Describes Our New Picturesque Scenic Road.

"Saturday Post; five of a boy as we drove onto island ferry, on the afternoon of June 30th.

"When we return," in chorus, for we were had disregarded advice and travel bureaus, and for our neighbors to Mexico was our destination seemed a long way off.

We crossed the Delaware Navy band and the dignified foreign lands who were from the celebration at and we wondered if along the way we would of a curiosity.

By easy stages we reached the Skyline Drive in Memphis and when we Mississippi into Arkansas to feel we were leaving found Hot Springs quite for a swim; drove to the der where we stayed in those fine motor courts centered along the way.

At San Antonio we as guests of a retired and enjoyed our glimpse life at San Houston Park visit to Randolph Flynn a relaxation. It is said finest in the world and at Arredo we found possible to secure in the car and personal on the Texas ride so thru the customs was really and then the strange land with a new Ale strange signs on the for the directions were and the numbered posts of the road mark the kilometers to Mexico City.

For 42 miles we drove straight stretch of road very similar to the rolling southern Texas, but green shrubs and flowers of small gray bushes with ers appeared in great "Yerba Cenizo" is the and yerba were plentiful shrub covered with white was warm but not hot of grapes, corn and c that there is irrigation the Salado Valley.

Monterrey, 146 mile border, brings a varied vegetation as well as This city is the capital Leon, has a population and an altitude the same Andover. We found a court on the south side very artistic with its cement and colored tile beds and porches with Everything was done fort, but modern progress spoiled the old romantic tions, as the picturesque and customs continue j

We visited points of ate at two of its excursionists, besides being at shops, which are many stocked with native products.

Leaving Monterrey, roads the highway with beautiful canyon and in belt of Nuevo Leon. cured some of this d from roadside stands, of fine flavor.

We had begun to st tains at a distance th but now they were n all day the Sierra Ma our right, so pictures towering heights of gr that one thought of scenery and wished to tains opened. We ne into corn producing a great city we were right of corn fields, so the mountains where only be worked by ha or places great fields but always corn, for it al food of the people

At Victoria we ate an English landlady south crossed the Trop

We passed thru man and always Indians or with their bare feet, as the children smiled an lo" or "good-bye" or o tals which they wished

We were now in
