this meeting as a part of the juvenile work on the Pomona Grange program.

The Grange is indeed very grateful to the school in really putting across this splendid health program. Such hearty co-operation is very much appreciated.

Will Patrons having flowers please bring them for the Memorial service?

WASTINGS

"Wandering Willie"

ONCE more our "little big town" goes ahead of many of the surroundings with the organization of the Firemen's Auxiliary. They opened up last week with five presidents but finally got it sifted down to the customary one before the meeting was over.

With the new auxiliary Andover can now boast of female Odd Fellows (the Bekkys); female ex-soldiers (the Legion Auxiliary); female Masons (the Stars) and female firemen (the Firemen's Auxiliary)—all of which brings to mind what a whale of a success Woman Suffrage has turned out to be.

SOME of the organizations are talking of getting up softball teams for this year with the hope of having a village league started as they had a few years ago. There are many of our Main street business boys who could get a lot of exercise out of playing ball but until something like a little league is started well they will just have to go without it.

Let's hope someone starts the ball rolling and perhaps this year the grass on the softball diamond will be kept down. Last season the outfield had the best crop of hay in this section.

THE RATS at the village dump are probably drawing big sighs of relief these days. For the past two months, several of the fellows have been going down there for target practice, with dire results to the rodents, but they are either all killed off but the granddaddys or else the novelty has worn off as the C. & J. Rat Killing Co. has been disbanded for the present. This is one of our unincorporated village business firms.

WE STILL think that the local nimrods are not doing their bit in getting signed up for the new Rod & Gun Club. The little burg of Whitesville brags a membership of around 125, but last reports of the local club is only 57. Whassa matta?

AND by the way, that "weiner-wiener" word has not been settled yet to the satisfaction of some of our well-versed spellers, one of whom saw the word spelled "ei" in two-foot letters on an outdoor sign last week.

Spring Rains

Are hammering away, so keep watch for wet spots for they mean a leak and a place for decay.

A pail of Plastic Cement is like a stitch in time—keep it handy—it pays large returns in material, comfort and money.

Spraying Materials

Too many people wait until hot weather is here and bugs and beetles have made a good start before they begin spraying. One early spraying at this time of year is very important. Our stock consists of:

Dusting Sulphur.
Arsenate of Lead.
Calcium of Arsenate.

And an occasional spraying of Dog-Zoff will protect those tender evergreen shrubs from dogs, cats and other animals.

Long-handled Dust Pans

In red and green, so no more stooping over—no more tired backs—for one of these 46c Dust Pans makes taking up dirt a pleasure.
