GRANGE NEWS

Edith M. Thorne, Lecturer

There will be Food for Thought, Food to Eat, also Fun and Fervor at the program hour the 22nd as the Subordinates entertain the Juveniles. Every one, old or young come as a school boy or school girl with your lunch in a dinner pail or basket. The program will be conducted as a school, under the theme, "Know Your State." Charles Robinson will conduct a ten-minute singing class along the lines followed years ago. Special music, readings and a jolly time for all.

All Juveniles, who are 14 now or will be next month, who wish to graduate into the Subordinate Grange should fill out application blanks and hand in at this meeting. Are you a Grange member? Does your child belong to the Juveniles?

If so, consider this a special invitation to you to attend our meeting. If not then visit us and see if you do not find enough good about us that you would like your child to be a Juvenile, and maybe you would deem it worth while to be a Granger. Surely every farmer can afford the nominal fee; he certainly owes the Grange his active support for what the Grange has done for him along legislative lines. Join the Grange!
