Rev. Edward J. Cory gave the Baccalaureate Sermon.

"The foundation of a good life should be built of a firm and fine workman. Edward J. Cory told the 1938 graduating class, "Building to a Baccalaureate service Sunday. He made an urgent appeal to the builders of purpose, of character.

In answering the question, "What shall I believe?" Rev. Cory said a real belief in a superficial, sentimental religion, but a religion that is felt in the heart and in the ways. We must believe in a God who comes and an honored God who can give us all victories—the victories of the victors. Rev. Lucien H. Kerker, Walter L. Greene also gave the service and special services furnished by the high school chorus which sang, "Fathers."

Alumni Banquet Held Monday evening, June 26, at the annual Alumni Banquet.
