WE WRITE OUR OWN TICKETS

Each day by our actions and words we are writing our own ticket for our travels in school.

In our attitude toward our work during the next two weeks, we are writing our own ticket. If we desire we can make it out for and reach the destination we want—Success.

It's up to us entirely whether or not we arrive there.

We owe it to our parents, teachers and ourselves to do our best. We couldn't have journeyed as far as we have if it hadn't been for them.

Parents have given us the time to travel and the teachers have been kind and efficient guides to show us the various points of interest as we have journeyed along. We are sorry to lose this year two of our best guides.

It is up to us to write our own ticket clearly and fully in order to travel again next year to different places. These places will be, no doubt, more exciting and interesting. We shall be able to find a place that we like since we are already acquainted with the country.

Dreams

By Donald Hardy

Do any of you have dreams? They come from a part of us which we leave behind in the same way nearly before something good happens to him. Usually this is the type of dream about people who are asleep. A day dream can be very funny to watch; for instance, let us observe a young man who has just brushed against his best girl, while classes are passing. The poor boy is just thrilled to death and all thru the next class he just sits and dreams about that soft girl and the thrill it gives him every time her arm comes in contact with him. Then he is asked a question by the teacher, something like this:

"Johnny, how do cumulus clouds look?" and our hero, still dreaming, is heard to murmur: "Soft and smooth," and this is followed by a loud sigh of content and longing.

Then when classes pass he unconsciously goes to his locker and after depositing his books, proceeds to descend the stairs and doesn't come out of his dreaming until he strikes the cool of the outdoors. Then he quietly looks around, discovers that no one has been watching him and thus turns around. After returning upstairs he walks shyly into English class.

There seems to be a slight tremor of laughter running around the room as he takes his seat. Out of this tremor is faintly heard, first, something about cumulus clouds and then the words: "soft and smooth."

Senior Interview

What is your full name? Carrol Truman Burdick.

What is your parents name?—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. Burdick.

What is the date of your birth?—Nov. 28, 1919.

What is your birthplace?—Andover, New York.

Your favorite kind of book is what?—Non-fiction.

What is your hobby?—Woodworking.

Your favorite outdoor occupation is what?—Touring around the country.

Carrol, or "Carrot Top" as he was called in his Freshman year, has always attended Andover High. He is an active member of the Dramatic Club and of his class. Carrol greatly enjoys tinkering with his car in his leisure time. Always good-natured, agreeable and very co-operative, he is one of the best liked members of the Andover High School.

Andover Wins Allegany County Track Crown

For the first time in Andover history, an Andover track team won the Allegany County track meet. Piling up a total of 59 points, the purple and white ran away with top honors at the county meet held at Houghton. Over 100 athletes from nine Allegany county schools took part in the meet. No records were broken due to the fact that the track was rather small.

Richardson of Bolivar was the individual star of the meet, scoring 24 points. Oakes of Andover was second with 21 points; Smith of Belfast ranked third.

Most of the Andover points were made in running events. Briggs, Hardy, Antan, Oakes, Saunders, Greene, Joyce, Will and Earley scored in the running.

Summary of the meet:
100 yard dash: Won by Oakes, Andover; 2nd, Biddle, Richburg; 3rd, Coccari, Belfast; 4th, Crittenden, Rushford; 5th, Casterline, Belmont. Time 10.4 seconds.

English IV Class Holds Mock Banquet

The English IV class of Andover High School held a mock Senior banquet in their classroom Friday morning, May 27th during the English period.

The following program was introduced by the toastmistress, Marian Swarts:

Welcome—Flora Flint. Salutatory—Doris Honegger. Class prophecy—Josephine Baker. Class will—George Joyce. Class celebrities—Donald Hardy. Class history—Charlotte Cook. Farwell address, by the class president—Doris Honegger.

Valedictory—Thelma Ahrens. At the banquet it was decided that the Class of '38 would attempt to reunite in five years, that is in 1943.

Victor Oakes Has Highest Average

Victor Oakes who finishes his eighth year of school this June with an average of 94.6 tops his class scholastically. Stanley Ruger is second with an average of 91.6. John Dean runs a close third, being just one-tenth of a point lower, 94.5.

"Where are the boys?" asked Mr. Humphrey, R. B. I. speaker, when three Senior girls walked away with the high school honors. The eighth grade has answered the question, the three highest averages being attained by boys.

Class of '38 to Hold Ball

The crowning social event of the school year, the Senior Ball, annually sponsored by the graduating class, will take place Friday, June 3rd in the gymnasium.

Johnny Fitzgerald's orchestra has been engaged for the evening. The committees in charge are working hard to make their final dance a success. Plans are under way for unusual decorations. All indications point toward a very successful evening.

The committees in charge of the event are as follows:
Advertising—Charles Burgett, chairman; George Joyce, Carl Will, Henry Antan.

Invitation—H. Dean, chairman; Thelma Ahrens, Mary Greenan, Flora Flint.

Decoration—C. Cook, chairman; Marion Swarts, Katherine Barber, Donald Hardy.

Property—C. Burdick, chairman; Basil Brundage, John Baker.

Clean-up—Senior class.

Marionette Show Feature of Grange Meeting

The eighth graders will again give their marionette show, "Alice in Wonderland," tonight at 7:30 in the school auditorium. The same cast will present the play to the Pomona Grange. This will be one of the main features of a program that will be given by other organizations and Grangers.

Freshmen Open Season With Picnic

On Wednesday, May 25th, the Freshmen Class held its annual picnic at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fuller. As if it had been ordered, the day was bright and sunny and many smiles were seen.

After the picnic lunch had vanished, many games were started. Some played horseshoes and some started a softball game with Miss Cappuccilli and Regina Richardson as leaders of the teams. The game was a fast one with more errors than anything else, and ended with the score 11 to 3 in favor of Regina Richardson's side.

Thirty-four people were present and out of that 34, very few wished to see the picnic end.

Grade News

If the second graders have pollywogs, so do the first graders, or rather did have, for they are now full-fledged frogs.

The second graders have recently completed a marvelous circus with match box cages, and paper performers. Along with the circus the pupils had an animal-cracker party with balloons as an added attraction.

In the third grade several interesting and instructive posters decorate the bulletin board to make a daily habit display.

The fourth grade pupils are constructing a physical map of the United States, after completing their study of the Lincoln Highway.

Sixth Grade Honor Rolls

Honor rolls for the seventh marking period in the sixth grade are as follows:

First Honors—Kenneth Cook, John Gross, Charles Hall.

Second Honors—Robert Baker, Mary Cannon, Leona Clark, Norma Crowner, Francis Garvin, Arthur Kemp, Francis Horan, Paul Kilbane, Theresa McGinnis, Anne McDonough, Dewey Northrup, James Reisman, Betty Rogers, Marion Stevens, Harold West.

Too hot an oven may cause the white sauce on scalloped dishes to curdle.

Andover Routs Rushford

In an attempt to make a comeback and strengthen its chances for the county title, the Andover High School baseball team swamped the Rushford High team 10 to 3. Greene pitched a nice game for Andover, allowing only six hits and no walks and striking out seven men. The entire team looked much better than on its last appearance with Dolan committing Andover's only error.

Greene, with two doubles, Burgett with two singles and Perry with a long double and a walk led the Andover attack.

Andover plays at Belmont on Thursday and a victory in this game would result in a tie for the championship between Belmont and Andover.

Faculty Facts

The following teachers spent the Memorial Day holiday at their respective homes: Miss Lillian Butler, Whitesville; Miss Rita Elliott, Brockport; Miss Evelyn Lloyd, Little Valley; Miss Elizabeth Lemps, Dunkirk; Mrs. Ralph Schwarzenbach, Canandaigua; Miss Ruby Jordan, Friendship; Lawrence Host, Troy; Miss Mary Wood, Red Creek; Miss Josephine Cappuccilli, Syracuse and Miss Catherine Killigrew, Corning.

Miss Ruth Baker entertained friends from Cleveland, Ohio over the week-end.

Our Homemakers

The Homemaking A classes visited Robison's meat market last Friday morning. Before they went down to the market they learned the following facts about meat, so that they had a background for the illustrated explanations which followed:

Beef is firm and elastic to the touch. The flesh is cherry red shortly after being cut, and is well marbled and coated with flaky brittle fat of light creamy color.

Veal is the flesh of calves slaughtered when four to ten weeks old. The flesh of good veal is light pinkish red and is fine grained and firm, although not quite so firm as that of beef. There is little fat with the meat. What fat there is should be firm and creamy white or pinkish white.

The fat of lamb is creamy or pinkish white. The flesh is firm, fine grained and rich pinkish red, the flesh of mutton being somewhat firmer and deeper in color than that of lamb. Lamb is the flesh of sheep less than one year old while the flesh of more mature sheep is mutton.

In pork of good quality the flesh is firm, fine grained, velvety and is a light grayish pink in color. In the good grades of pork there is a smooth, even covering of fat and the lean is well marbled with firm fat.

Mr. Robison showed the different cuts of meat and explained why some cuts of meat are more expensive than others. He taught the class from what parts of the differ-

Humor

Mr. Host: "Some fish travel great distances. Can anyone give an instance?"
John L.: "Yes. A goldfish. It travels round the globe every day."

Carl: "What part of the car causes the most accidents?"
Marion: "The nut that holds the wheel."

Anna H., in English class: "What subject are you going to give us tomorrow, Miss Cappuccilli?"
Miss C.: "We are going to take the life of Robert Louis Stevenson. So come prepared!"

Doris: "Hey, that wasn't the tooth I wanted pulled."
Dentist: "Calm yourself; I'm coming to it."

Clyde: "He was kicked out of school for cheating."
Louis: "How come?"
Clyde: "He was caught counting his ribs in a physiology exam."

Miss Killigrew, in Economic Geography II: "Three thousand, four hundred twenty-six elephants were needed last year to make billed balls. Now are there any questions?"

R. Clair: "How did they train the beasts to do such delicate work?"

Mrs. McGee: "Who was the smartest inventor?"
Donald H.: "Thomas A. Edison. He invented the phonograph and the radio so people would stay up all night and use his electric light bulbs."

Genius In Embryo

Life is just a big dream. Where we meet and later part. Some lives are dull, while others beam.

When in a new life we start. First we see a babe in arms. Beginning life in the world; No responsibilities, only charm. With his golden hair in curls. He no longer sits on his mother's knee.

He's old enough to walk; He admires everything he sees. And then he starts to talk. Not long after to school he starts. Mother dreads having him away. He kisses her and then departs. But he stays only for the day, Returning at night from the warm schoolroom.

He tells mother about his studies. How the teacher smelled like perfume. And so did some of his buddies. He grows and studies very hard. Tho some he just can't get, And then appears a red mark on his card.

Much to his mother's regret. But mother doesn't scold him twice. Once is quite enough. To him she gives some kind advice. And things don't seem so tough. A different life begins anew.

After his high school days, and in whatever he intends to do. His success in the future lays. Perhaps the youth will attend a college.

Just a place to extend his knowledge. Or other source of learning. For the work that he is yearning. So hail the youth who starts a new life.
